attend the high school this year, be present on that day, so they may be properly fitted into the work and lose no time. Do so, if at all possible. The same applies to pupils in the grades below high school.

The last legislature passed two important laws that are of interest to all school patrons. One changes the compulsory attendance law from 16 to 18 years. The other changes the tuition for non-resident high school students from $54.00 to $108.00 for the year. Non-residents, entering high school under the provisions of the Free Tuition Law, be sure to bring your High School Admission Certificate, as they will be called for the first day. Remember this certificate is your passport to admission to high school, so be sure to have it ready for presentation. Parents, having children of school age, entering school for the first time, if you think of sending them at all, this year, we urge you to start them in at the very beginning, if possible, even, if they lack a few days of the required age. It is better for the child to start in with the others, and, in any event, nothing is gained by waiting, while much may be lost.

Let's all start this school year with the determination to all work together, to the end that it may be a year of results accomplished. By teachers, pupils and parents all working in harmony and cooperation, much can be accomplished that, otherwise, could not be accomplished.

Superintendent.

The price of the Evening State Journal has been reduced to $4 a year or $5 with Sunday. The price of the Morning Journal is $5 a year or $6 with Sunday. These reductions have been made in response to the public demand for price "come-downs." Printing paper still costs the publishers more than twice as much as before the war. Special rates to January 1: Evening Journal $1.00; with Sunday $1.25. Morning Journal $1.50, with Sunday $2.00. The Journal is the only morning paper printed in Lincoln, and on rural routes is a full day ahead of many other state papers with the news. The Journal is making unusual efforts to give Nebraskans the most complete market reports, cooperating with the state and national government in this work. The Journal's features are being strengthened continually, Mutt and Jeff being the latest comic additions. A new serial by the author of the Miracle Man is just starting.

Washington of the appointment of Charles W. Attorney Clifford B. Scott of this city delivered the address at the Old Settlers' picnic, held at the Martin grove fifteen miles northeast of O'Neill Thursday afternoon of last week. The attendance was very large and despite the extreme heat of the day everybody had a good time. Dancing was the feature of the evening program.

Dr. J. P. Murphy and Mrs. Murphy and Dr. J. F. Gallagher and two sons, of St. Louis, Dr. E. E. Gallagher and Dr. V. Simminese of La Crosse, Wisconsin, and Mrs. E. P. Driscoll of Phoenix, Arizona, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gallagher for the last two weeks. The men went up last week to take their annual fishing lesson under Jim's tutelage and an excellent catch of bass was made. Dr. Murphy and Mrs. Murphy returned to St. Louis Sunday and Dr. J. F. Gallagher and sons Tuesday morning.

4 o'clock in the afternoon of the last day of the meeting. The bandits, masked and armed, held up the store proprietor, clerks and customers and escaped toward the famous Cody ranch in a large touring car. They were pursued by a posse of the visiting officials and citizens, headed by Sheriff Salisbury and the owner of the store and were captured after having abandoned their car near the Cody ranch. When the bandits were unmasked they were discovered to be four of the visiting sheriffs and a North Platte deputy kindly taking the main parts in the stunt prepared by Sheriff Salisbury and the proprietor of the jewelry store. From the scene of the capture the visitors were taken to the Cody ranch for a big feed and a real wild west s.d. broncho busting stunt under the auspices of Sheriff Salisbury, A. A. Hastings, Clarence Moore and "Red" Evans. Sheriff Evans to show that he still was in the game roped an escaping wild broncho at the round-up and Hastings rode a wild steer. Sheriff Duffy, it was erroneously stated in dispatches, was one of the hold-up men in the jewelry robbery. He however was one of the unsuspecting posse who thought they were pursuing real bandits, as was President Quinton.
