PELTZER-PASHKE.

Chambers Sun, Sept. 22: There was a very pretty wedding performed last Friday evening, September 16, 1921, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pashke, when Rev. H. C. Fricke pronounced the beautiful words that united in marriage Mr. Ruben Leon Peltzer and Miss Olga B. Pashke. Ruben is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peltzer of Stanton, Nebraska and Miss Olga is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pashke of this city. They left Saturday morning for Stanton where they will make their home this winter, and in the spring will live on a farm near Stanton. The Sun joins their many friends in extending congratulations to this happy couple.

SHOLES-CHRISTIANSON.

Inman Leader, Sept. 22: Delber Sholes and Miss Helen Christianson, both residents of this community, were married Tuesday at 8 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage in Inman, Rev. Green officiating. The couple were attended by Miss Daisy Sholes as bridesmaid and Percy Christianson as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the newly weds drove to Orchard and from there they will go on to Omaha for a short honeymoon, and attend a state gathering of the 89th Division of which Mr. Sholes was a member during the world war. On their return to Inman they will go to housekeeping in rooms in the Halloran apartment in west Inman.

This couple are well known to residents of this territory who extend congratulations and best wishes. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Christianson and is a graduate of the Inman schools. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sholes living west of Inman.

MOOR-ERSKINE

Inman Leader, Sept. 22: A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Moor five miles south of Inman Wednesday forenoon at 11 o'clock when their daughter, Evadne, was united in marriage to Mr. Sidney Erskine of Sioux City, Rev. Green officiating. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Mildred Riley as bridesmaid and Preston Riley as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests sat down to a three course wedding dinner.

The bride is a charming young lady well known to residents of this community, having been born and raised on the farm where the wedding took place. The groom is a young business man of Sioux City where he is engaged in the automobile business. He formerly lived with his parents south of Inman on what was known as the Klondike ranch. The happy couple left Wednesday afternoon in company with the bride's parents on an automobile trip through Iowa and Minnesota, after which Mr. and Mrs. Erskine will return to Sioux City where they will make their future home. Their many Holt county friends extend congratulations.

VOKOC DEFEATS IVY.

Jerry Vokoc, the fighting Bohemian of Verdigris, took Jack Ivy of San Francisco, to an awful cleaning at the K. C. theater last Thursday night in one of the best ten round bouts ever seen in this section of Nebraska. The affair was under the auspices of the athletic department of the Knights of Columbus and was the first bout to be held in O'Neill under the new boxing law. The attendance was good and the fans were enthusiastic over the go. Both men were fighters who wanted to fight, and they did fight every second of the ten three minute rounds. Arthur Ryan officiated as referee.

Vokoc was the heavier of the two, weighing in at 179½ pounds three hours before the fight, and Ivy at 172. The latter was by far the most science and he carried a punch which would have put most ordinary scrappers to sleep. He delivered it numerous times to the Knox county man, but the latter apparently was unaware of its deadly effect and refused to go down. Vokoc, while lacking science and ring generalship, is a natural fighter with a most wicked wallop, as Ivy acknowledged to his second after the fourth round, and with training could become a great fighter in the light heavyweight class.

No one, at the beginning expected Vokoc to win, not even his friends and sympathizers who were legion, and this made the bout the more interesting. It apparently was Ivy's fight for the first six rounds, although Vokoc exchanged blow for blow, and everyone waited for Vokoc to tire and go down under punishment. But this he failed to do. Each round found him coming up apparently as fresh as ever and unworried, while after the sixth he began to land some telling ones which worried, punished and tired his opponent. Ivy claimed a foul early in the game, when Vokoc delivered a backhand blow in a breakaway and the latter was cautioned, but the only flagrant and premeditated foul was in the seventh when Ivy, who had been knocked to the ropes, hung there apparently in a daze and then catching Vokoc off guard swung on him, clinging to the rope with his right as he delivered a left and using the rope to assist him in the delivery.

The blow should have put Vokoc away, but he failed to notice it and didn't even bother to claim the foul.

Vokoc from the beginning of the last half of the eighth round until the last gong in the tenth had Ivy at his mercy and floored him at will. Eleven times he knocked him down and each time Ivy stayed on the floor for a portion of the count, to rest. Sheriff Duffy several times attempted to stop the fight, but Ivy didn't want it that way and at no time was in actual distress. While outbested and outfought he at all times was able to continue the fight and might have lasted for five or six rounds more had the bout been scheduled to go that far.

The fight demonstrated that both are exceedingly good men, with Vokoc because of his superior resisting qualities the better of the two. They both are magnificently built and clean looking, although of different types. Ivy has the shoulder build of the regular pugilist, Vokoc is more along the lines of a runner, although he didn't do much running Thursday night. And neither did Ivy for that matter. In another engagement between the two men Ivy, now understanding his opponent's methods, might give a better account of himself and there always would be the possibility of his winning. It will be very hard to find another fighter in Nebraska to give as good an account of himself with the Bohemian as he did, and there are none at present in Omaha who could do so. It is to be hoped that O'Neill and Holt county fans will have the pleasure of seeing each of the two men in action here again, but against other opponents. Both created favorable impressions. Either one because of his fighting qualities would draw a capacity house.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE IN NEBRASKA

Washington, D. C.—According to the census of 1920 there are 190,593 children 7 to 13 years of age in the state of Nebraska, and of this number 178,910, or 93.9 per cent, were reported as attending school. In 1920 the percentage attending school was 92.9, thus indicating a slight improvement as regards school attendance between 1910 and 1920. Of the children 14 and 15 years of age in 1920, 86.0 per cent were attending school and of those 16 and 17 years of age, 49.7 per cent.

The percentage of children attending school was a little higher in the cities than in the country districts, the percentage for children in the urban population 7 to 13 years of age being 95.2, while in the rural population it was 93.4. "Urban," according to the census definition, includes all towns or cities and other incorporated places of 2,500 population or more.

SENSATION WONDER DUROC-JERSEY AND POLAND BOARS

Prize winners at the county fair just past.

Unusual opportunity to get a High Class boar, one that won a first or second prize at the Holt County Fair this year, (had to be a good one.) I have them and you can buy the top for $50.00. That is the lowest price I ever heard on a boar winning a prize at the fair where there were as many good hogs shown as there was this year. Durocs—Sired by Sensation Wonder, Dams B. C's choice by Invinible K and Critic Lucy Orion and Kink of Orions strains.

I have 8 of this breeding still left, and have saved the very best of the herd and will meet the present conditions on prices from Top $50.00 to the younger ones at $35.00. You may never get a chance to get boars that show up, and that are as good as these again for that price, and they have not been over-fed for show.

My Poland prize winner is from a litter of eight, all alive yet. Two gilts out of this litter took 1st and 2nd prize in their class. A mighty good record. Sired by Clans Yankey owned by Wm. and Clyde Mathers and a boar that I don't think can be beat for his age in the county. Their Dam is Long Model breeding. One other Poland (blemished on front leg hardly noticeable) litter mate to above, but on account of this he will go for $35.

I must sell these right away to make room for my fall litters which are here now and if you want one of these boars you must act before Nov. 1st. I will not keep them longer than that.

Come and look at them and come soon and get your choice. You are always welcome, and I enjoy showing them to you. I will show them with any herd in the county.

I had 16 hogs at the fair and they brought home eight ribbons. Those who bought boars of me last year claim an improvement in their herd. Every boar guaranteed a breeder, also papers guaranteed. I have nothing but purebreds all subject to register, and immune from Cholera.

HER SENSE OF FITNESS.

Little Ethel had lost her grandfather. A few days after the funeral she asked her mother if she could play the piano a little while.

"No, dear, don't you know that we are in mourning?" her mother replied. "Well," insisted the disappointed child, "I don't think it would be wicked if I only played on the black keys."—Judge.
