

"Hello, Nancy
an' Janet
We're havin' Kellogg's at our house 'n' mother keeps me gain' for more—but I don't care
'cause I like Kellogg's!"

It's the flavor and crispness that make Kellogg's Corn Flakes so joyously delicious

You'll wish the bowl at your table-seat was about twice as big when it's "Kellogg's for the feast!" Great big, sunny-brown corn flakes—all oven-crisp and crunchy—crowding each other to spread you real and true joy! You never tasted such flavor!

Pour in some fresh, cold milk—or cream—and start in! Well, it'll seem you can't get going speedy enough to suit your appetite! Was there ever such a keen appetite maker; such happy, health-making food!

Tomorrow, serve Kellogg's! What a round of appetite-applause you'll win! Great to start the day right!

Do more than ask your grocer for "corn flakes." Insist upon KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes—they're so delicious!

BIRTH OF A BABE MAY FREE MOTHER FROM STATE PEN

(World Herald)
Lincoln, Neb.—Betty June De Hart, a new-born babe, carries the key that may unlock the barred doors of the Nebraska penitentiary and let her mother, Mrs. Rolla De Hart, go free. Betty was born at the State Orthopedic hospital here about a month ago.

Pardon officials say that the young mother, sent up from Holt county as an accomplice of her husband, Rolla De Hart, in the murder of John Mize last summer, would not be made to suffer shame with her child. Her sentence was one to ten years. She will remain at the hospital until the pardon board acts.

"The pardon board will make some adjustment of the case soon," said Secretary of State D. M. Amsberry, a member.

"The child cannot be taken to the penitentiary, nor can it be torn from its mother's side while she is forced to return to penal servitude."

"The judge has expressed some doubt of her real guilt," said N. T.

Harmon, state probation officer and executive official of the board. "She has already served six months of her one to ten-year sentence. Her minimum sentence would expire anyway in four months."

Betty's father was sent up for life for the same murder, and his brother, William, began serving sentence at the penitentiary February 21, a year ago, for chicken stealing at Burwell, where the De Harts lived.

William's application for parole is before the pardon board at its March hearing.

Rolla De Hart was sentenced July 24, last. His arrest followed the finding of Mize's body and later discovery of his team in the possession of the De Harts.

The three were on their way home from South Dakota at the time. Mize's head had been crushed with a hammer.

The half dozen women inmates of the pen who have evinced great interest in Betty June, had a part in christening her. One of her names, at least, was suggested by her mother's prison mates.

Warden Fenton permitted the entire feminine population of the prison to visit mother and daughter at the Orthopedic hospital ward where they are confined.

VETERAN OF THE CIVIL WAR PASSED AWAY.
(Cedar Rapids Outlook.)
Charles Davis was born in Arcade, New York, August 2, 1842. At eight years of age he moved with his parents to Peoria, Ill., where he enlisted in Co. D, 17th Regiment of Illinois Volunteers and he served under Capt. Henry H. Bush until he was discharged June 4, 1864, at Springfield, Ill. Afterwards he re-enlisted and served until he was discharged by the expiration of his time of service.

On Sept. 19, 1867, he was united in marriage to Amelia Davis of Pine Run, Mich. He then moved to Galvie, Ill., where he resided for six years. At the end of that time he emigrated to Nebraska and located at Wahoo, where he lived until 1882. He next moved to Page, in Holt County, Nebraska, where he took a homestead and suffered all the privations of pioneer life. In 1903 not being able to handle the farm any longer, he disposed of it and moved to Cedar Rapids so as to live near his children. Here he has spent the last nineteen years of his life.

While he was living in Page, he was converted and joined the Methodist church, to which he was a faithful communicant until his death. He was a kind husband, a loving father and was respected by all who knew him. He was a member of Caddell Post, No. 74, of the G. A. R. having joined when he moved to our village. For the past six years he was Senior Vice Commander, and has been a very active and loving comrade.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and four children; Mrs. Cora Smith, Mrs. Minnie Auten, Charles L. Davis, all of Cedar Rapids, and Harry B. Davis, Tuscon, Arizona. There are also seven grand children, three great grand children, one brother, John Davis of Grand Island, one sister, Mrs. Melissa Gould, Geneva, Neb., and a host of friends.

The funeral services were held at the M. E. church, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. Roe. The pall bearers were six grandsons of the deceased, five from Cedar Rapids and one from Omaha.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.
The missionary program put on Tuesday was of a fine order. The addresses given were full of information and inspiration. Rev. Geo. Hollister gave a stereopticon lecture in the evening showing scenes in China where his field of labor is located. Delegates from Page and Chambers attended the meeting.

The pastor attended a missionary meeting at Inman on Wednesday.
The pastor, Arthur Roberts, C. P. Hancock, and Mr. Nye autoed to Amelia Wednesday evening to attend a revival meeting put on by the Hunter Evangelistic Party. The meeting is in full swing, no building in Amelia is large enough to accommodate the crowds that want to attend.
Wm. Fry, of Winside, visited over Sunday with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Hutchins.

CHAMBERS SUN.

County Clerk E. F. Porter and son Chauncy, wife and baby, were shaking hands with their many friends in Chambers, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ressel are happy over the arrival of a bouncing boy who arrived at their home Sunday, March 12, weight 10 pounds.

While canning meat, Saturday, Mrs. Fred Watson, of Amelia, had the misfortune to have her right arm cut on a broken jar causing an ugly wound which required three stitches.

L. W. O'Mally and family moved from O'Neill to their ranch southwest of Chambers, and now J. M. Duvall is smiling out loud on account of laying aside the Mary-Jane apron and has quit washing his hands in the dish water.

E. C. Hunter, the Cowboy Evangelist, met with a very painful accident Tuesday night. In cranking a tin Lizzie, he kicked Mr. Hunter, cracking the bone just above the wrist—but it takes more than a Ford to knock the Cowboy Evangelist out, as he is still holding the fort at the Band Hall.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Teard in this vicinity will be grieved to learn that they will leave this garden spot of Nebraska the latter part of the week to make their home at Geneva, the county seat of Fillmore county, this state, where Mr. Tetard has bought a Ford garage, and is located on the Meridian Highway. The Sun joins their many friends in wishing this estimable couple the best of success in their new field of labor. They will be missed in more ways than one, especially in church and public work, but Geneva has gained real boosters by this family moving to their fair little city.

PAGE ITEMS.

R. L. Drayton was in Omaha over Sunday.

M. O. Howard was in Pierce and Plainview last Tuesday.

Roy Waring, of Middle Branch, shipped a car of cattle to Sioux City, Wednesday morning.

J. R. Weber was in Omaha and Iowa points the latter part of last week, returning home Monday.

Ed. Goodell, of near Plainview, has moved to the Mike Hitchens farm, one mile east of town.

A. H. Frohm, of Atkinson, has traded for the Barnett farm, two and one-half miles northeast of Page, and has moved thereon.

W. H. Decker and family have moved back to their farm northwest of Page. They have been making their home in Lincoln for several years.

John Davidson was down from O'Neill, Wednesday, looking after some plumbing jobs and getting ready to take care of any one who want to connect with the water system.

J. B. Mellor and C. M. Stevens have closed their trade and have changed their residences. J. B. and family have moved to the Stevens farm near Middle Branch and Mr. Stevens has moved to the Mellor property south of the elevator.

W. C. T. U. DRIVE.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union membership drive is now on. If we are to double our number each one should get busy. Our slogan for this year is "Every member win a member." All whose dues should be paid in March please bring or send to the next meeting.

Chicken Pie Dinner

The Protestant ladies of O'Neill will give a Chicken Pie Dinner and a Chicken Supper, on THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1922.

Dinner—11:30 to 1:30.
Supper—5:30 to 7:30.

Benefit Protestant Cemetery.

The ladies realize that if the cemetery is to be kept up to where it has been for the past two years, that more money than can be raised by assessment must be raised and they will give you more than your money's worth in good things to eat.
