"ANOTHER O'NEILL BOY MAKES GOOD"

T. V. Golden covered himself with glory and reflected great credit upon the O'Neill Country and Golf club and the city when as the representative of the club he captured the cup in the secretary's flight at the Northeast Nebraska Golf tournament at Norfolk last week. At that he had to defeat another O'Neill golf player, W. H. Hart, to do it, the two earlier in the tournament, defeated all of the other contestants in the important event. Both Mr. Golden and Mr. Hart played championship golf throughout the tournament, making several holes on the Norfolk course below par a number of times. The final contest between the two O'Neill men was a battle and it was witnessed by a large gallery. It suffices to say that the contestants were tied on the thirty-sixth hole and that it was necessary to play another before Mr. Golden was declared the victor. The Norfolk News and the Norfolk club members were enthusiastic about Mr. Golden's form and playing, which was nothing new to local players however. They have known it for years, and that is why they affectionately accorded him the title of "The Dean of North Nebraska Golf Players," even if he is only seventy years young.

ANOTHER FIVE GENERATION FAMILY

O'Neill is probably the only town in the country having two families of which five generations are living. Little Miss Dora Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cooper, is the representative of the fifth generation of one of them and the state newspapers recently carried photographs and an account of the five generations. Mrs. Fred Gatz is the representative of the second generation of the other family, a photograph and account of which appeared in the World Herald Monday evening. The account is from Columbus, Nebraska, and is as follows:

"Columbus, Neb., Aug. 14.—A photograph decidedly out of the ordinary is this, in which appear representatives of five generations, all but one of whom are residents of Platte county, Nebraska. "The eldest is Mrs. Katherine Engel, 88, and the youngest is Madia Ruth Kluck, 2 1/2 weeks. Behind Mrs. Engel stands her daughter, Mrs. Fred Gatz of O'Neill. Mrs. Gatz's daughter, Mrs. F. C. Stevenson, stands at the right, while Mrs. Stevenson's daughter, Mrs. Earl Kluck, and her babe, are seated in the chair.

FATHER RAISED THE ANTE.

Page Reporter, Aug. 11: A. Snell and wife decided to celebrate their 52nd wedding anniversary on July 12, so a home-coming of their children and their families was arranged, but when the day arrived only a part of the children were able to be present. This did not exactly suit the old folks, and another "big dinner" was arranged for August 5th when all of the children were there and a real celebration was held. The children present were: Hollie Snell and family; Dr. Chas. Snell of Tecumseh; Mrs. Cora VanConnet of Bloomfield, Iowa; Ray Snell and family; Roy Snell and family and Mrs. David Pollock and family of Ewing. Eight grand-children and one great grand child were present. The children presented their parents with a purse of thirty dollars in gold as a remembrance, whereupon Mr. Snell surprised the children by presenting each one of the six children with a cash present of $50.00. The day was a happy one throughout for the entire family and one that will long be remembered by all that were present.
