

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLI.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1922.

NO. 37.

EVERYTHING

For Sunday Dinner

Everything
In Season

Cash Paid For Eggs

Special Canned Fruits
30c Per Can
3 For 85c

Ben Grady, Grocer

We Sell SKINNERS The Highest Grade Macaroni Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Products

PHONES 68-126

E. G. Clements, of Valentine, was in O'Neill, Friday.

Harry Haffner was in Omaha the first of the week.

S. J. Weekes went down to Omaha Wednesday morning.

H. M. Metyler, of Tecumseh, was in the city on business last Thursday.

Mrs. M. R. Boler, of Jackson, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Biglin.

Miss Florence McCafferty entertained a few friends at her home Friday evening.

An eleven pound son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Early last Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Hiber and daughter returned Saturday evening from Plattsmouth and Omaha.

F. E. Cowden, of Riverton, Iowa, was in the city last Saturday looking after the Ditch camp.

The Ewing Advocate says that a young son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Angus last Sunday.

Mrs. C. P. Rhodes and son, Bobbie, have returned from a two week's visit with relatives at Beatrice.

The high school basket ball team are scheduled to play the Ewing high school team at Ewing Friday evening.

Miss Witherow, Miss Taylor and Miss Myrland, all teachers of the public school, were in Tilden last Saturday.

Col. James Moore is unusually happy these days all because a ten pound son arrived at his home last Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Cowperthwaite, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, at her residence in this city Monday morning, is reported as slowly recovering.

Mrs. Arthur Ryan was hostess to the Neighborhood Club last Monday evening. Mrs. C. M. Daly won the honors at bridge.

Jap Ritts was called to Iowa Saturday morning by the serious illness of his father, who suffered a stroke of paralysis that morning.

Mrs. Patrick Bernard Harty was hostess to the Martez club Monday evening. Miss Mae Hammond won the honors at auction.

Mrs. M. R. Boler, of Jackson, won high honors at auction at the meeting of the Monday Nite club. Mrs. Frank McMillan was hostess.

Albert Leigel and Mrs. Theresa Parisch, both of Stuart, were issued a marriage license by County Judge Malone Thursday, February 9.

Chambers Sun: Little Charles, son of Elmer Coolidge, of Amelia, had the misfortune to fall Monday evening, breaking his left arm just above the wrist.

Mrs. George Longstaff is expected home from Chicago, Tuesday where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hilda Goodenberger, for several weeks.

Mrs. Edward Campbell and Mr. Patrick Harty won the honors Sunday evening at the meeting of the Four-some club. Miss Ireneia Biglin was hostess.

The Misses Vivian and Inez Grant, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grant, who have been attending school in California, returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Connolly returned from the hospital at Sioux City last Saturday night with their little son, who recently underwent an operation. The little fellow is recovering nicely.

Fire originating presumably from an overheated furnace did considerable damage to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Hubbard of Chambers, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Disney, are rejoicing over the arrival of a seven pound girl at their home on February 8th. They reside in the south part of the county.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union meets with Mrs. Nora Pine Tuesday afternoon, February 21, at 8:00 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. L. A. Carter and daughter, Margaret, went to Humphrey, Wednesday morning for a visit with another daughter, Mrs. Joe Smith, who has been ill for the past three weeks.

Neligh Leader: County Judge Ingram issued only one marriage license the past week, to Earl D. Van Ostrand of Orchard and Edna Cary of Ewing. He performed the ceremony for them February 2.

E. L. Scholtz, residing northwest of Chambers, was in the city Saturday on business. Mr. Scholtz had his name added to our list so that he will get this family journal regularly for the next year.

The high school basket ball team will meet the Ewing team, on the Ewing floor Friday night. The same evening the Plainview high school girls' team will contest with the local girls' team here.

C. A. Shea, of Kiesling, Washington, who formerly resided a few miles northeast of this city for many years, arrived in the city last Thursday night and will visit relatives and old time friends.

Homer L. Coulthard, of Elgin, Nebraska, and Miss Leona J. Nelson, of Stuart, Nebraska, were married at the M. E. parsonage last Saturday afternoon. Melvin Nelson and Carrie Backman were the attendants.

Inman Leader: Geo. Davies left Wednesday for Omaha where he went to see his sister, Mrs. Betha of Ewing, who recently underwent a surgical operation. Her condition has been very serious but is now improving.

The local Masonic Lodge is holding a social meeting tonight in honor of Mr. Lewis E. Smith, Grand Master of Masons of Nebraska. Mr. Chas. H. Stowell, of Chambers, is also a guest of honor, being the oldest Mason in Holt county.

Ewing Advocate: Lyle Smith last week purchased the interests of Earl Angus in the meat market at Albion, and went down the first of this week to look up a home. He expects to move to Albion as soon as he can get a house to move into.

Inman Leader: Lewis Sobotka of this place and Frank Burival of O'Neill, departed Wednesday morning for Beatrice, where it is rumored that Lewis will be married to one of the fair daughters of that place. Frank went along to act as best man.

Some evening when you desire to receive the latest news of the day just ask Gerald what is happening in the different parts of the world and if he so desires he can put you wise for he receives a great share of his news from the large towers at Arlington.

Chambers Sun: Friends were grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Jacob Springer, of South Dakota. The Springer family resided in the Francis community about ten years ago. The remains will be brought to Bartlett and laid beside the husband and children.

Mrs. Frank Biglin and Mrs. Will Biglin entertained at a dinner and card party for a number of lady friends at the Hotel Golden Tuesday evening. Honors were won by Mrs. Patrick Harty, the second prize by Mrs. Allen Barber, and the all-cup prize by Mrs. L. A. Burgess.

Mrs. George A. Miles and Mrs. J. M. Hunter entertained the members of the Tuesday club and their husbands at a seven o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Miles last Tuesday evening. Frank Lancaster won the honors at progressive whist. J. M. Hunter won the consolation.

Thieves gained entrance to the Stout drug store Thursday evening, by breaking a window in the rear, and stole sixty fountain pens and a dozen gold pencils. No other property was taken as far as Mr. Stout has been able to ascertain. The loss is estimated at about $300.

Stuart Advocate: Emma Hinkle, thirteen years old, whose home is fifteen miles northeast of Atkinson, was brought to the Wilson hospital Saturday afternoon, a ruptured appendix making an operation necessary. At present, she is getting along as well as can be expected.

Stuart Advocate: Fire destroyed one of the outbuildings on the Joseph Kaup farm east of Stuart, Saturday afternoon, and slightly damaged two chicken houses. A number of small tools and implements that were stored in the building, were also destroyed, entailing a loss of about one hundred dollars.

Inman Leader: At a meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Union held Wednesday, A. J. Gifford was selected as manager of the Farmers Store at this place, taking charge of the business Thursday morning. N. C. Christianson, who has been acting manager for several months, has returned to his farm near Page.

"Meals" was the topic of discussion at the meeting of the Home Economics department of the Women's Club at the high school Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was led by Mrs. Charles F. McKenna and members responded to roll call with recipes for leftovers. Food Values of Expensive and Cheap Cuts of Meat was the topic of a paper by Mrs. John Melvin. Mrs. C. E. Downey discussed Cookery for the Cheap Cuts, and Meat Substitutes and Meat Salads was the topic assigned to Mrs. William Swigart.

James O'Connor, who has been confined to his residence for several days, was taken to Minneapolis for an operation, Sunday morning. Dr. Daniel O'Connor, his son, accompanied him. Word received from Minneapolis Tuesday was that Mr. O'Connor was operated on that day and is recovering nicely from the operation.

Ewing Advocate: A young German, relative of the Bauer family, of Ewing, arrived here Sunday evening from Germany. The young lad served in the German army during the war, and can give first hand information concerning conditions in Germany at the present time. He says it cost him 25,000 marks to buy his steamship passage to New York.

Chambers Sun: Word was received in Chambers that Mr. Hugo Hoppe, of Gorden, was in an Omaha hospital suffering from a very painful accident, a spike having rebounded, in driving, striking Hugo in the left eye, causing a cataract which has been operated on, but there is little hope for sight being saved. Mr. Hoppe's many friends in Chambers Valley are hoping for a recovery.

Jonathan Britt, 92, the oldest member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States, in both age and membership, according to local records, and a member of North Loup lodge No. 412 of the order in North Loup, Neb., for more than seventy-two years, died Tuesday at the home of his daughter near Yuba, California. Britt was born in Pennsylvania and had been a resident of Sutter county, California, for twenty years.

Business establishments and individuals in Omaha and Nebraska having claims against the railroads during the time they were under government control are required to file suit before March 1, or have their claims forever outlawed, according to an announcement made by C. E. Child, traffic manager of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Child estimated there were in Omaha at least $200,000 in claims that would be affected by this ruling.

O'Neill fight fans will have another opportunity to see Jerry Vokac, the fighting Bohemian from Verdigr, in action, when he meets Roy Rector, the noted light heavy weight of Columbus, Nebraska, at the K. C. hall Friday night of next week. The go, which will be a ten round one, will be a real one, as Rector has defeated a number of leading men of his class, including Whitney Fulton, brother of Fred Fulton, and Vokac needs no introduction to an O'Neill audience.

The American Legion Tuesday evening endorsed and under a working agreement are co-operating with the Chambers Post in the presentation in O'Neill of the operetta "The Japanese Princess" sometime within the next two weeks. This operetta is being presented by the Legion at Chambers in that city on next Wednesday. It is under the direction of Mr. Tetard, a musician and singer of unusual ability and an amateur performer of distinction who has had in charge the presentation of this operetta by amateur companies in Omaha and other eastern Nebraska cities. Forty voices comprise the cast and an excellent entertainment is secured.

Atkinson Graphic: From the roof of the Opera house to the roof of the Schultz drug store is stretched several wires which you have no doubt noticed at the same time wondering what could be their purpose. These wires were placed there by Gerald Schultz and in the rear part of the drug store Gerald has a receiver from which he takes messages sent from all parts of the United States. Gerald is the owner and operator of a wireless assisted by J. W. Wellman an old navy wireless operator, and when it comes to red hot news Gerald is up to date always being twenty-four hours ahead of the people who are readers of the daily papers. If you have ever visited Washington, D. C. you have seen at some distance the large wireless towers at Arlington.

EDITH SCHMIDT. Edith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, of Shields township, died Wednesday morning at the family home after an illness of several weeks duration. The little one was 7 months and 29 days of age. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church this, Thursday, afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Frontier joins in extending condolences to the bereaved parents and little brothers and sisters.

Cash Paid For Eggs

Santos Coffee
Fresh Ground
25c Pound
25c IN TRADE PAID FOR COUNTRY BUTTER.

Oranges, per doz., 40c

J. C. Horiskey

We Sell SKINNERS
the highest grade Macaroni Spaghetti, Egg Noodles and other Macaroni Products

O'Neill, Neb.

C. W. MORGAN

Charles Wesley Morgan, one of our oldest and most esteemed residents, passed away at the Campbell hospital of Norfolk, Saturday, February 11, 1922, after a short illness.

Charles Wesley Morgan was born at Iowa Falls, Hardin County, Iowa, October 14, 1858, and was 63 years, 3 months and 29 days of age at death.

He moved from Hardin County, Iowa, in 1883, to Mineola, Nebraska, where he homesteaded and made his home until three years ago, when he sold his home of 640 acres and moved to O'Neill.

He was united in marriage to Mrs. Viola A. Bader in this city on July 18, 1888.

To this union were born eight children, five boys and three girls.

The deceased was one of our wide-awake and energetic citizens and was widely known and universally liked and respected.

His death is a loss to the community and we all grieve with the afflicted family.

Charles has known all the hardships of the early settler and he had come through it all to a time when he could enjoy his labors, when he who doeth all things well saw fit to call him to his reward.

He, with his wife, were united with the M. E. church at Mineola on March 12, 1917, and their membership was transferred to the First M. E. church of this city April 5, 1921.

He leaves to mourn his beloved wife, Viola, and six children: Eugene

Augusta, Chester Arthur, and Oliver Bert, of this city; David Francis and Mrs. Mae Taylor, of Opportunity, and Mrs. Sarah Sorensen, of Page; and two step-children: Myrleen Bader, of this city and Mrs. Mabel Clark, of Buffalo Head, Canada. Two children, Bessie Blanch and John Wesley preceded him.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 12 m. from the M. E. church. Interment being in the Mineola cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express through The Frontier, our heart felt thanks to the friends here and at Norfolk, for the many kind acts of help and sympathy shown us during our sad bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Mrs. Viola Morgan and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Messner and family.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
ELECTS OFFICERS

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected at a meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday:

President, Mrs. David Stannard; Vice President, Mrs. F. J. Dishner; Secretary, Miss Edna Barnard; Treasurer, Miss Anna O'Donnell. Executive Committee—Miss Lillian Golden, Mrs. Edward Campbell, Miss Bernadette Brennan.

Charles Ray
at Royal Theatre
in
Two Minutes To Go
Buster Keyton Comedy
Thursday and Friday
February 23 and 24
Basket Ball Benefit

We Like
All Our Depositors

This bank looks after the requirements of the small depositor as carefully as it does the large one.

Don't think because you do not handle large sums of money, that we are indifferent to you.

We have time for everyone who comes in our bank.

The O'Neill National Bank
O'Neill, Nebraska
Capital, Surplus and Undivided
Profits, $160,000.00
This Bank Carries No Indebtedness
Of Officers Or Stockholders.

Boxing Match

Jerry Vokac and Roy Rector of Verdigr of Columbus

At K. C. Hall, O'Neill, Friday, February, 24th
At 8:30 P. M. Sharp.

10 Fast and Furious Rounds of Boxing

Vokac, who never has been defeated, is considered by many as the champion heavyweight of Nebraska. He needs no introduction to local followers of the sport. Rector is a light-heavy weight with a long record of victories to his credit. He recently defeated the famous Whitey Fulton, brother of Fred Fulton, contender for the heavyweight championship.

General Admission, $1.00 plus war tax. Ringside, $2.00 plus war tax.