Myer Richard returned last Thursday evening from a two weeks purchasing trip to the New York markets. "Mike" says that business is very dead in New York and on account of the tightness of the money market he was enabled to purchase goods at wonderful reductions over the prices quoted a couple of months ago and he will give his patrons in this section the benefit of his good buying.

Oil promoters can go ahead with drilling in northern Holt county any time now, Charles Bigler having leased to them the oil privileges on his ranch in that section. With the Bigler land the promoters now claim 15,000 acres under lease in the district. Mr. Bigler heretofore had refused to lease the oil privilege on his place, disliking to have the scenery cluttered up with old derricks or the farming land spoiled by oil waste.

A MODERN AND COMPLETE BANK

OUR WIVES AND DAUGHTERS.

We have asked our wives and daughters to do everything but fight and they responded.

We honor her for her help that has been such an inspiration to our boys in the dark days of the war.

The O'Neill National Bank will always have a word of appreciation for the American woman and invites her account.
