NEBRASKA PRIESTS ASK IRISH RECOGNITION
Omaha World-Herald, June 21.—A resolution, appealing to congress for recognition of the Irish republic and pledging their influence to obtain boycott of English insurance and English-made goods, was passed by a meeting of priests of the diocese of Omaha following the close of their annual retreat. Archbishop Harty and more than 200 priests, representing twenty-three counties of the state, attended.
The Rev. P. J. Judge was chairman and the Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, secretary.
The resolutions:
"Whereas, for the third time since the close of the world war, an election for representatives was held in Ireland under hostile British supervision; and "Whereas, at that election, by an 80 per cent majority, the Irish people gave their indorsement for the third time to the Irish republic, thereby repudiating the rule of the Foreign British government; and "Whereas, we went into the late war for the principle of national self-determination; therefore, be it "Resolved, that we call upon our representatives in congress to use their influence to get our national government to officially recognize the Irish republic; and be it further "Resolved, that we, priests of the diocese of Omaha, pledge ourselves to increase the membership of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic in our respective communities, in accordance with the wishes and instructions of the national convention of the association held in Chicago last April; and, be it further
"Resolved, that we use our influence to induce our people to purchase American insurance and American-made goods and to boycott English insurance and English-made goods; and, be it further
"Resolved, that we use our influence with the national council of the Knights of Columbus to take a positive stand in the interests of justice and civilization and bring their influence to bear to obtain official recognition of the Irish republic from the government of the United States; and, that we indorse and approve the request made to the national council by the annual-convention of the Knights of Columbus of Nebraska in support of the action taken by the Count Creighton council of Creighton, Neb., namely, that said national council "leave no stone unturned in assisting the Irish people to obtain recognition of the Irish republic by our own government."

KINDNESS.
Indianapolis News: The other evening a young lawyer took his bulldog in his machine when he took his best girl out driving. And as he drove up to her house out jumped his dog and climbed with the dog of the man who lived next door to her home. Then the fight began and it lasted long and was hard. But finally the two dogs were parted and the girl stood fearfully awaiting the "balling out" she was sure her crusty neighbor would give her best beat. But he did nothing of the sort. He kicked his own dog back into his house and talked affably with the lawyer.
The lawyer, too, was surprised. He voiced his wonder. "Well, you certainly are a good scout," he said. "Most men would have been mad over my dog fighting yours."
"No, sir, I'm a good neighbor," the old man said, and the girl began to feel more kindly toward him than she had ever felt before. But the next minute her kind feelings departed.
For he finished: "I wouldn't do a mean trick to any of my neighbors like discouraging their daughter's beaux."

I've got two old maid daughters myself just a few years older than the two who live here."
THE NEW TEMPTATION.
Birmingham Age-Herald: "How do you manage to sell so many fireless cookers?"
"It's due to my method of approach," said the smart salesman. I begin my little talk by saying 'Madam, I have called to enable you to spend every afternoon at the movies.'
A FATED DESTINY.
Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph—
"Augh—waugh—gr-r-r!" It was the baby, and he had made similar remarks steadily for the last hour. Mr. Newpop's hair—what was left of it—stood on end.
"Gnow ahwb Wombdgo filgaur-r-r," remarked the baby, lustily, while the people living across the way rose from their beds and closing the windows ostentatiously.
Mr. Newpop ground his teeth.
"To think," he murmured wearily, "that I should have lived to become the father of a train announcer!" INCIDENTAL DISCUSSION.
Washington Star: "Hiram," said Mrs. Cornstossel, "you don't take as much interest in politics as you did last summer."
"Yes, I do," replied her husband, "but the new hired man is such a fine talker I'm afraid to say anything that might start him for fear he'll demand the salary of a lecturer."

Send it to the Laundry

It's almost as much of a task as the washing itself—picking up after your laundress; seeing that things are rightly done; fussing over her meals; measuring out soap and starch and other supplies.
Our Family Laundry Service saves you all this.
We call for your family bundle and attend to all these details for you. And promptly, on the dot, we return your clothes, beautifully clean, everything dried and ready to put away except a few starched pieces that you can easily iron.
It's a saving service, saving for you and saving for your clothes. It's a service you can always depend upon; and the little ironing which is left for you to do at home becomes really a pleasure.
We know that you'll like this modern way of taking the toil out of wash-day.
Try it, today—phone for our driver; we'll have him call for your washing.

GLACIER

National Park

The Gladdest Spot

---the most-talked-of place in America by out-of-doors folk, is a "hikers' " and "horsebackers' " joyland.

Up there in the Northern Rockies in Northwestern Montana, there are fifteen hundred square miles of breathing room—loafing space; forests, hundreds of sparkling streams which meander through valleys ablaze with wild flowers, and tumble over foaming waterfalls to feed two hundred and fifty mountain lakes of rare beauty. In the "higher-spots" there are eternal, slow-moving glaciers, astride the pageant of carved and tinted peaks. The thrill, the majesty, the bigness of it all is wonderful. To live for a time in this "high" land is a never-to-be-forgotten experience. You'll straightway develop an amazing appetite.

If you are a fisherman, you'll enjoy battling with the trout.
If you are a hiker, there's no end of trails to follow to your heart's content.
If you love to ride, a sturdy little mountain pony will carry you over skyland trails.
Mountain guides—chaps you'll enjoy getting acquainted with—are there to accompany the timid.
Rowboat and launch service, auto-stages on a mountain motor highway, are there for your pleasure and convenience.
If you like to "take your hotel with you" and camp, there are scores of ideal spots.
The chalets—little hotel villages in the mountains—are picturesque tarrying-places.
Two mammoth mountain inns, where unique indoor campfires crackle on evenings in the "forest lobbies" provide accommodations of a more elaborate character.
The whole scheme of service within Glacier readily lends itself to the out-door idea—follow the dictates of your fancy, Better plan to go this summer and enjoy a real vacation.
