JOHN R. SHULTZ.
Atkinson Graphic, April 22: A wound in one arm caused by a calf kicking a knife out of his hand resulted fatally to John R. Shultz, a south Holt county ranchman.
The accident happened while he was marking calves several weeks ago. Later, blood poison attacked the injured arm and for two weeks before the end came he was treated and nursed in a Norfolk hospital.
Aside from hired help deceased lived alone on his ranch, the wife and one daughter living in Broken Bow, Nebraska, and one daughter in Kansas.
One daughter, Mrs. Esther Northrop of Broken Bow, was with him at the end, the funeral taking place at Grand Island last week.

RAPA, PARADISE FOR LAZY MEN

Women Do All Work, Even to Feeding the Indolent Male of the Species.

NOT WORRIED BY CLOTHES

Natives Went Naked Until Scandalized White Missionary Hailing From Tahiti Gathered Old Garments for Them.

Rapa, Dangerous Archipelago, South Pacific.—They toil not, neither do they spin, and in all the reaches of the seven seas it would take a long voyage to find a more lazy population of men than Rapa's.

In Rapa the women are the hewers of wood and the drawers of water. In other happy climes of Micronesia and Polynesia the self-appointed "lord of creation" will deign to raise his hand aloft and pluck for himself the fruit of the banana and orange tree. In Rapa, however, he will not even feed himself.

When mealtime comes the woman of the family, after foraging for food and cooking it, must also put it into the mouth of her lord and master. They roll the taro "pot" into little balls and toss them into the open mouths of the men folks.

Not Worried by Clothes.

The people of Rapa wear no clothes—or did not until a scandalized white missionary from Tahiti insisted on gathering some old garments from his more favored parishioners in Papeete and hurried them to Rapa.

Rapa, known also as Oparo, is one of the most isolated and most interesting islands in the South Pacific. It lies south of Tahiti, far out in the tropics. Included in the French settlements in Oceania and inhabited by Polynesians of the same type as the Tahitians.

It is one of the few spots most lightly touched by the finger of civilization. Seldom does a schooner touch here—not more than once a year—and once in a great while a French gunboat from Papeete will voyage into the Dangerous archipelago.

Has Coal Deposits.

The island itself is mountainous, with strange castle-like peaks rising in the interior. It possesses a good harbor, and, what is most unique in the South Sea Islands, has deposits of coal, not of very good quality, though.

When the Panama canal was nearing completion there was much talk in Tahiti of establishing a coaling station here, Rapa being close to the southern great circle route and admirably adapted to such a purpose, but no such thing had come to rudely shock the serene existence of Rapa men.

LOYALTY TO MIKADO TAUGHT

Japanese Children in Hawaii Under Alien Influence, Mission Board Says.

Honolulu.—Certain priests and language school instructors in Hawaii are teaching young Japanese children their first loyalty is to the emperor of Japan, even if they become American citizens, the Japanese committee of the Hawaiian board of missions reported in submitting the following resolution:

"Be it resolved, that it is the point of view of the Hawaiian board at the beginning of the second century of mission work that for plantations to continue, as in the past, to financially assist the non-Christian religions organizations is detrimental to the welfare of Hawaii, and is a hindrance to the Christianization and Americanization of the alien peoples in the Hawaiian Islands, and we urge the members of the board financially interested in the plantations to present this view to the boards of directors."

Quotes Bible, but Goes to Jail for Contempt

Pittsburgh.—Appearing in court with a Bible under his arm, from which he quoted passages which prohibited divorce, Charles B. McCormick announced that he would rather go to jail than pay his wife, Eva M. McCormick, counsel fees and alimony in her divorce suit against him.

A few minutes later he was in a cell in the county jail, having been declared in contempt of court by Judge Drew after McCormick declared that, although he had plenty of money, he would rather go to jail than stifle his conscience and disobey the Bible. Later he changed his mind, paid the alimony and was released.

Berlin Claims Most Area.

Berlin.—Greater Berlin, with its latest addition, claims to be the biggest metropolis on earth.

Its area is officially given as 877.66 square kilometers, about 337.77 square miles), compared with Greater New York's 840 square kilometers (307.8 square miles), Paris' 480, London's 303, and Vienna's 275 square kilometers.

Greater Berlin now embraces eight townships, 50 villages and 27 rural establishments.

BARTER IN AUSTRIA

Medium of Exchange as Paper Crowns Lose Value.

Peasant Demands Something More Valuable Than Paper Currency for His Products.

Vienna.—Only Americans of a generation ago who traded farm products at the crossroads store for everything from shoes to sugar can realize the extent of barter in Austria today.

With the country flooded with cheap money, the peasants' stockings and bank accounts fat with currency and legislation impending for a compulsory levy on fortunes, the paper crown virtually is spurned by those who produce the necessities of life.

For eggs or butter, cheese or white flour, fat geese and ducks, pork products and all the things that the Austrian city dweller must do without, the peasant wants something more valuable than the paper constantly turned out by the Austro-Hungarian banks.

Prodigious offers of crowns fall where a linen shirt, silk stockings (even much darned), rugs, musical instruments, shoes and such things bring results.

The story of how the bourgeoisie and poor nobility of Vienna have parted with their wardrobes and furniture, their pianos and carpets, for food, has been often told. Now everyone is getting back to first principles in trade.

Visiting a retired officer in his little country place the correspondent saw it work. The officer could not pay 500 crowns a pair for gloves for a wife and three daughters. But he had three roebuck hides from the animals he had shot this season. He exchanged them for two dressed hides. The village glover made them into gloves, taking in payment cider, mutton and some veal from the little farm.

Then came the problem of stockings, almost unobtainable in Austria. There were 11 sheep grazing on the place. Sheared they yielded enough wool to exchange for yarn sufficient to knit the family hosiery for the coming winter.

The apple crop of this tiny estate has been mortgaged for grain to a neighbor who has no fruit and the miller will take his pay in toll.

The host who entertained in the little cottage now his home, filled with American and English periodicals, once trod the quarter deck of his own cruiser. A uniform stripped of ornaments and recut in civilian style is his best suit.

Farmer, 17 Children, Has Funds in 8 Banks

Sunbury, Pa.—With seventeen children in his family, Delmar F. Campbell, a farmer in Lower Augusta township, Northumberland county, has money in eight banks.

He testified to that amazing fact before Judge Cummings in defense of a suit his wife brought for an accounting of farm income during the last twelve years. He declared under oath that he paid all the taxes on the place, clothed and fed the family and paid for property improvements. Lawyers say the bank deposits total more than $16,000.

The Campbells have been married more than thirty years. For several years they have lived in the same house and eaten at the same table, but do not speak.

Husband and wife have each employed high-priced lawyers, and, inasmuch as both sides will have to take their expenses out of the family fund, no matter who wins, both must lose, one of the lawyers said.

ZULUS HONOR LORD BUXTON

Give British Governor-General Farewell Ovation—Express Affection and Esteem.

Durban, South Africa.—The chief of the Zulu nation, his ringed headmen and many minor chiefs, recently assembled in the courthouse at Maritzburg and delivered speeches of affection and esteem for Lord Sidney Charles Buxton, retiring governor general of South Africa, and Lady Buxton, who accompanied him on the farewell visit. There was an enthusiastic demonstration.

The courthouse was packed with Zulus, some of them in frock coats and wearing medals received for bravery in the war, but others, also wearing medals, were clad only in the primitive Zulu fashion.

The governor general thanked the Zulus for their excellent behavior during the war.

Aged 72, Cycles Long Way.

Blair, Neb.—John Warner, seventy-two years old, of San Diego, Cal., who is visiting friends here, has just completed a bicycle trip from California. When he found himself near the seventy-year-old mark, and in poor health, he took up bicycling as a recreation and as a restorative of health, and has ridden more than 30,000 miles on the bicycle on which he made the journey to Blair.

He says he feels ten years younger than he did ten years before he began the practice.

GREAT DRY DOCK IN NAPLES

Italian Government Authorizes Construction of Mammoth Affair on Mediterranean.

Washington.—The largest dry dock on the Mediterranean is planned at Naples.

Recent decrees of the Italian government authorizing the construction of this dock and a smaller one at the industrial port of Bala-Averno provide that work must begin within six months of the official date of the declaration of peace.

Besides the dry docks, it is planned to transform Lake Averno for the use of ship yards, and to build a canal connecting the lake with the port of Naples proper.

The Italian government will within a period of fifty years pay about half of the cost of the work and at the end of sixty years the entire property automatically becomes government property.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN NEAR FOSTER

General Manager Dickinson of the Northwestern lines west of the Missouri is today investigating a report of an attempt to wreck a passenger train on the line north of Pierce, near Foster, Sunday night.

A report was received at headquarters here that several ties were spiked across the rails at that point, and that a northbound freight train, running slowly, discovered the "plant," both the engineer and fireman seeing the obstruction in time to stop the train. The ties were pried loose and the freight proceeded.

No motive for the alleged attempt to wreck the train is assigned.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and expressions of sympathy during the illness and at the death of our infant son.

CROPS IN FAIR CONDITION.

An excellent condition of winter wheat and rye, improvement in oats, prospects of some fruit, slight decreased acreage in some of the staple crops, more tame grass pasture and summer fallow, and highly favorable soil condition are the leading features of the weekly Nebraska crop report, made public Tuesday by A. E. Anderson, of the federal bureau of crop estimates.

"Winter wheat acreage was reduced 2 per cent, but the condition is fine," continues the statement. "Very little if any, abandonment is expected. Spring wheat acreage will be the same as last year which was about the usual pre-war acreage. Most of the other spring grain crops are up. Oats are improving and a slightly increased acreage is expected.

"Preparation of ground for corn continues and a slightly decreased acreage is planned. Tame hay acreage is now large enough to meet all demands for hay, but the seeding of some tame grasses for pastures is planned. The seeding of sweet clover for pasture and as a soil builder is increasing.

"Conditions are favorable for potatoes. The earliest planted potatoes will soon be up, but in western Nebraska the planting of potatoes will be continued for another month. Last year's acreage was unusually small and a slight increase is expected this year.

"Early blooming tree fruits, like peaches, pears, apricots and plums, are nearly a failure, but there are prospects for some cherries. Apples that blossomed early promise little fruit, but the late blooming varieties range from poor to a fair crop. The vitality of fruit buds was very high this spring due to the light crop last year and the favorable season last summer and autumn, and for this reason were in better condition to withstand the freezing temperatures this spring. The last period of cool weather did some damage to small fruits, especially grapes."

Buy a NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul!"

Which phonograph—one that RE-CREATES music, or one that plays nothing but the talking-machine records?

The New Edison gives you those wonderful RE-CREATIONS of music, which make you feel that you are listening to the living artist. The New Edison also plays the records of all the principal talking-machine companies.

Only the New Edison does both these things. Only the New Edison sustains the test of direct comparison with living artists,—thus proving that there is no difference between it's RE-CREATION of music and the original music.

We deliver your New Edison on a small down payment. We'll make a gentleman's agreement with you so that you can take care of the balance at your convenience. Ask about our Budget Plan.
