HOLT COUNTY CITY ELECTION RESULT

Inman.
Inman Leader, April 7:—At the village election held in Inman last Tuesday Frank Coleman and Dr. Noyes were re-elected as members of the village board. 45 votes were cast. The following is the vote: Frank Coleman 33, Dr. Noyes 28, John Anspach 11, E. W. Wilcox 12, Joe Ruddy 1, Fred Hill 1, Wm. Kelley 1, Jim Hart 1.

Atkinson.
Atkinson Graphic, April 8:—Election day in Atkinson was a quiet meeting so far as excitement went. The old Mayor, Dr. Douglas, on the ballot by petition, outran W. L. Schultz, Caucus nominee, 15 votes in a total of 393. City Clerk Snyder, without opposition, received the largest vote, 358 with Treasurer Swingle following closely with 347. There were 50 fewer votes cast this year than last. Mrs. I. E. Deck and G. C. Funk were without opposition for the 3-year terms on the Board of Education to succeed D. L. Jouvenat and S. W. Kelly whose terms expire. The caucus candidate Mrs. C. T. Friedrich, for the 1-year term did not fare so well being beaten by petition candidate R. L. Griffin by a majority of 58 votes.

Page.
Page Reporter, April 7:—The regular village election was held Tuesday. There was but little opposition to the regular nominees; no special issue was before the people, and for that reason only a light vote was cast. There being but 51 votes cast. Only a few women voted. The following is a summary of the vote cast:
Trustees for two years: Wilton Hayne 37, L. R. Dillard 39, J. E. Smith 41, J. T. Patterson 9, N. B. Cooper 6, J. T. Walker 7.

Trustees for 1 year: C. E. Ferdig 35, Justice of the Peace: G. L. Reberge 32, Thomas Dillett 2, G. E. Ferdig 2.
For Constable: J. P. Shanner 19, Joe Patterson 20, J. T. Walker 1, Sid Sanford 1, Chas. Grosh 1, H. G. Eickhoff 1, S. G. Coover 1.

Stuart.
Stuart Advocate, April 7:—The election last Tuesday resulted in the election of John Robertson and Dr. D. K. Stuart for village trustees for a term of two years, and E. A. Walker and Mrs. Wm. Krotter for members of the board of Education for terms of three years and J. W. Rhodes for a term of one year.

Ewing.
Ewing Advocate, April 7: The village election Tuesday was a very quiet affair, so quiet in fact, that many citizens forgot that it was election day. There were in all twenty-three votes cast, or less than a tenth of the total eligibles. D. W. Gemmill, S. W. Green and W. L. Butler were up for re-election as trustees of the village board and without opposition. They corralled the entire vote with the exception of four scattered selections.

Chambers.
Chambers Sun, April 7: There were sixty-one votes cast at the village election Tuesday with the following results, selecting Mrs. Hattie Halvorsen, Mrs. I. W. Jarman, and J. A. O. Wood, as trustees for the ensuing year:
Mrs. C. W. Robertson 10
Mrs. I. W. Jarman 34
Mrs. Hattie Halvorsen 34
J. L. Greenstreet 17
Wilson Smith 26
J. A. O. Wood 45
J. M. Duvall 22

RICHARD H. JENNESS.

Richard H. Jenness, commissioner of the United States land office at O'Neill from 1887 to 1901, died at the city hospital in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, Saturday morning April 2, at 6 o'clock, from a stroke of apoplexy suffered the previous Thursday evening, not regaining consciousness from the time of the stroke until his death. Mr. Jenness was commissioner of finance of the city of Okmulgee. The following partial account of his death is from the Okmulgee Daily Times of April 3: "From the time when he was stricken until the last, the commissioner was never conscious and only once was there any indication that he would regain consciousness. "News of his death cast a pall of gloom over the city. Every man who has lived in Okmulgee for five years or more felt that he had lost a good friend. At the city hall where he had labored so faithfully and zealously in behalf of the citizenship during the past nine years, there was feeling of utter sadness for it is doubtful if the city has ever had an official who was so universally beloved as was Commissioner Jenness.

Mr. Jenness would have been 64 years old on June 1. He was born at Lyndenwood, Illinois, in 1857. His father was a printer and newspaper publisher and it was natural that the son should follow the father's vocation. As a printer, Mr. Jenness covered much of the middle west and served on newspapers with men who have since won nation-wide reputations. He married Miss Clara N. Bliss of Falls City, Nebraska, at St. Joseph, Missouri, December 26, 1882, and several years later went to Nebraska to live. As an ardent republican, he had supported McKinley in his contest with Bryan and when in 1896 a vacancy occurred in the office of receiver of the office at O'Neill, Nebraska, President McKinley appointed Mr. Jenness to that place.

"He had previously served a term in the Nebraska legislature. Mr. Jenness remained in the land office until 1901 when he came to Oklahoma, going first to Chandler where he remained only a few months, then coming to Okmulgee. In 1902, President Roosevelt appointed him postmaster here and in 1903, Mr. Jenness established the Okmulgee Chieftain, a weekly publication which was at one time one of the strongest republican organs in the state. In 1909 he resigned as postmaster and served as an assistant to the county treasurer. In 1912, he was elected a city commissioner and has been twice re-elected. His present term would have expired next year.

"Besides his wife, Mr. Jenness leaves two sons, R. E. Jenness, architect and Tom N. Jenness, assistant cashier of the First National Bank. He leaves three brothers in California none of whom will be able to come for the funeral. One of his sisters, Mrs. F. M. Raiff of Los Angeles, California, will also be unable to attend the funeral. Another sister, Mrs. L. C. Farmer of Muskogee came to Okmulgee at once upon hearing of the commissioner's death."

SCOUT DEPARTMENT.

Troop No. 1.
The following have registered for the coming year with Troop No. 1. McKinley Simonson, James Davidson, Maurice Downey, Archie Faulhaber, Bennett Gilligan, Leslie Uhl, Donald Gaughenbaugh, Arthur King, Ralph Mellor, George Hanley, Harry Hammond, Owen McPharlin, George Stannard, Joe Beha, James McPharlin, John Phalin, Clement Ryan and Francis Cronin.
Dr. Carter has consented to address Troop 1 on first aid. Each phase of the subject will be explained in 12 minute talks.
Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Troop No. 1's record book and the troop's copy of the lease on the half block lying east of the M. E. church, can do a mighty good turn by turning same over to the Scribe of Troop 1, John Phalin.

The members of Troop 1 have taken up a collection to help pay for a flag of the Irish Republic. The flag will cost about $25.00.
Jesse Mills has been elected Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 1. Two more are to be elected from the ten men nominated.

Troop No. 2.
Three candidates passed the Tenderfoot tests and several others the tests in signalling required for second class scouts at the meeting April 11.
Dr. Carter gave a very interesting talk on first aid at the meeting Monday night.
The Beaver patrol continues in the lead in the Merit contest of Troop 2, but Mongoose troop is running them a very close second.
All scouts of Troop 2 are notified that dues should be paid up to date and are requested to hand in their due cards next week so that the scribe can check up his records.

FRANK SWAIN.

Inman Leader, April 7: Frank Swain, for many years a resident of this vicinity, died last Monday in the Campbell hospital at Norfolk after submitting to an operation for ulcers of the stomach on Saturday.
The remains were brought to Inman Wednesday and the funeral will be held Friday forenoon at 11 o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall, conducted by Elder Peterson of the Saints church and interment made in the Inman cemetery.

Mr. Swain moved with his family to Rapid City, S. D., about four years ago where the family has since resided. Previous to that time he had made his home in Holt county with exception of two years residence in Missouri. He came with his parents to Inman in 1879, then a boy three years old, and took up his residence on a homestead one mile north of town. A few years later the family moved to town where his father engaged in the general mercantile business. Here Frank grew to manhood, deriving his education from the Inman schools, and experienced the hardships of the pioneer days.
Mr. Swain was born in Elysiam, Minnesota, March 13, 1876, and was aged 45 years and 22 days. On October 6, 1896, he was married to Miss Anna Goree. To this union were born four children, Mrs. Myrtle Poss, of Rapid City, S. D.; Loretta, Chester and Ruth, and little Eunice, who preceded him in death.

ALBRIGHT-WERNER.

Atkinson Graphic, April 8: Mr. Joseph Albright and Miss Alice L. Werner were married March 16th at Neligh, Rev. Rush officiating.

After a visit at the home of a sister of Mrs. Albright's living south of Neligh and with another sister at Creston, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Albright returned the last of March to take up their residence on the Barnes place north of town.
Their marriage was kept an entire secret, even the relatives here being notified by letter after its occurrence. Both are well known in the community however and the surprise does not prevent their many friends from extending best wishes for a happy life.

KIFER BABY BURNED TO DEATH.

Chambers Sun, April 7: Last Monday morning about ten o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Fifer's little thirteen months old baby girl, Elma met with a horrible accident that caused her death that night. The family were moving from the Jim Horton farm to the Lee Wintermote place and upon arriving there, they left the child in the covered wagon while putting the teams in the barn, but upon hearing the children screaming the parents rushed to the wagon and found the baby's clothing all on fire. Dr. Oxford was called immediately and did all that medical skill could do; but all the entire body was burned severely. The little one was laid to rest in the Chambers cemetery Tuesday afternoon. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF MOON WILL BE SEEN APRIL 22

At 1:23 a. m. the morning of April 22, O'Neill will see the one total eclipse that will be observed by persons in the United States this year. Father Riggs of Creighton, is preparing to take observations.
The shadow of the earth will connect with the face of the moon at this time. Totality will occur at 1:44, and the contact will end at 2:05.
This lunar eclipse will be generally visible over all of North and South America.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and expressions of sympathy during the illness and at the death of Mrs. Julia Vandover, our beloved mother.
E. Vandover.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the many friends who so kindly extended their helpfulness, their sympathy and hospitality from the time of our arrival and during the last sad rites for our dear one, we wish to express our deep thanks and appreciation. Such love and affection shown by friends of many years touched our hearts and softened our great grief.
GRANT W. SMITH and family.

DON'T RISK NEGLECT

Don't neglect a constant backache, sharp, darting pains or urinary disorders. The danger of dropsy or Bright's disease is too serious to ignore. Use Doan's Kidney Pills as have your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor. An O'Neill case.
Mrs. J. A. Cowperthwaite, O'Neill, says: "At times my kidneys have been disordered causing me a great deal of misery. I would feel tired out and depressed and there would be a soreness and heavy ache in my back. Doan's Kidney Pills which I bought at Stout's Drug Store have always relieved me completely putting my kidneys in good condition. I am glad to give Doan's my endorsement." (Statement given June 21, 1916.)
On June 14, 1920, Mrs. Cowperthwaite added: "I have never lost faith in Doan's Kidney Pills for they have always helped me every time I have had need of them. I only use Doan's as a tonic now to strengthen my kidneys and keep them in good condition."

Textiles Become Tired, Too
Haven't you noticed how droopy your fine blankets become, about this time of year?
Textiles tire, too—they need a spring tonic.
We have this tonic in our modern washing process. It will renew the life of your beautiful blankets, restore their fine, soft fleeciness, prepare them for summer storage.
Send them to us—you'll be delighted when you take them out next fall to find how much better they have kept; how much warmer and downier they are.
Just phone—we'll send our driver promptly.
