HEN LAID 268 EGGS IN YEAR.

One White Leghorn hen laid 268 eggs during the first year of the egg laying contest being conducted by the Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station at Lincoln. This is about 200 eggs more than the average hen lays. The first year of the contest ended November 1. About 1,000 pullets were entered in the contest, the most of them from Nebraska. Pullets laying 200 or more eggs each during the year represented breeds in the following numbers: White Leghorn, 24; Rhode Island Red, 2; White Wyandotte, 2; Silver Laced White Wyandotte, 1; White Orpington, 1; White Rock, 1; Barred Plymouth Rock, 1; Rhode Island White, 1; C. Bonsall of Fairberry won a cup for the best

Rhode Island Red record; Wayland W. Magee of Bennington a cup for the best Plymouth Rock record; and the Pierce Poultry Yards at Atlanta a cup for the best Plymouth Rock record; and the Pierce Poultry Yards of Atlanta a cup for the best individual records for Orpingtons, Wyandottes, Langshans and Rhode Island Whites. The White Leghorn prize was won by Kiel Bros., Cincinnati, Ohio. The purpose of the contest is to encourage the breeding of better laying poultry.

SIXTY-FOURTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Deering (N. Dak.) Enterprise: Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burtch of this village celebrated their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary Tuesday, October 5th. Their children were all present and prepared a sumptuous dinner for the bridal pair of 64 years at the home of their son, G. S.

Burtch.

Their eight children, three sons and five daughters are: Mrs. Ida Abbott of Moose Lake, Minn.; Mrs. Clara Duncanson of Winnebago, Minn.; Mrs. Adella Bowden of Agee, Neb.; Mrs. Nellie Smith of Gettysburg, S. D.; Mrs. Viola Bursau of Norwich, N. D.; Frank L. and William D. Burtch of Wilton, N. D., and our townman, Guy S. Burtch.

It has been 29 years since the family were together and this celebration was one they will never forget.

Other relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Burtch who were present were Mrs. Jessie Troyer of Nampa, Idaho, a grand daughter, and Melvin Burtch of Raub, N. D., a grandson.

Mr. Burtch, who is 86 years of age and Mrs. Burtch 81, were married at Wautoma, Wis., October 5, 1856, when the ox team was considered a fast way of traveling. Both Mr. and Mrs.

Burtch, who are enjoying good health have lately been digging their potatoes and getting ready for winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wells, who were present at the dinner, have been married over 55 years.

Helped Some.

Yonkers Satesman: "Bones is your doctor, isn't he?" asked the village tailor of his neighbor.

"He is," replied the man next door, who was a shoe dealer.

"Do you think he ever helped you?"

"Oh, yes, I think he has. He tells all his patients to walk more."

A Natural Mistake.

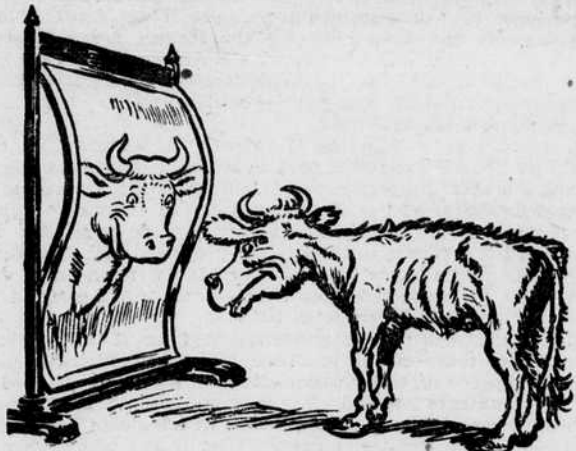

London Passing Show: Master—How often must I tell you to sweep away the cobwebs in that room?

Maid—But that's not a cobweb, sir. That's the mistress' new evening dress.

Fooling Himself!

This skinny critter is busy at making himself believe he is a fat steer! But his delusion is no more complete than that of the farmer who thinks he saves money by raising cheap scrubs. These days, when the margin between feed cost and selling price on the hoof is uncertain, there is on y one economical kind of steer—the pure-bred. His superiority over the scrub can be measured in size, in quality, in pounds of beef for pounds of feed consumed—and finally in dollars on the credit side of the farm ledger.

In a series of advertisements in this newspaper, we shall demonstrate that pure-breds make the beef for which the packer pays the highest price. They are your big money-makers when the market is up, your surest source of profit when it drops.

For this publicity in the interest of pure-bred beef cattle, we are indebted to THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. If you are now a reader you know its frequent helpful articles on better beef cattle, and its many fact-stories of successful farmers who have prospered from the steadily increasing demand for pure-bred breeding stock.

If you are not a subscriber, let THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN enroll you along with the rest of its progressive farmer subscribers. Fifty-two issues of a year's subscription come for just $1.00. Yes, your check is good.

"Well, I'll Be Switched"— exclaimed the chap who had just heard the why and wherefore of Spur Cigarettes. It didn't take him long to say, "Switch me to Spurs."

Notice that good old-time tobacco taste in Spurs. Trace it down and you will find it comes from the blend of choice Turkish, fine Burley, and other home-grown tobaccos. Rich—refreshing—right.

Finger Spur. It's fat and full-rolled. Note the crimped seam—no paste there. It's a new wrinkle in cigarette making—and Spur owns it all. You'll discover that crimping means easier drawing, slower burning, better taste.

Spur is a well-balanced cigarette—the rich-looking, brown and silver package of twenty, with its threefold wrapping, suggests good taste as plain as day.

Ring out the old, ring in the new. Start fresh with Spur.
