

LOCAL MATTERS.

Dawey Loshier is home from Chadron for the Christmas holidays.

The Martez club was entertained by Miss Grace Hammond and Miss Mae Hammond Monday evening.

Clarence Zimmerman is laid up with a broken arm as the result of teasing a Ford the other day.

Sunday night's snowfall was much lighter at Inman than here, according to Jay Butler, who was an O'Neill business visitor Monday.

If those owing us on subscription will call and extend their subscriptions as well as pay up their indebtedness, it would greatly assist in relieving the money stringency at these headquarters.

The baled hay market is all shot to pieces. Baled hay is now selling on the local market for $6.50 per ton, which is less than it costs to put it up and bale it. This is lower than the market has been for years.

Atkinson Graphic: Ira Moss, Clerk elect of the District Court, has husked a thousand bushels of corn since election day. Clerk Moss' pre-election defamers will find he is not lacking in any of the essential "percentages."

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Huntington of Council Bluffs, Iowa, spent the past week in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zimmerman. Mr. Huntington is a brother of Mrs. Cooper.

Zeb Warner and Ralph Lawrence went over on the Niobrara river the latter part of last week on a hunting trip and succeeded in bagging two geese, and they brought them home to prove to the skeptics that they really got them. According to Zeb geese hunting is rather expensive these days, with the high price of gasoline.

County Highway Commissioner H. U. Hubbard will leave Thursday evening for Hot Springs to spend Christmas with Mrs. Hubbard, who is visiting relatives in the Black Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary on September 14. In the forty years they have not missed spending Christmas together.

Five good bouts by excellent amateur talent, with Tom Keys as referee, will comprise the card at the smoker the American Legion will give at the K. C. hall Saturday evening. The entertainment is for the purpose of buying equipment for the club rooms the league is fitting up and a good attendance is looked for as every legion post in the county will send delegates.

Mrs. Anna Forbes, manager of the local Western Union office the past year, has been promoted to the managership of the office at Estherville, Iowa, leaving last week for that point. The business of the company here was built up considerably during the efficient cumbency of Mrs. Forbes and patrons of the office regret her departure although glad of her promotion. She is succeeded by Clyde Irwin, formerly of Fremont, who already has taken charge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hunter and family left Thursday afternoon for Omaha where they will make their future home. Mr. Hunter will retain his large interests here and will be a frequent visitor to O'Neill. They have purchased a fine suburban residence on Fort Crook boulevard, which is handy to the livestock market. The Frontier joins with all who know them, in regretting the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter from O'Neill and in extending them best wishes for happiness and prosperity in their new home.

John McHugh, vice president of the Mechanics & Metals National bank of New York, who is chairman of the committee on permanent organization, and who will be chairman of the board of directors of the $100,000,000 capital foreign trade financing corporation now in process of organization, is a former O'Neill citizen and banker. Mr. McHugh in the nineties was cashier of the O'Neill State bank, which liquidated prior to his removal from the city. Mr. McHugh went from O'Neill to Sioux City, where he soon became one of that city's leading bankers and from there was called to New York. He is well and intimately known to all the old timers of this city and county who rejoice in his success in the financial world.

The local chapter of Brion Borou has taken a long time lease on the former city scale house from John Horiskey and the rooms have been tastefully refurbished and equipped as winter quarters where the members may drop in daily for argument and discussion. William Fallon is the president and Charles Wrede treasurer. John Donlin is master of ceremonies, John Nolan inside guard, John Horiskey keeper of the fires and Denis Hanley historian. George Agnes and Will Biglin have been elected to honorary membership for services rendered in fitting up the club rooms and assisting in providing fuel. The first formal function of the club's winter season of entertainment will be a watchnight party New Year's eve and the club will keep open house New Year's day.

STANDING IT.

Youngstown Telegram: A dusky chauffeur who recently brought the frame of a big truck from Detroit to Youngstown, rode part of the way sitting on the gas tank, but the seat was so hard he soon became tired of it. "Ah don't see how you could stand it, Henry," a friend observed. "Stan' it," Henry replied. "Mah goodness, dat's jes what Ah couldn't do nothin' else but."
