

THE FRONTIER

Published by Dennis H. Cronin

One Year $2.00
Six Months $1.00
Three Months $0.50

Entered at the post office at O'Neill, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Display advertising on Pages 4, 5 and 8 are charged for on a basis of 20 cents an inch (one column width) per week; on Page 1 the charge is $1.00 an inch per month. Local advertisements, 10 cents per line first insertion, subsequent insertions 5 per line.

Every subscription is regarded as an open account. The names of subscribers will be instantly removed from our mailing list at expiration of time paid for, if publisher shall be notified; otherwise the subscription remains in force at the designated subscription price. Every subscriber must understand that these conditions are made a part of the contract between publisher and subscriber.

Political Advertising.

For Clerk of the District Court.

I have filed as a candidate for nomination to the office of Clerk of the District Court of Holt county, subject to the action of the republican voters at the primary election on April 20, 1920. If nominated and elected I promise to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, without fear or favor. Your vote and active support at the primary will be greatly appreciated.

J. A. JARMAN,
Chambers, Nebr.

To The Public and Voters in the 15th Judicial District Nebraska.

The undersigned having caused his name to be placed upon the ticket for the office of Judge of the District Court in the 15th Judicial District of Nebraska, takes this method of telling those not acquainted with him why he has done so.

FIRST: I have done it because I desire to be nominated and elected to the office, if the voters of the district agree with me.

SECOND: After a practice of practically 40 years in the courts of the district I have seen some things which the judges do which to my mind they should not. And at the same time I have seen many things which judges do not do which to my mind they should do. And both of which with my long experience and observation I believe can be overcome to the material advantage of litigants and saving to the people of court expenses.

THIRD: A great many people of the district have said and written me saying that it was a shame that there was no one who would come out for the office so they might at least have a chance to vote without being compelled to vote for a man whether they wanted to or not, that this being the second time it had occurred for this office it looked to them as though no one dared to try for the office.

There are many old settlers in the district who know me personally and know whether in their judgment I am qualified for the office or not, to those who do not know me I would suggest that they inquire of those who do and consider forty years of practice as some recommendation.

It will not be possible for me to meet many prior to the primaries but I shall try and see a great many before the election and will at all times answer any proper questions which may be asked, either in person or by mail.

I can say at this time that if elected there will be no strings on me. I have no close friends to reward, or enemies to condemn. I shall be in a position to act in every instance according to my best judgment in conformity with the law as I understand it, without fear or favor from any man or combination of men.

Your votes at the primaries April 20th and the election in November will be appreciated.

Very respectfully yours,
H. M. UTTLEY,
Candidate for Judge 15th Judicial District of Nebraska. 43-2p

Announcement of M. P. Kinkaid For the Republican Re-nomination For Representative in Congress.

I respectfully submit to the voters of the Sixth District my candidacy for re-nomination for Congress. I believe the record of my seventeen years of service is a guarantee of the efforts I have made in their behalf, also of their confidence in the success of those efforts.

Great changes have come in that period. Agriculture has come to be recognized as the most important of our industries. Irrigation has developed new areas of cultivation, and must continue to do so. Potash discoveries in our Sixth District has made it one of the greatest factors in this country in furthering agricultural development.

My long service has placed me at the head of the Committee on Irrigation of Arid Lands, besides giving me advanced positions on other committees, and has otherwise afforded me an opportunity to be of still larger service to my constituents, and it is because I feel that I can render that better and larger service that I submit my candidacy again to the voters of the Sixth District.

I maintain there should be a more equitable division between the price realized by the producer and that paid by the ultimate consumer, and that this should be accomplished largely by the firm enforcement of existing federal antitrust statutes.

The cost of labor is regulated largely by the cost of living, and American labor has the right to expect a living wage, commensurate with American standards of living as compared with the lower standards of foreign countries.

I favor the reduction of the present heavy federal taxes as fast as may be, consistent with the actual necessities of the Government, based upon truly economical management, outstanding obligations, and the maintenance of the integrity of our national credit, and that the masses should be relieved in a measure by shifting a portion of their tax burdens to the shoulders of those who realize immense profits on war contracts.

I shall support the Soldiers' Four-fold adjusted Compensation bill, recommended by the American Legion.

I am opposing compulsory military training in accordance with the majority sentiment of my constituents.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF HOLT COUNTY:

There are two Delegates to be elected from the 6th Congressional District to the Republican National Convention. I shall appreciate a good vote in my home county as one of the Delegates. In this connection I desire to make a personal appeal in behalf of Mr. Woodruff Ball of Valentine, who is also a candidate.

Mr. Ball like myself is running entirely independent of any slate or combination. We both stand pledged to abide by the preferential expression of the republican voters at the primary.

S. J. WEEKES.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

Judge C. J. Malone is a candidate before the Primary April 20, 1920, for nomination for County Judge. In his campaign of 1916 he promised if elected he would make the County Court self sustaining, and the record of that office shows that he has kept his promise. Since January 1, 1917, the fees and receipts of the office have exceeded the expenditures. For the year 1919 he paid to the treasury of Holt County excess fees amounting to the sum of $1,073.00, the greatest excess ever earned by that office in one year. Judge Malone is justly proud of his record and of the fact that the County Court under his administration is self sustaining.—Adv.

HON. GEORGE D. MATHEWSON. Candidate for Governor.

Was born and raised on a farm. Am a classical graduate of an Iowa college. Practiced law for 20 years. Have lived on a farm, raised stock, fed cattle and farmed for the last 15 years, and know the farmer, laborer and people's wants and needs.

Am opposed to graft and the reckless expending of the peoples money. Am for the people first, last and all the time.

If I am elected, no bill will become a law by my signature, unless it is for the benefit of a majority of the people.

I guarantee an honest and economical administration. No spending of the peoples' money unless the people get the benefit of it.

Am opposed to centralization of power. No granting of pardons without knowing the facts.

I am a little old fashioned and when a man kills another in order to steal his wife, he never received a pardon from me.

A TEST OF SINCERITY.

Tuesday will be primary day and those who profess to favor the principle of self-determination for small, enslaved and oppressed nations will have an opportunity to demonstrate just how sincere they are in their utterances and professions along this line. At the primary the voters are to express a preference on candidates for the presidency and the delegates to the national conventions of both parties are supposed to be bound by law to follow by their action the preferences expressed.

The republican party is opposed to entering into any treaty or pact with the monarchies of the old world whereby the United States pledges itself to assist in preserving the territorial integrity of these European nations. Preserving territorial integrity means exactly what it says. It means that the territorial boundaries and jurisdictions are to be maintained just as they are. That no subject or subjugated people may expect any sympathy or expressions of sympathy from any member of the alliance as against any other member of the alliance. United States Senator Hiram Johnson of California is the only candidate of either party that is opposed to any peace pact whatever that will require the United States to lend even moral support to the holding of a subject people in perpetual bondage. All other candidates favor a peace pact of some kind. The democratic candidates are in favor of the pact just as President Wilson wants it. Without the crossing of a "t" or the dotting of an "i." Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, who is seeking the Nebraska delegation to the democratic convention in his own interests as a presidential candidate, has led the fight for the treaty as President Wilson wants it. He is the president's mouthpiece, and he still is contending for the policies of the president. He never has had time to attend a meeting of a Senate committee where the Irish question was being considered. He never will have time to consider the Irish question. It may be that party ties cause him to look upon the freedom of Ireland as tommyrot. In the opinion of Senator Hitchcock the question of whether near beer shall contain one-half of one per cent of enthusiasm, or two per cent or three per cent or four per cent, is of far more vital importance than the freeing of an enslaved people. He is making his fight for the highest office in the gift of the people on this great principle of more kick in our drinks.

W. J. Bryan, who thought the treaty a mistake, has modified his views and thinks we should have some kind of a treaty to save the face of the democratic party. He, like Senator Hitchcock, thinks the near beer question the one upon which the campaign should be fought out. He would have no kick at all in near beer. Party ties naturally cause Mr. Bryan to consider the Irish question tommyrot and something not to be referred to in polite society. Senator Williams, who favors emphatic near beer, was the only democratic senator who had the guts to state clearly and definitely the position of the democratic party on the Irish question.

The actions of a majority of the democratic senators since the Williams speech indicate that they consider Senator Williams about right.

Senator Hiram Johnson has from the first been an advocate of the oppressed peoples of the world. He is against any peace or highbinder league. The people in the states in which he has spoken in the interest of his own candidacy have upset the dope of the political prophets by giving him a phenomenal vote and he is daily becoming a more formidable candidate for the presidency.

Tuesday the people of Nebraska will vote a presidential preference. Nebraska is not a pivotal state, but if Johnson carries Nebraska at the primaries other states are very apt to fall in line. States as well as individuals are great on getting into the band wagon. A big vote for Johnson next Tuesday in Nebraska may make a great many voters in other states Johnson men. A great many Irish democrats in Holt and other counties have declared their intention of voting for Hiram Johnson this fall if he should be the republican nominee for president. They have not yet said however that they will support him at the primaries.

If he represents their principles sufficiently to entitle him to their votes at the general election and they truly and sincerely desire to see him president it would be an expression of their sentiment to vote for him at the republican primaries. It is a cinch that no democrat is going to be elected president of the United States this fall. Some republican will be elected. Are the Irish democrats sincere in their pleas for Irish recognition and will they show their sincerity by helping to nominate a man who represents their views?

Hiram Johnson cannot be elected president if he is not nominated. The old folks over there are looking to you. Hiram Johnson and the folks over there need your vote next Tuesday. It might not be of any use to them next November.

Frank A. Harrison of Lincoln, state manager of the Johnson campaign, has asked Nebraska Johnson supporters to vote for the slate of delegates to the republican national convention already pledged to General Wood. If the contingency should arise, and it may, that Wood and Johnson should be the principle candidates at the national convention, and it becomes necessary to eliminate one to assure the nomination of the other, which candidate would this delegation double cross? The voter Tuesday will make no mistake in voting for S. J. Weekes and Woodruff Ball as candidates for delegates to the national convention from this district. Both announced their candidacies for delegates before the presidential campaign

Chas. A. McCloud

Candidate for Republican
National Committeeman

More of a business man than a politician. A man competent to do big things. A great organizer, wise counselor and wonderful constructive ability. In a position to render valuable service to the Republican National Committee. Vote for him.

Managers got into the game in Nebraska and declared their unalterable intention to stand to the end for the presidential candidate for whom the people express their choice at the primary. Neither will have to double cross any candidate or violate any promise to keep their pledge. Both are men of honor and of their word, as those who have had business or personal relations with them know.

Senator Norris always had a lot of friends in this county but he added to their number by his speech at the K. C. hall last Wednesday night.

The Wood boom is waning and the Johnson sentiment is growing strongly. From present indications Johnson will have a substantial majority in this city.

If you want to be in the band wagon you will cast your vote for Hiram Johnson for president next Tuesday. He will sweep the state like the old time prairie fires.

Thorne Browne has made good as railway commissioner and republican voters will make no mistake in casting their ballots for him next Tuesday.

HIS PROBLEM.

From Judge: "Myrtle's husband is really a nice man, but so vacillating. How do you know?"

"Myrtle says he spent a full hour yesterday trying to decide whether he would wash the car, the dog, or the baby."

Political Advertising.

Political Advertising.

ADAM McMULLEN

BEATRICE (GAGE COUNTY) NEBRASKA
Candidate for the Republican Nomination for GOVERNOR

Has resided in Gage county thirty-six years. Graduate of State University and Columbian Law College.

Served three terms in the state legislature. Was speaker pro-tem in the 1907 session. Represented Gage and Pawnee counties in the state senate, 1917 session.

His legislative record demonstrates that he is in full accord with the aims and ideals of the people of Nebraska, and if elected governor, his services will be devoted to their combined interests.

Mr. McMullen is a careful, level-headed business man. He believes that the prosperity of any community, or any state, depends upon the unhampered activity of its resources and institutions.

He is engaged in extensive agricultural operations and he understands the needs of the farmers.

We can win with McMullen

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE,
McMullen-for-Governor-Club.

Primaries to be held April 20, 1920

Chas. A. McCloud

Candidate for Republican
National Committeeman

More of a business man than a politician. A man competent to do big things. A great organizer, wise counselor and wonderful constructive ability. In a position to render valuable service to the Republican National Committee. Vote for him.

The Secret

THE secret of "getting your money's worth" lies in the elimination of buying mistakes. The woman who understands herself and her corset problem doubles her available capital by never buying the wrong corset.

And the surest way to always buy the right corset is to place yourself in the hands of a competent corsetiere who will make the solving of your problem a matter of personal pride.

If you are considering the purchase of a new corset let us suggest the

GOSSARD Front Lacing CORSET

There is no figure, however unusual or difficult to fit, but can be successfully fitted by our expert corsetiers in these original front lacing corsets. We guarantee your entire satisfaction.

P. J. McManus
The Home of Good Mdse.