

AMERICAN LEGION
SIMONSON POST NO. 93
News For Former Service Men By A Service Men.

To Our Comrades Who Sleep In France: Comrades of all American Legion posts are asked to call their members and all citizens attention to the Marne Memorial, which is to be erected at Meaux, France, near Chateau-Thierry, on the Marne river. It is particular fit that Chateau-Thierry and the Marne should be designated as the place to erect this memorial as a tribute to our dead comrades. One of the greatest sacrifices of the war was made at this place. The name of Chateau-Thierry, to-day is history. This memorial statue is to be given to France by the American people, and will mean the same to the French people as the statue of Liberty means to America.

Have You Joined the Legion? We want to build up our post of the American Legion, will you come over to the next monthly meeting and get acquainted? You do not have to join, unless you want to. The fellows would like to have you come over and receive the benefit of our meeting, because service men can help each other best. In union there is strength.

Will You Allow Us To Aid You? Were you wounded or disabled or do not have any claims which the American Legion can help you to settle? If so, will you permit the Adjutant of Simonson Post to help you with it. The Adjutant has been assured by government authorities that they will co-operate. Are you keeping up your insurance, and how much? and do you know your rights under the War Risk Act; if not, will you talk this over with Frank D. Harnish, Post Adjutant of our local post. He will give you a copy of the booklet which tells in simple language what your opportunities are, and how valuable this insurance is. Will you at least reinstate at once to protect your dependants until you have thoroughly investigated the converted insurance. This insurance is a badge of honor and only service men are entitled to its protection.

Identification Cards: The War Risk Insurance has sent out a small, white card to all holders of W. R. Insurance. This card when data is filled in will prove a very reliable source of information, in case you wish to write the Bureau regarding your insurance. It will also prove a means of identification in case of accident or sickness, while among strangers. These cards should not be returned to the W. R. Bureau, as many have done with their cards.

A Good Idea From Holt County: The following bulletin was sent out from National Headquarters, March 3, "Department Adjutant urged to instruct Department Historians, on the advisability of all ex-service men officially recording their Discharge papers, with the Recorder of their county." The National Commander neglected to inform all Departments that this idea originated in Holt County, Nebraska. But no difference who had the idea, it is sure a good one and should be followed to the letter.

Citations Revoked: The National Commander of the American Legion has been notified by the War Department, that citations bestowed on the Bearing Service Company of Detroit, are withdrawn. There were 27 citations in all issued this Company, on their pledge, to employ all former service men who left their company to enter the army or navy during the war. They have now refused to take one of their men back and all citations are revoked.

About That Discharge Certificate: Have you put it on record with Mr. Porter County Clerk, of this county? If you have neglected putting it on record, you should take it to the county clerk at once and have it recorded. Any day you may misplace this certificate and never find it again. If you will put it on record, you will always be able to get a true copy, at any time, which will answer the same purpose as the original.

W. R. Insurance Congestion Ends. The War Risk Insurance Bureau, announces that the number of unanswered letters in that department which have caused so much trouble and inconvenience in the past, has been reduced from 325,000 to 38,000. Unposted premium payments have been reduced from 210,000 to 9,000. This will enable the Bureau to handle all business as current.

Will You Assist the Legion? Do you know of any former service man or woman who needs hospital care or compensation? If so, will you please send their names to Post Adjutant, Simonson Post No. 93, O'Neill, Nebraska. The members of this post request information regarding all cases that need medical or hospital attention in this vicinity.

"Uncle Mose" is With Us: We are in receipt of a letter from Hon. M. P. Kinkaid in which he assures our Adjutant and all former service men and their friends of this vicinity that he favors "Adjusted Compensation" for all former service men, as outlined by the American Legion Committee and that this measure will continue to receive his hearty support.

Insurance Film Released: The W. R. Insurance Department announces that they will release the film entitled "Uncle Sam—Insurance Agent" to all posts of the American Legion for exhibition. This film is part of the campaign to keep active the thirty billion government insurance now held by soldiers, sailors and marines. We are assured that this is a very interesting film, and if arrangements can be made, it will be seen in this city shortly.

The Biggest Vote
You Ever Cast!
Why?

The one candidate who is a business man, but not a rich man; a diplomat, but not an "internationalist"; a statesman, but not a dreamer; a fighter, but not a militarist; a leader, but not a politician.

Because, if you cast it right, that vote will name the next President of the United States.

JOHN J. PERSHING For President

The statement is a big one, but it is not a whit bigger than the facts justify. Of all the many candidates in the field, John J. Pershing of Nebraska is the only one who has refused the nomination from politicians—who has declined to announce himself as a contestant—who has left his hopes and aspirations in the hands of his fellow citizens.

In spite of this, the Pershing-for-President sentiment has spread throughout the United States with unparalleled rapidity. Today, despite the fact that no organized campaign whatever has been made for him outside of this state, Pershing looms in the eye of every astute political observer as the nominee of the national convention in Chicago.

The reasons are simple. Pershing is:
The one candidate on whom all factions can unite.
The one candidate who has DEMONSTRATED his ability to handle a Presidential-size job.
The one candidate who is fitted to solve the international problems which remain as this country's heritage of the World War.
The one candidate who, throughout the confusion of war, kept his head level and did his work quietly and quickly—yet so well that his enemies have found no loophole for criticism.

The one candidate who is a business man, but not a rich man; a diplomat, but not an "internationalist"; a statesman, but not a dreamer; a fighter, but not a militarist; a leader, but not a politician.

The Nation wants Pershing. Let Nebraska nominate Pershing, and the rest of this country will name him at the national convention and elect him next November by the biggest majority ever given a Presidential candidate.

You will hear many words from the other candidates; you will hear none from Pershing. He has performed the task which you and the rest of the nation set him; he leaves it to you to say whether he performed it well.

THAT FACT MAKES EVERY NEBRASKAN THE CUSTODIAN OF THE GREATEST TRUST WHICH WAS EVER PLACED IN THE HANDS OF A STATE CITIZENRY. IT IS A TRUST THAT NEBRASKA MUST NOT—THAT NEBRASKA CAN NOT—BETRAY.

No other state—no other body of voters—can discharge that trust for you. On Nebraska—AND NEBRASKA ALONE—rests the responsibility. You and you only can place the name of Nebraska's greatest citizen in the presidential lists.

YOU AND YOU ONLY can give to the nation the one man, who, above all others is fitted to carry out the great tasks which will confront the next president—John J. Pershing—your fellow Nebraskan—your presidential candidate.

NEBRASKA MUST NOT FAIL. Do your part. Go to the polls Tuesday, April 20, and vote for
