

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XL.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1919.

Property Nebraska State Historical Society

NO. 20.

RE-MOVAL SALE!

Now Going On

The Greatest Bargain Feast in Years

All New Fall Merchandise Sacrificed.

BOTH STORES.

The Toggery

Chicago Bargain Store

O'Neill, Nebraska

LOCAL MATTERS.

Frank Phillips, of Star, was an O'Neill visitor Thursday.

Ted Cooper made a business trip to Grand Island the first of the week.

Frank Barrett returned Friday night from a short visit at Omaha.

L. E. Skidmore, of Ewing, was an O'Neill visitor the first of the week.

Ben Grady and Jack Shmeler went to Winner, S. D., on business Wednesday.

Attorney Thomas Nolan of Bassett was in O'Neill on legal business Wednesday.

Ben Farner, prominent merchant of Stuart, was an O'Neill business visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Donohoe returned last Monday night from a week's visit with relatives in Chicago.

Fank Biglin went down to Omaha Monday to attend the season of grand opera at the Omaha auditorium.

George Bowden left the first of the week on a short business trip to Casper and Thermopolis, Wyoming.

George Miles went up to Long Pine Thursday, to pack up and bring back the bedding at the summer camp at the Long Pine park.

There will be a Hallowe'en Social at the Methodist basement on the evening of Wednesday, October 29th. Everybody welcome.

Will Biglin Saturday began work on the new residence he will erect on the lots immediately east of the residence of Mrs. O. F. Biglin.

Mr. and Mrs. Myer Richard and children went down to Omaha Sunday afternoon for a short business and pleasure trip, returning Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. O'Keefe, of Sioux City, Iowa, spent Sunday in the city visiting at the home of Mrs. O'Keefe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCafferty.

William Daly came up from Lincoln last Monday evening and will spend a few weeks visiting here with his son, C. M. Daly, and his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Harrington.

Mrs. J. J. McCafferty went down to Sioux City last Wednesday morning where she will spend a few weeks visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. O'Keefe.

Mrs. M. H. Beck, of Lincoln, who has been the guest of her daughter, Miss Octavia Beck of the high school faculty, for the past week, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clevisch left Monday evening for a visit with relatives in Montana. Afterward they will go to South Dakota. They expect to be absent about a month.

Will Cronin arrived Friday morning from Casper, where he has been visiting relatives for a few weeks. He will remain in O'Neill for several days before returning to his home in Omaha.

Casper Herald: After a delightful visit of several weeks spent at Battle Creek, Mich., Omaha and a prolonged stay at O'Neill, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Biglin returned to their home in Casper yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. O'Donnell went down to Omaha Sunday to attend the season of grand opera. Mr. O'Donnell returned Wednesday evening, while Mrs. O'Donnell remained for a visit with friends.

Charles Reka, accompanied his mother, Mrs. Nellie Reka, to Omaha last week where she is receiving medical treatment. Charley returned the first of the week but Mrs. Reka will remain there for a few weeks.

S. S. Welpton, of Omaha, president of the Nebraska State bank, arrived Thursday from a western business trip and will spend several days with J.

F. O'Donnell looking over the wild duck and prairie chicken situation.

Mrs. Mary Meagher, a former resident of this city, died in Omaha Wednesday of this week. The body will be brought to this city for interment and the funeral will be held from the Catholic church Sunday morning. She was 95 years of age.

Mrs. R. B. Miller of Dante, S. D., arrived Friday for a several days visit with her brother, Sheridan Simmons. Her son, R. S. Miller, came in Saturday from Grand Island, where he had recovered his Ford car recently stolen. They returned home by auto Tuesday.

Holt county friends have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Hazel Bell, of Chambers, and Mr. Harvey O. Miller, of Carthage, Mo., which took place at Omaha October 8. Mrs. Miller for some has been a teacher of mathematics in the Omaha schools.

Little Mary Arnold, daughter of the late Nathan Arnold, was taken to Omaha Saturday, to undergo treatment at the Methodist hospital, for partial paralysis, one of the after effects of an attack of the influenza. She was accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. L. W. Arnold, and other relatives.

Walter Ryan, brother of Arthur Ryan, arrived Friday for a several days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ryan, and Monday, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. A. Ryan, returned to their home in Savannah, Mo. Mrs. Ryan has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ryan for several weeks. Mrs. Arthur Ryan accompanied them as far as Omaha.

Henry Loshier, who had a public sale of his personal property last week, has purchased a residence in this city and will move to town in a few weeks to make O'Neill his future home. Henry has been a resident of Rock Falls township for over a quarter of a century and by hard work has acquired a competence and he will be able to take life easy henceforth.

Casper Herald: Mrs. Celia Kane was an arrival from O'Neill, Neb., for a few days visit in Casper. Mrs. Kane is the mother of Tom Kane, engineer of the local passenger from Chadron. Mrs. Kane recently purchased a beautiful new place at Atkinson and says if she had known the prospects of Casper would have purchased her home here. It is Mrs. Kane's first trip to the city and she is much taken up with Casper.

W. W. Cole, of Neligh, who represented Antelope county in the last legislature, was an O'Neill visitor Thursday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Cole is now an employee of the pure food department, having charge of the inspection of the drug stores of the state. He paid a nice compliment to the drug stores of this city, which he examined today, saying that they were as neat as any to be found in the state.

The editor of the Parrot refuses to serve upon the publicity committee for the Roosevelt Memorial drive, because he always was, always will be, and is opposed to things Rooseveltian. Also because Roosevelt was only an ordinary plug mortal among thousands. The attitude and opposition of the editor of The Parrot always was a matter of great grief and worry to Teddy in this life. If news bulletins from this world are transmitted to the spirit world Teddy probably will strike a discord in the heavenly chorus when he hears about it.

Harry Mathews, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mathews, former prominent residents of this city, was an O'Neill visitor last Sunday and Monday, greeting friends of his childhood days. Harry is now a resident of St. Louis, Mo., where he was for a number of years manager of a large printers supply house. During the war he served over seas as one of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries and since his return has been traveling for a southern medicine company. Harry, whom we knew when he was a little shaver in knee breeches, has grown to be quite a man, weighing considerably over 200 and looks happy and prosperous. He said the old town had changed considerably since he had last seen it, something over a quarter of a century ago, but that he was mighty glad to see it.

FINANCIAL CONNECTIONS.

Strong financial connections are important to the man who takes any part in commercial life.

If you desire to make any change or open an account, we will consider it a favor to have you talk it over with us.

The O'Neill National Bank is a growing one and we are placing the names of many new customers on our books.

THE O'NEILL NATIONAL BANK
O'Neill, Nebraska.

This Bank Carries No Indebtedness of Officers
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $130,000
Or Stockholders.

SAFETY SERVICE
COURTESY STRENGTH

LET US DO IT!

The Nebraska State Bank can undoubtedly help you in many ways in the course of a year.

This is not merely a safe and convenient depository for your funds—it's a good place to get sound financial advice and aid in transacting business at home or out-of-town.

Your account is invited.

Nebraska State Bank