Holiday Reductions

That Are Money-Makers For You

Hart Schaffner & Marx Fine Suits
and Overcoats worth $50 to $75, now

$35 to $50

There's no use of mincing matters; we're taking a loss on these goods. They cost us the highest prices that good clothes ever sold for.

Because we realized that people needed lower prices, we sacrificed our profits to help lower the cost of living.

Other good merchants in other parts of the country did the same.

It costs as much to make clothes now as it did months ago.

But you want the lower prices; now we're going a step further and during the busy holiday season we're offering still greater values at the time when you want them most.
