

LOCAL MATTERS.

Attorney J. A. Rice is looking after legal matters in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Biglin returned Monday evening from a visit with relatives at Jackson, Neb.

J. D. Cronin made a business trip to Omaha last Sunday morning, returning Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell returned last Tuesday evening from a two weeks visit with friends in Omaha.

Mrs. D. H. Cronin left last Monday morning for a couple of weeks visit with relatives at Omaha and Onawa, Iowa.

Last Monday Judge C. J. Malone issued a marriage license to John Steinhauer and Miss Ida H. Freidel, both of Stuart.

The Woman's Club will hold a food sale at Grady's store Saturday, each member of the club to furnish a donation for the sale.

Herbert H. Kohle and Miss Katie Steinhauer, both of Stuart, were granted a marriage license in county court last Monday.

William Carson, for many years a resident of Steel Creek precinct, is in the city today visiting friends. Mr. Carson is now living at Lincoln.

P. C. McKillip of the Atlas Land Company, came up from Columbus Saturday evening to look after his local interests, returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kauffman returned Sunday evening from a two weeks auto tour during which they visited relatives at Meadow Grove, Battle Creek and Tilden.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Connell, jr., and son, little Frank, returned Tuesday from Topeka, Kan., where little Frank had been on his first visit to his grandmother and other relatives.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 21st Sunday after Trinity, 8 a. m., Holy Communion, 11 a. m., Holy Eucharist and sermon, subject "Footprints on Sands of Time." J. J. Crawford, Dean.

The Chambers band, thirty or forty strong, came up Monday evening for a delayed serenade to Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey W. Porter, the weather being too inclement at the time of their marriage a year ago, to make the trip.

John Farrand of Giltner, Nebr., arrived in the city last Thursday afternoon for a few days visit at the home of his niece, Mrs. D. H. Cronin. Saturday Mr. Farrand went down to Ewing to spend a few days with friends there, before his return home.

J. P. Mann, for many years engaged in the mercantile business in this city, but now at the head of a large manufacturing establishment in Chicago, arrived in the city the latter part of last week for a couple of weeks visit with relatives and old friends here.

O'Neill has a new industry that is not exactly meeting with the approval of automobile owners. Numerous thefts of tires and other accessories from automobiles have been reported recently, the latest being two tires from the car of Mike Enright Tuesday night, and of all the tires from a car belonging to Pat Brown Wednesday night.

A surprise party, with the Degree of Honor as hostess, was tendered Mrs. E. H. Whelan at the residence of Mrs. T. A. Quilty last Thursday evening. The event was a farewell to the guest of honor, who soon is to remove with her family from O'Neill. A delicious three course luncheon, with Mesdames Quilty, Mullen and Arbuthnot presiding, was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffith returned last Tuesday evening from a ten months visit with relatives and friends in Ireland. On their way home they visited relatives in Massachusetts and stopped for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Doyle in Michigan. Tom is looking fine and says that he had a very pleasant trip, but was glad to get back to O'Neill.

Joe McNicholls and an efficient road crew are at work grading the correction line road west from the section line immediately south of town to the ditch camp. The big elevating grader is being used, the ditches deepened and a standard roadway built. Work on the O'Neill-Chambers road at Dry and Spring creeks also is being pushed by competent road crews and brought to a grade that will do away with the usual spring interference with traffic. County Highway Commissioner H. U. Hubbard is directing the work.

This office received a letter from our old friend, J. B. Berry the latter part of last week, from Rochester, Minn., where he has been receiving medical treatment. He said that he was recovering rapidly and would leave in a few days for his home at White Bird, Idaho. "Back" says: "Thinking it might be of interest to you and many of the old boys who read your splendid paper to know how some of the people stand on the League of Nations, I'll give it to you as I took it on the train, coming here from Idaho. I was five days and nights on the train and the following straw votes were taken. At Greenville, Idaho, 11 to 5 against the league. From Lewiston, Mont. to Spokane, Wash., 20 against the league and 5 for; Spokane to Livingston 20 against and 3 for; from Livingston to Bismark 10 against and 3 for. From Bismark to St. Paul was made in the night and I did not take a poll. From St. Paul to Rochester 27 against and 9 for. I find that ten per cent of the democrats are opposed to the Wilson league."

DISOWNS HIS OWN PARTY.

St. Louis—The passing of the democratic "party hat" to Sterling P. Bond, former member of the legislature and a life long democrat, not only brought a refusal to contribute, but a rather sharp note why he is contributing his money and influence to the republican ticket this time, saying among other things: "The miserable and incompetent administration of the government by the democratic party is more than any American should be called upon to approve."

Mr. Bond was defeated for the democratic nomination for United States senator in 1910 by Senator James A. Reed. His letter to Campaign Fund Chairman Taylor follows, in part:

"The administration of the government under the present executive, and the democratic party, has not only been incompetent and sectional, but without the pale of the law. This administration singled out a class—the producers of the soil—the very salt of the earth and national existence—the producers of the great North and West, fixed the price of their property by a commission appointed by an executive who assumed to know it all, an executive who not only did not know anything about production, never having produced a bushel of grain in his life, but was ignorant of the laws of the land which prohibit the taking of private property, or the fixing of the price of private property by a commission in war or peace. Thus the present administration fixed the price of the property of the producers of the soil, thereby confiscating the value of their property in the markets of the world, and that, too, in the face of and contrary to the fifth and seventh amendments to the written Constitution of the United States.

"Thus did the present executive and democratic administration cheat and defraud the producers of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Oklahoma, each, out of 50 million dollars for each of the years 1917, 1918 and 1919, and the producers of other states, also, in proportion to the amount produced and the price fixed for their property. During the years 1917, 1918 and 1919 the producers of the soil in the North and West were cheated out of not less than 3 billion by this democratic administration. This was the quintessence of bolshevism."

Hoped for the Best.

Everybody's Magazine: In a small town not long ago, after a fire, some children held a fair. The sum realized they sent to the pastor of the church. Their letter read:

"This $30 was raised by a fair, and we are sending it to you. Please give it to the fire sufferers."

"P. S.—We hope the suffering is not all over."

Maybe?

Buffalo Express: A New York baby kicked his nurse so hard that 'she's suing the reckless rascal's mother for $10,000 damages. Do you suppose somebody dropped a raisin in the kid's bottle?
