Neb. Historical Society

THE FRONTIER Property Nebraska State Historical Society

VOLUME XL.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1919.

NO. 29.

LOCAL MATTERS. Banker E. J. Mack was down from Atkinson last Tuesday.

Anselm Whelan left yesterday to spend Christmas at Omaha. Charles Fruss had a load of hogs on the Omaha market Monday.

F. W. Phillips was in from north country last Saturday.

W. B. Barnard arrived from Casper Monday to spend Christmas at home. John T. Thompson, of Chambers, was an O'Neill visitor last Monday. Boston, Mass., arrived home last Fri-The Frontier force wishes all its day for the holiday vacation. readers a happy and prosperous New Year.

to Norfolk the latter part of last spend the Christmas Holidays. week.

B. E. Sturdevant, of Atkinson, was an O'Neill visitor the first of the home the latter part of last week to week.

Mrs. O. P. Chambers, of Dallas, S. D., is in the city spending the holidays with relatives Clifford Scott, of Rushville, was in the city Tuesday visiting at the home of his uncle, C. B. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Barrett went to Sioux City Wednesday to spend Christmas with relatives.

Captain E. H. Whelan went to Omaha Tuesday morning to spend Christmas with his family.

Miss Bess Alderson arrived from David City Sunday to spend Christmas with the folks at Chambers.

J. McAllister and D. L. Jouvenat, of Atkinson, were looking after business matters in this city Monday.

Hugh Birmingham came up from Omaha the first of the week to spend Christmas at the home of his parents. Miss Hilda Hirsch came up from Omaha Sunday to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hirsch.

Dr. Madeline Doyle, who is now located in Chicago, arrived in the city the latter part of last week for the Holidays.

Father Giblin, who was assistant to Father Cassidy here for over 'a year, is now pastor at Newcastle, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry came down from Cody, Nebraska, yesterday morning to spend Christmas with home folks.

Frank Eppenbach and Miss Wilma Mitchell, both of Ewing, were granted a marriage license in county court last Monday.

Sunday morning for a business trip Thursday of last week. to Chicago and other Illinois and Wisonsin points.

State University, came home the Christmas vacation.

granted a marriage license in county building. court last Saturday. James Dolan left last Tuesday eventhe ing for Riverton, Wyo., where he will spend the holidays visiting at the home of his daughter. -Donald Gallagher, who is attending the law school of Boston University,

Miss Gladys Miles, who is teaching in the city schools at Fremont, ar-Henry Grady made a business trip rived home the last of last week to the state agricultural college at Lincoln, came home the latter part of last week for the Christmas holidays. The Rev. J. J. Crawford, of Valentine, held services at the Episcopal church in this city, Sunday evening, and administered communion Monday morning. Judge J. J. Harrington and Mrs.

> Miss Kathleen Doyle, who is teaching in the Omaha public schools, came spend the Christmas vacation.

Harrington went to Lincoln the first of the week to spend Christmas with in Sioux county now. Miss Helen Harrington and other relatives.

Homer and John Mullen, Tom Brennan, William Frolich and John Gilligan came home from the university at Lincoln Saturday 'to spend the holidays.

Miss Rose Grady, who is tarriff Northwestern railroad at Norfolk, sons in New York. came up last night to spend Christmas at home.

Mrs. Donohoe arrived Friday from well known democratic statesmen. Lincoln, for the holidays, the consti- The club expects to have branches tutional convention having adjourned until January 6.

Samuel S. Eldridge and Eva Allshouse, both of Keya Paha county, were united in marriage by Judge Malone at the county court room last Saturday afternoon.

Chairman W. T. Hayes of the county ooard of supervisors came down from Atkinson Monday to sign up warrants of the county board. The trains on the Burlington and Northwestern, which were taken off a couple of weeks ago on account of Attorney W. J. Hammond left last the shortage of coal, were restored

> Clare Golden, who is an instructor of languages in the University of postoffice, and will take possession as was no soft coal in town and they Spencer G. Miller and Miss Marie soon as the same has been renovated. could not work in the building with-Lemmerman, both of Page, were This will make a splendid store out heat. The present postoffice building is heated by steam from the

> Miss Mae Hammond, who is now employed as a stenographer in the work of restoring the Douglas County public records, destroyed in the recent are comfortably settled. riot and fire, arrived in the city

Christmas Eve to spend a few days at home. Eight cars of livestock were ship-

Sunday. Among them were four cars Griffin is at present in Ireland and of cattle by Vi. Hunter, two cars by Fred Richter, sr., and Fred Richter, about the middle of the coming jr., and one car of hogs each by month. When Mr. Griffin returns Charles Pruss and J. B. Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Welsh left last Saturday morning for Boston, Mass., where they will spend the holidays visiting with relatives of Ben Rodenwold, who is attending Mrs. Welsh. Frank Connolly accompanied them and will spend a few weeks taking in the sights in the they are practically forcing the older eastern cities.

Miss Melvina Simmons, who is teaching at Orrilla, Sioux county, came home Sunday morning to spend the Christmas vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Simmons. Miss Simmons says that there is two feet of snow on the level

Gandma Keyes, aged 87 years, died at the home of her son, C. D. Keyes, at Inman, where she had made her home for many years, last Friday morning. The funeral was held Saturday, Rev. Urwin officiating. Five children survive her: C. D. and G. M. Keyes, of Inman; Mrs. S. S. clerk in the freight offices of the Sprague, of Irvington, Nebr., and two

A "Pershing for President" club has been organized at Lincoln. Among Senator James A. Donohoe and its membership are listed several organized in every county in the state and will try and land the republican presidential nomination for the man who commanded the American forces in the great war.

The spasm in the parrot declaring that there is and always has been plenty of fuel in O'Neill places the local coal dealers and the fuel committee in the same position with the for claims allowed at the last meeting fuel administration as was the fond parent who had just succeeded in convincing the railroad conductor his angel child was only five years old, when the kid piped up with: "I ain't either, pop, I'm seven."

William H. Bradt, of Stamford, Conn., arrived in the city last Sunday dicial and state candidates will be ing at the home of Mr. Bradt's brother, George W. Bradt. The brothers have not seen each other for forty-two years and it is needless to Mrs. F. H. Butts and sons, Max and say that they are enjoying a very pleasant visit. This is Mr. Bradt's first visit to the west and he says that he is agreeably surprised at the fine appearance of this section of the country.

latter part of last week for the Fellows building, just vacated by the they were compelled to move as there creamery. There is considerable work to be done on the building and it will be several weeks before they

Thomas Griffin, O'Neill's leading contractor, is busy these days cleaning up his work so that he can start soon after the first of the year for a ped to the Omaha market from O'Neill visit to his old home in Ireland. Mrs. Mr. Griffin expects to join her there next spring he will be able to furnish the members of the Research Club the latest "dope" on the leading topic of discussion: "The Irish Question." The Woodmen of the World and > Royal Highlanders have boosted their insurance rates to such an extent that members can quit or else pay an ex> horbitant rate. The Modern Woodmen and Aincent Order of United Workmen raised their rates a few years ago and forced nearly all the older members from these organizations. It seems to be the purpose of the officers of fraternal organiza-> a par with old line insurance companies, irrespective of the cost of the same to the membership.

> The year 1919 has been a good year for O'Neill but the year 1920 promises to break all records in the matter of civic improvement. The ordinance creating Paving District No. 1 has passed the council and is to the kind of paving to be used has been decided a civil engineer will be employed and the district surveyed and an estimate of the probable cost > of the paving made. Bids will then be advertised for and it is the hope of Mayor King and the other city of-

on the proposed paved street, that work on this great improvement will districts created and it will be but a and other business. few years until the entire city is paved. In addition to the paving there are a half dozen business buildings that will be erected in the city the

The primary election for the nomi-

Antone Toy has rented the Odd of the year in the postoffice but AUTO GAS CAUSE OF GRIL'S DEATH; TINSLEY FREED

Clears Up Columbus Mystery.

Omaha, Bee: The inquest over the dead in the Tinsley automobile De-court room Thursday afternoon and elaborate wedding breakfast was following verdict:

death December 10, 1919, by acci- turn to this city where they will dental inhalation of poisonous gas make their future home. from the exhaust of the automobile in which she was found."

the girl, testified as follows:

he met Stella Uryaszk in company of the Omaha office. with a lady friend at the Swan themembers out of the order. The old and immediately proceeded directly company for several years and is a what happened to him.

examination on material from Stella of happiness and prosperity. Uryaszk, sent December 12, was as

All evidence points undoubtedly in the gross appearance of the tissues. now a law: As soon as the question as halation of impure gas, in addition to than any other Nebraska paper. The elements.

As a result of the verdict Tinsely is considered free to go, as soon as he is able to leave the hospital.

Members of O'Neill Commercial Club. The Annual Meeting of the O'Neill start as soon as spring formally Commercial Club will be held Tues- you want to save a dollar. opens. When work starts on District day, January 6th, 8 p. m., office of C. No. 1 there will undoubtedly be other M. Daly. Purpose of electing officers

> C. M. DALY, Sec. 29-1

DEMENTED MAN WANDERED AWAY IN SNOW STORM

Herman Woeppel, age 90, living with his nephew, R. P. Whippel, WANTED-SCHOOL GIRL.-MARY nation of candidates for county, ju- fifteen miles southwest of Inman, was brought to Inman Monday evening

MILES-MURPHY. Gerald A. Miles and Miss Bridget C. Murphy, both of this city, were Examination by Omaha Specialist united in marriage by Rev. M. F. Byrne at Emmet last last Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Immediately after the wedding body of Stella Uryaszk, who was found ceremony the bridal couple repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. cember 10, was held in the county and Mrs. Dennis Murphy, where an at 5 p. m. the jury agreed upon the served. The young people left that afternoon for Omaha where they will "That Stella Uryaska came to her visit for a few days and will then re-

The groom is the eldest son of Mr.

and Mrs. George A. Miles of this city, Cam Tinsley, who was found in an and is a capable and industrious unconscious condition in his car with young man. For the past two years he has been an employee of the pov-On the night of December 10, 1919, ernment, in the revenue department

The bride is the daughter of Mr. ater and invited them into his sedan and Mrs. Dennis Murphy, pioneer ear to take them home. On the way residents of this county. She has he stopped to let out Stella's friend been an employee of the telephone to Stella's home, arrived there about charming and agreeable young hady 10 and stopped his car, and after who has a host of friends in this city. that he did not remember anything of The Frontier joins the many friends of this estimable young The doctor's analysis, the result of couple in wishing them many years

SAVE A DOLLAR.

On account of the tremendous linone direction, that death was due to crease in the cost of paper The Mincarbon monoxide poisoning. The coln State Journal will be compelled chemical evidence, which is in itself to increase its subscription price a practically conclusive, is supported by dollar. One year's subscription within 600 miles will be taken for a short There was nothing tending to a con- time at the old rate of $6 for the trary opinion in the microscopic ex- Daily and Sunday; $4 for the Daily amination of these. The somewhat only; $2.50 for the Sunday only. The peculiar lung findings are presumably Journal is the largest paper in the to be explained on the basis of in- state and prints more reading matter carbon monoride and other irritating Associated press and the exclusive Nebraska use of the Chicago Tribune leased wire service, together with unequaled features, making it NEBRAS-

XA'S GREAT MORNING NEWSPA-ER. Nine-tenths of the people of the state can be better served by The Journal than any other paper. Try it the coming year, but send in now if

ALFALFA HAY FOR SALE.

For Sale-175 tons of alfalfa. If purchaser desires we will allow him to feed the alfalfa on the place, and he can secure us to take care of stock. If interested write or call on Herman Stein, Meek, Nebr. 29-4p

PAID LOCALS.

Horiskey, O'Neill. 29-tf

ficials, as well as the business men coming year, so that 1920 promises to be a very busy one in this city.

follows: tions to place the fraternal orders on

Miss Marie Berry arrived from Minnesota, at St. Paul, arrived home Lincoln Saturday evening to spend the last Saturday afternoon to spend the holidays with her panents, Mr. and holidays with home folks.

Mrs. S. L. Berry.

John J. Harley, of Atkinson, and Rex, of Onawa, Iowa, arrived in the Miss Irene Scott, of Chambers, were city last Sunday evening to spend the granted a marriage license in county Holidays at the home of Mrs. Butts court last Tuesday.

George Harrington, who is engaged in the oil business at Casper, Wyo., arrived home last week for the Christmas holidays.

Joe Zeimer, who is attending the sister, Mrs. D. H. Cronin.

Miss Margaret Donohoe, who is employed as one of the teachers in the Omaha schools, came up from Omaha the latter part of the week to spend the holidays with home folks.

AND COMPLE

THE POOR BOY.

The poor boy has no good excuse for failure.

He must start at the proper place the bottom.

He must win the most essential elements of successconfidence.

He was not born with friends but must make them. He started life meeting obstacles so is not discouraged by them. Many of the banks' largest depositors were once poor boys.

FHEO'NEILL NATIONAL BANK O'Neill, Nebraska.

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $130.000 This Bank Carries No Indebtedness of Officers Or Stockholders.

W. L. Schaecher, of Lindsey, Nebr., was in the city the first of the week. Last spring Mr. Schaecher purchased to a complete set of state officers. the Minton farm two and a half miles Things political have been very quiet north of town and intended moving for several months but they have bethereon the coming spring. He recetly purchased land in Colorado and weeks. For district judge for the expects to move there next spring and Fifteenth Judicial district, Judge will offer his farm north of town at public auction on Thursday, January the district bench the past nine years, 15th. This is a splendid farm and he announces that he will be a candidate should have no trouble in procuring for reelection. Dame rumor has it buyers.

The supreme court of the United was Judge Dickson's opponent at the States sustained the legality of the election nire years ago, will cast his war time prohibition act and those chapeau into the ring and be a candiin wet states who have been antici- date for the place. It is also said that pating a merry reunion with John John A. Harmon, who served the Barleycorn and his numerous com- people of this county for twelve years panions have been disappointed. as clerk of the district court, be-dent will declare the war over and the mirably as district judge and would army demobalized, thus putting an probably enter the race as a candidate end to war time prohibition. The for that position. national prohibition law goes into effect on January 16, 1920.

Liquor men still hope that the presi- lieves that he could fill the bill ad-

Inman Leader: Death visited the Claude Peterson home at Page last Friday and took their only daughter, Florence, age eight, after an illness due to scarlet fever. The same day the daughter died the mother gave Presbyterian Church at the Presbybirth to a new babe who passed away Saturday evening and both children were buried Sunday in the Page cemetery. The family has been quarantined for a number of days the entire family being sick. The mother's condition has been very critical for the past few days as also the condition of the two little boys.

The postoffice was moved last Sat- country who has a host of friends in urday evening from the Odd Fel- the southern part of the county. lows building, between Douglas and The Frontier joins the many Holt Everett streets, to the Golden build- county friends of these young people ing between Clay and Douglas in wishing them happiness and pros streets. This is the businest week perity in their journey through life.

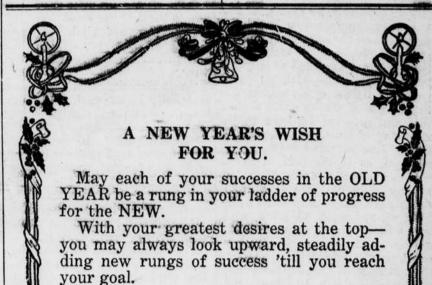

held in this state next April. On account of the presidential election the primary election every four years is held in April, instead of August. On account of the early date of the primary candidates will soon have to file for the several offices to be filled at the election next fall. The county offices to be filled at this election are: Clerk of the district court, county judge and two representatives. A state senator will also be elected next fall and a district judge, in addition gan to pick up a little the past few that E. H. Whelan of this city, who and taken to O'Neill where he was examined by the board of insanity and ordered committed to the hospital Norfolk, which place he was taken by Deputy Sheriff Borgstrom Tuesday. The old gentleman came here ago to make his home with his nephew. He became suddenly demented last Friday night, leaving the house shortly after the supper hour, and for two hours wandered around in the amputated.-Inman Leader.

Dickson, who has ably presided over

WANTED-LADY TO DO LAUNdry work at home, for chef and wife at Grand Cafe. 29-2p FOR SALE-I OFFER FOR SALE my ranch, 13 miles north of O'Neill on Blackbird creek, consisting of 600 from Stanton county about a month acres. This place is all fenced and cross fenced; one good 8-room house; good granary and corn crib; barns and sheds for 100 head of cattle; good well and windmill; several smaller buildings; running water; 100 seres storm without coat, hat or mittens, under cultivation; 40 acres of alfalfa; One of the searchers found him about 2 small orchards; 30 acres of tame two miles from home nearly frozen grass and bottom hay, rest of place to death. It is thought that the fingers on both hands will have to be Jacob Erb, O'Neill, R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR OUR COMMUNITY.

May all of us here start the NEW YEAR with a firm resolve to strive for everything that makes for the advancement of this community as a whole and by so doing, further the progress and prosperity of each individual member.

LINEHART-PUTNAM.

Frank E. Linehart, of Winner, S. D., and Miss Edith M. Putman, of Chambers, were united in marriage by Rev. George Longstaff of the terian Manse last Saturday afternoon

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Linehart of this city, who is now running a barber shop at Winner, S. D., where the young couple will make their future home.

The bride is one of the charming young ladies of the Chambers