JOHN MOSER.

John Moser died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Oberle, near Opportunity, at 3:15 a. m. Thursday, July 14, 1921, after a brief illness of heart trouble, at the age of seventy-seven years, seven months and one day.

John Moser was born in Ohio on June 5, 1844. On January 12, 1865, he was united in marriage at Fremont, Ohio, to Miss Barbary Speildaner. To this union six children were born, all of whom have passed away except two, Mrs. William Hudson of Ender Lake, Nebr., and Mrs. Frank Oberle, of Opportunity.

Shortly after his marriage he moved to Iowa and remained there until his removal to this county in the spring of 1883. When he came here he located on a farm near Dorsey and he has been a resident of the county ever since.

Mr. Moser was a good citizen and always took an active interest in the political affairs of the county. For several years he was engaged in the nursery business and many of the large orchards of the county were furnished their original stock by Mr. Moser. His passing will be deeply deplored by a large number of friends and acquaintances throughout the county.

A REFRIGERATOR WITHOUT ICE

Homes without ice may obtain a high degree of satisfaction from an iceless refrigerator, according to a circular sent out by the Nebraska College of Agriculture. An iceless affair that will do surprisingly well in keeping food cool can be made by almost any boy in half a day. It consists of a wooden frame covered with eanton flannel, burlap or heavy duck. Wicks made of the same material as the cover, and sewed on top of each side of the cover, extend into a bucket or pan of water on top of the refrigerator. The water seeps over the sides of the pan and down the sides of the cooler, and the evaporation from the moisture draws the heat from the inside and causes a lower temperature for the food. The circular gives full directions for making the iceless refrigerator, including a list of materials needed. The refrigerator is especially well adapted to western Nebraska conditions. Those interested should ask their county agricultural agent or home agent or write the College of Agriculture for house equipment circular No. 3, "Iceless Refrigerator." A number of iceless refrigerators sold by commercial concerns are said to be giving satisfaction.

STATE BOOZE HOUNDS ACTIVE

The activity of a couple of state booze hounds during the past week should convince those who are engaged in the illegal manufacture and sale of "booze" that it is only a question of time until the long arm of the law has them in their clutches and they had better "lay off" violation thereof.

AN EXAMPLE.

Newark Evening News: John Jones who lives in one of those nice neighborhoods out Clinton Hill way, had trouble with his car. He was several miles from home, and alone, when something in the machine's inwards gave a loud clank and operations ceased. Putting on overalls and jumper, Jones went to work, and when he gave up two hours later was so smeared with oil and grease one would have found it difficult to determine whether he was a Caucasian or an Ethiopian. Telephoning a garage to send and get his car, Jones started home by trolley. At a transfer point he thought, for all his tribulations, of Mrs. Jones' Saturday box of candy and went in a drug store, where he bought the customary large box of a costly brand.

"There!" said a well-dressed woman who was in the store, to her equally well-dressed husband. "There! Did you see that poor mechanic buying a big, expensive box of candy for his wife or girl? That shows you never can tell."

And the husband was so chastened he purchased a five-pound box of the best the store afforded.

A LONG DISTANCE VIEW.

Judge: A farm boy was standing on a high hill, looking the country over, when a tourist motoring by stopped for a chat.

"You have a fine view from here, my lad. How far do you suppose you can see—to China?"
"Much farther than that, Mister."
"How's that?"
"When that cloud goes away, I'll be able to see the sun easily."

HAVE A PLAN.

Louisville Courier-Journal: "Formulate some plan in dodging automobiles."
"Huh?"

MAKING THEM AMERICANS

How few of us realize the importance of making over the foreigner—of implanting American ideals, ideas and common sense in place of socialistic and maybe anarchistic theories. It means a lot to every American citizen. This work and many other interesting activities of the Department of Labor are discussed in the twelfth issue of the series of beautifully illustrated booklets on Our Government which we have been distributing to representative citizens of this community.

If by any chance you have failed to receive regularly your copies of this series that has been so favorably commented upon, visit us today and from the limited supply on hand we will gladly complete your set.

NEBRASKA STATE BANK

"Either plunge straight ahead or dart back. But don't try to combine both methods."

ORIGINAL IDEA.

Christian Register: A Japanese "boy" came to the home of a minister in Los Angeles recently and applied for a position. Now it happened that the house was already well supplied with servants, so the minister's wife said, "I am sorry, but we really haven't enough work to keep another boy busy."
"Madam," said the Oriental politely, "I am sure that you must have. You may not know what a little bit of work it takes to keep me employed."

MISTAKEN.

Washington Times: Little Willie was enjoying a play with his kittens on the street when a gentleman passing by asked him the names of the kittens.
"Joe and Jerry," was the prompt reply.

"Why not call them Cook and Feary?" the man then asked.
"Go on, man," Willie said, "these ain't no pole cats!"

A REMEDY.

Florida Times-Union: "My wife has a terrible memory."
"What do you mean?"
"Oh, she can't remember anything a day after it happens."
"Ah, a sad case—why don't you give her a fliver?"
"What for?"
"Why, to jog her memory."

CULINARY TEMPERMENT.

Washington Star: "Charley, dear," said Young Mrs. Torgins, "the new cook is going to leave unless you quit playing the phonograph."
"Doesn't she like music?"
"Yes. But she says those jazz records set so rapid a tempo she forgot herself and works three or four times as fast as her wages call for."

IMPERTINENT.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: "There was an amusing ending of a civil case tried in a Wyoming court. It was an appeal case and on one side was a testy lawyer and on the other a number of inexperienced attorneys. The arguments on both sides had been heard and the case closed for judgment."

Suddenly one of the inexperienced lawyers got up and addressed the court once more. The testy lawyer stood it for a moment, but losing patience, he also rose and addressed the court in this wise:

"Your honor, I would beg with all respect to point out to the court that my learned friend opposite is entirely out of order in addressing the court, and if I may be permitted to say so, the court has no right to be listening to him."

The court, who at that time was writing, put his head out in a beligerent way and said: "Mr. Smith, it is a great piece of impertinence on your part to assume that the court is listening to him."
