

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLI.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1921.

NO. 25.

LOCAL MATTERS.

A city hospital has been opened at Neligh.

Neligh is to have an auto filling station, just like the big towns.

Dewey Lusher of Chadron is at home for a short visit with relatives.

M. C. Robinson and family of Opportunity returned Friday from a visit at Bassett.

Members of the West End card club were the guests of Mrs. H. J. Hammond Monday evening.

A. J. Starr of University Place, formerly of Chambers, visited Holt county friends last week.

Are you reading Tumulty's history of Woodrow Wilson? Isn't it awful how Tumulty hates himself?

The Misses Lois and Bessie Wrye of St. Stephens, New Brunswick, are the guests of relatives at Chambers.

Mr. Charles Shobe and Miss Bessie Koeler of Ewing were granted a marriage license at Neligh last week.

Miss Lillian Golden entertained the Monday Nite club, Monday evening, Mrs. H. E. Coyne winning the honors at auction.

Miss Florence McCafferty was hostess to the Martez club Monday evening. Miss Mae Hammond won the honors at bridge.

Miss Ruth Cullen of Page has entered upon a course of training as a professional nurse at the Campbell hospital at Norfolk.

Homer Wingate, pitcher for the Valentine baseball team last summer, has been signed up for a tryout with the Detroit Americans.

S. J. Weekes returned Thursday evening from a week's visit at Omaha. Mrs. Weekes remained for a more extended visit with relatives.

Roy Worden of Swan is laid up with a dislocated and bruised right arm, the injuries being sustained in a tussle with an unruly cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Amosa Keyes of Beach Lake, Pennsylvania, are the guests of their cousins, C. D. Keyes of Inman for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miles leave Thursday morning to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miles and family at Fremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Burrell of Chambers are the parents of a baby daughter, which arrived at the Burrell residence Monday of last week.

Nine blocks of water mains for the new water system at Page already are laid and the base for the new water tank now is being completed.

Miss Christman Johnson, a resident of Atkinson for more than thirty years, left last week for Colon, Nebraska, to make her future home with a niece.

Miss Silva Simonson entertained Monday evening of last week for Miss Katherine Litwinenco, who is leaving for Lincoln. Eighteen guests were present.

G. E. Owens of Hebron has purchased the Ashby ranch, southwest of Atkinson and has removed to Atkinson with his family preliminary to occupying the ranch next spring.

The football game between O'Neill and Verdigré, on the local gridiron, which was to have taken place Friday, was indefinitely postponed owing to inclement weather.

Mrs. Thomas Kelley and Mrs. H. Chambers of Atkinson have been called to Pueblo, Colo., by the announcement of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Julia Ginau.

A gray team, hitched to a telephone pole at Page the other day became frightened at a train and as a result the telephones in the south part of town are out of commission.

Clark Miller, a former Holt county resident now residing at Seattle, Wash., is visiting his brother A. W. Miller of Atkinson, and other friends and relatives in Holt county.

H. L. Thomas of Stuart, formerly auditor for the William Krotter company, has been appointed chief deputy in the office of United States Marshal Cronin, at Omaha, and assumed the duties of his new position last week.

The government thermometer at the court house recorded a low temperature of zero for Saturday night and also for Monday night, the lowest recorded for the season to that time and lower than at any time during November of last year.

Dean W. A. Render of St. Paul's Episcopal church, is able to be about again after a severe illness at his residence in Valentine, and it is announced that the next services will be held at St. Paul's church Sunday December 11, and Sunday, December 18.

Neligh was the victor over the O'Neill high school football team, at Neligh, for the annual Turkey Day game which marks the close of the football season, by a score of 33 to 0. The score however is not a criterion of the game, which was a hotly contested one throughout.

The Sunday morning services at the First Presbyterian church will be conducted by Mrs. George Longstaff, the Reverend Longstaff being called to Atkinson to fill the pulpit of the Reverend Ambrose, who is ill. The Reverend Longstaff will conduct the evening service, returning from Atkinson Sunday afternoon.

Thanksgiving Day was observed with the usual thanksgiving services at the churches, everybody dined sumptuously, and then as there was snow on the golf course sat around feeling that it was like Sunday, only not like it, until evening, and at night there was the minstrel show and the show at the Royal to complete the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Nils Bergstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bergstrom, of Spring Valley, have returned from Newcastle, Wyoming, where they were called by the serious condition of Floyd Bergstrom, who was severely burned in a gasoline and oil explosion recently. He is in a hospital at Newcastle and is recovering slowly from his injuries.

Wednesday, November 30, has been set aside as "Farm Bureau Day" at the International Live Stock Exposition which will be held in Chicago November 26 to December 3, according to word received by the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation. The annual meeting of the national association of county agricultural agents will also be held at Chicago during the exposition, M. L. Mosher, Eureka, Ill., president of the association advises.

Mike Horiskey and Elmer Serber now work under the shadow of a sawedoff shotgun. Not that the postoffice department considered that either gentleman needed this spur to effort, but rather because it was fearful that bold bad bandits might attempt to hold up the mail car was the reason for placing an armed guard on the Burlington run from here to Sioux City beginning last week.

The postoffice at Cedar, this county, has been discontinued. Mail will go to Blake.

Fred Huber of Pierce was an O'Neill business visitor this week, returning home Friday morning.

Word has been received of the death Friday morning in Chicago of Mrs. John P. Mann, after an illness of about two months duration.

Miss Mary Grady left Tuesday morning for Wichita Falls, Texas, where she will spend the winter with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Grady.

Mrs. Guy Young and children arrived here Saturday from Hornell, New York, for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rouse and other relatives.

Little Miss Marion Dickson entertained a number of her young friends at the Dickson residence Wednesday evening, the occasion being the eleventh anniversary of her birth.

The birthday anniversary of Judge Robert R. Dickson was observed with a small dinner party to a few friends at the Dickson residence Monday evening. As the old maid told the marriage clerk, the judge is of legal age.

George Lamson, Indian boxer, knocked out Jack Ivy down at Omaha last Friday night in the third round of a ten round go. The outcome of the match was no surprise to those who saw them both in action with Jerry Vavok here.

Mrs. H. J. Reardon and Mrs. J. W. Hiber entertained at an auction bridge party at the residence of Mrs. Reardon Tuesday evening. High honors were won by Miss Anna O'Donnell, with Mrs. F. J. Dishner second honors, and Mrs. M. F. Harrington the all-cut prize.

The railroads have announced a reduction of 10 per cent in certain commodity rates in force September 1, to become effective on one day's notice to the interstate commerce commission. A proposed reduction of the hay rate from O'Neill to Lincoln from 25.5 to 23 cents is on the schedule. This is the farcial reduction the roads are seeking to make to avoid a more drastic reduction on grain and hay rates ordered by the interstate commerce commission and which so far the roads have ignored.

Members of the Et-A-Virp club and their husbands were entertained at a dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haffner Tuesday evening. The regular bi-weekly meeting nights of the club are on Friday, but because of the Thanksgiving season the date was advanced. The commodious Haffner home was beautifully decorated in accordance with the season, a yellow and white scheme prevailing in the large dining room, in which the guests were seated at two long tables. Following dinner the evening was spent at cards.

Boxing Commissioner Doyle and American legion heads are planning settling the boxing championship in each division for the state of Nebraska by an elimination tournament staging the finals in either Lincoln or Omaha and then matching the cornhuskers championship with the champions of other states. Doyle said Thursday arrangements were not yet completed but American legion heads throughout the state are helping "put the thing through." Doyle said complete details probably would be announced in a few days.

The jury in the personal injury case of William Gartner of Lusk, Wyoming, against the Northwestern railroad, on trial in district court this week, returned a verdict for the plaintiff, awarding him $15,000 damages. This is the third verdict to be rendered by a jury during the present term awarding substantial amounts to plaintiffs and brings the total to date to approximately $32,900. The first verdict to be awarded was one for $13,000 to Jacob Madura against P. E. McKillip and others in a controversy over a land contract, and the second one for approximately $4,000 to Minnie Smith against the National Accident Insurance company of Lincoln, in a suit to recover on the policy of the late Eugene Smith of the Farmers Bank of Page. Following the return of the Gartner verdict court was adjourned over Thanksgiving, Wednesday morning, and until Monday of next week.

continued to respond to the demands for encores. Some of the girls assisting in doling up the cast wanted to pal with Doc, Burgess when he entered the dressing rooms attired as a shy young maiden for his act with Jess Mills, and Herb Hammond rebuked her for smoking a cigarette in the presence of the other girls. Mike Horiskey discovered the impersonation only after the number was over and just had time to recall the kid he had sent around to the stage door with a bouquet. Then there was Prof. Norde Nci and Will Froelich in their hypnotism burlesque, which would go as the real thing among strangers, Doc Tiekler and John Mullen in their Hebrew stunt, Buddy Wright and company in the opening number and Andy Davis, in solo, duet, trio, quartet and quintete, who got splinters off the floor in his magnificent bass voice in reaching down for some of the very low notes. In the minstrel part Ben Harty, Paul Beha, Gene Mayfield and Ted Cooper were the real thing as end men and furnished plenty of laughs for old and young, and in the circle of songbirds, dressed in real soup and fish, you couldn't ask any better than Dr. L. A. Burgess, Harold Zimmerman, Jess Mills, Harry Clauson, Ed. Campbell, H. C. McDonald, Andy Davis and Arnold Longstaff, who were ably backed by the large chorus in their renditions. They all performed under the skillful and witty direction of Master of Conversation William Froelich, who in addition to the watter's uniform, wore a large silk sash of his national color, green.

Mineola, this county, January 19, 1904, and was 17 years, 10 months and 3 days old at the time of his death. The funeral was held from the First Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, the Rev. George Longstaff officiating. Hundreds crowded the church auditorium to pay their last respects, and as many unable to enter the edifice mourned outside. The Boy Scouts, of which he was an active member, and an assistant scoutmaster of Troop 2, were present at the residence and at the church, in uniform, to do him honor, with them Harvey Johnson, the chaplain, representing the Boy Scout organizations of Norfolk. Beautiful floral tributes from the several scout organizations, his schoolmates of the class of the O'Neill high school of 1920, with whom he had graduated with high honors, and from many, many friends both young and old testified to the esteem in which he was held. Six Boy Scouts in uniform bore their former comrade from the residence to the church, and at last to the final resting place, and the scout colors and the stars and stripes were carried at the head of the troop, which accompanied them.

Because of his youth, his clean life and the very short duration of his illness the death of Eugene P. Henry is peculiarly a sad one, more than usually so. Just budding into young manhood with his ambitions yet before him to be realized, still but a child to a loving mother and father, and a companion to brother and sister, the wounds of his loss time alone can heal and memories soothe. They shall miss him, and so shall we, for he was their boy, and our friend, and we partially realize their loss as we feel our own.

Eugene P. Henry is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest D. Henry, his brother Paul L., and his sister, Mary Elizabeth, to whom The Frontier joins the entire community in extending sincere sympathy.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the Boy Scouts and our many friends for their kind attention and sympathy in the hour of our great bereavement, the illness and death of our beloved son and brother, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Henry.
Paul L. Henry.

While in O'Neill She Will Call On Several Ladies By Appointment

Mrs. Gibbs Is Coming!

Have you heard your friends say, when speaking of the popularity of some other woman, "What is there about her that attracts people to her so quickly?"

Let us answer this question for you. That woman, whose presence is felt at any gathering, knows first of all how to safeguard the clear skin and healthy complexion that Nature has endowed her with; she realizes that

To Neglect the Skin is to Forfeit Its Attractiveness

She also has the good sense to know that to get the best results she must follow the advice of someone who has successfully specialized in the beautifying of complexions, just as you seek the services of a specialist in time of sickness.

That's What Mrs. Gibbs Is—A Toilet Goods Specialist Who Has Succeeded in Her Profession

That's why we contracted for a week of her services for the women of O'Neill.

Mrs. Gibbs Will Give You a Personal Demonstration of Jon-teel Toilet Requisites in Your Own Home Free of Charge

She will show you by actual massage how you can get the best results. If you are interested in your skin—and you should be—Mrs. Gibbs will be glad to show you how you can retain or restore its original attractiveness.

She Arrives November 28 and Will Be With Us Until Dec. 4.

Understand her massage and advice on skin treatment costs you nothing whatsoever. Let us know when she may call upon you, and we will be glad to make the necessary arrangements.
