COMEDY

SUNDAY & MONDAY

NORMA TALMADGE

"YES, OR NO"

Norma at her best in a thrilling dual role of two unhappy wives: one a spoiled daughter of wealth, the other a child of the tenements. Yes, Girls, and No, Girls. The Yes girl who, surrounded by luxury, whose every whim was satisfied, succumbed to the flattery of a parasite passionately murmuring Yes.

The No Girl, who burdened with poverty fought with all her strength to keep intact the Altar pledge to honor, crying No. The woman must answer—upon the answer hinges her destiny as it will be, as it should be. One girl said Yes, the other said No.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

MARY ANN GRADY.

Mary Ann Grady, widow of John Grady, died at her residence in this city Sunday evening at 10 o'clock, after a short illness, her demise coming unexpectedly to her sons and daughters, relatives and other friends, who had not considered her indisposition of an alarming nature. Mrs. Grady was sixty-seven years, seven months and nineteen days old and the major portion of her life had been spent in Holt county, where her kind and loving characteristics endeared her to all who knew her.

She was married to John Grady at Galena, Illinois, in April of 1875, and with her husband came to Holt county in the same month of the same year. Mr. Grady died a number of years ago. Mrs. Grady was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Boyle and was a native of Ireland. Nine of her ten children survive her:

John Grady of Everett, Washington; Margaret of Seattle, Washington; Thomas F. and Rose Grady of Norfolk, Nebraska, and Henry, Mayme, Kathryn, and Ben J. Grady and Mrs. H. J. Hammond of O'Neill.

Mrs. Grady was a woman an enigma of whom would be but feeble. She will live in the memories of her sons and daughters, her relatives and friends as one to emulate.

The funeral was Wednesday morning from St. Patrick's church, the Reverend M. F. Cassidy officiating. Burial was in Calvary cemetery. Among those coming from abroad to pay their last respects were William and Rose Kellher of Boone, Iowa, and Mrs. John Hayes of Casper, Wyoming.

PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO SERG. WILLS

Spencer Advocate, Sept. 22.—Perhaps one of the largest crowds ever assembled at a funeral in the county was present to pay last tribute to Sergeant Robert L. Wills at Butte last Sunday afternoon. It was a military funeral under the direction of the American Legion post of Butte, and members present from other posts throughout the county.

The services were held in the open on the courthouse lawn where a platform and seats had been provided, Rev. Dillon of Kearney, Neb., former pastor of the M. E. church at Butte, preached a splendid funeral sermon, dealing with the life of the deceased as he had known him. Chaplain Blair Roberts of Dallas, made a short address, in which he made a plea for a better, cleaner and more true American citizenship.

The flag-draped casket was borne to the cemetery on a caisson drawn by six black horses and with a military escort, followed by a procession of automobiles over a mile long. The procession was preceded by the Bristow band playing military music both on the march and at the grave.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful and were in charge of six flower girls. A short service was held at the grave, and a salute fired and taps sounded as the casket was lowered in the grave. Thus was the last tribute paid to a most excellent young man who had gone forth in the full vigor of his manhood and gave his all, made the supreme sacrifice, in the de-

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases.

Examination and Consultation Free.

The diagnostician of the United Doctors, licensed by the state of Nebraska, for the treatment of chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this visit, consultation, examination and advice free. They have a system and method of treatments that are sure and certain in their results.

These doctors are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases of the blood, liver, stomach, intestines, heart, kidneys or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers, weak lungs, and those afflicted with long standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of other physicians, should not fail to call.

According to their system no more operation for appendicitis, gall stones, goiter, piles, etc., as all cases accepted will be treated without operation or hypodermic injection. If you have kidney or bladder troubles, bring a 4-ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

Worn-out and run-down men and women, no matter what your ailment may be, no matter what you have been told, or the experience you have had with other physicians, settle it forever in your mind. If your case is incurable they will tell you so. Consult them upon this visit. It costs you nothing.

Remember, this free offer is for this visit only.

Married ladies must come with their husbands and minors with their parents.

Conrad Wettlaufer.

Sergt. Robert LeRoy Wills was born in Butte Neb., Dec. 29, 1893. He died in the service of his country, in France, in the battle of the Argonne forest, Nov. 8, 1918.

Sergt. Wills received his early education in the public schools of Butte, completing the twelfth grade at age of 17. During his attendance at the public school, he never missed a day and was never tardy. After completing his public school education he studied law at the state university three years. He taught school in Nebraska and South Dakota three years.

He enlisted in the army Sept. 5, 1917, and was one of the first contingent of three from Boyd county. He secured his military training at Camp Funston, going overseas in June, 1918. He took part in the battle of St. Mihiel, and battles of the Argonne forest. He rose from the rank of private to sergeant, and was killed while leading a platoon back from the front, a German shell striking him in the back of the head. He was immediately taken to a hospital but only lived eight hours. He was a brave and faithful soldier and a good citizen.

He was clean morally, perfect physically, and able mentally. He was a member of the Methodist church, always active in all its departments. He leaves surviving him, his father, W. T. Wills; two brothers, Lymann T. and William P.; and two sisters, Alice M. Thatcher and Mary E. Wills. His mother died June 5, 1920.

CONRAD WETTLAUFER.

Born in Bridenbach, Germany, March 3, 1858, died September 20, 1921, age sixty-three years, six months and seventeen days.

Came to America at the age of thirteen years, arriving at Ontario, Canada, in 1871. United in marriage to Miss Anna Katherine Paul in Well-lesley, Canada, December 25, 1884. Came to O'Neill, Nebraska, 1885. To this union were born six children, two sons and four daughters. Andrew Wettlaufer of Chadron; Charley died at the age of two years; Mrs. Dave Yantzi of Slayton, Minn.; Mrs. Kathryn Gunn of O'Neill; Mrs. Lawrence Murray of O'Neill; Mrs. Roy Hemmingway of Chadron. He was operated on at Mayos' hospital five years ago and made several other trips there. He also underwent two operations in Omaha, never recovering from them, and was sick and helpless for over two years.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our many friends for their kindness, assistance and sympathy in our great bereavement, the loss of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. Conrad Wettlaufer and children.

NEBRASKA ILLITERACY.

Washington, D. C.—According to the census of 1920, there are 13,784 illiterate persons 10 years of age and over in the state of Nebraska, "illiterate" meaning, unable to write. Of this number 2,184 are native whites of native parentage, 1,176 are of foreign or mixed parentage, and 9,468 are of foreign birth. The number of illiterate Negroes is 556. In the total population 10 years of age and over the percentage of illiteracy is 1.4, which shows a slight decrease since 1910, when it was 1.9. In the case of the Negroes the percentage declined from 7.2 to 4.8, and in the case of the native white of native parentage from 0.6 to 0.4.

There is less illiteracy in the rural districts of the state than in the cities, the percentages being 1.0 for the rural population and 2.0 for the urban. For the native white population of native parentage the urban percentage of illiteracy is 0.3, while the rural is 0.5. In the case of the Negro population the percentage is 4.6 in the urban population as against 7.0 in the rural. By counties the percentage of illiteracy ranges all the way from .89 in Thurston County to 0.1 in Logan County.
