

Union Revival Meetings

Will be held
In the Big Tabernacle Tent

Beginning

Sunday, April 2nd

at 8:00 o'clock

Conducted by
E. C. Hunter Evangelistic Party

Rev. Hunter is known as the Cowboy Evangelist of Denver, Colorado

Singing Evangelist Wheatley and wife, of Los Angeles, California, will lead the singing. They have a nation wide reputation. It will be a real treat to hear them sing and see the work.

Evangelist E. C. Hunter comes to us well recommended, having been in the evangelistic work before entering the service, and since receiving his discharge from the army at the close of the war. He is a young man of splendid talent, has a University education, and is full of "pep and spirituality."

Judge E. T. Ralls, elder in the Presbyterian church of Coalgate, writes: "The E. C. Hunter Evangelistic Party has held two evangelistic campaigns for us here and both campaigns were very successful. Evangelist Hunter is a very forceful preacher and knows just how to reach the public."

Rev. Hamilton, pastor of one of the Methodist churches in Oklahoma, says: "Evangelist Hunter is the strongest and most able preacher I have ever listened to. He asks no quarters and gives none."

Rev. Holverson, of the Baptist denomination of Nebraska, says: "I have heard Sunday, Tarry, Spurgeon, Gypsy Smith and other noted evangelists and none of them can step on the platform after Hunter."

Mrs. Rolla Britton and baby arrived here this morning from Deadwood, South Dakota, and are visiting at the Wm. Britton home. Mrs. Britton will be remembered as Blanch Walmer.

The book and score for "The Diplomat," the musical comedy to be given by the American Legion at the K. C. hall early in May, arrived Wednesday and rehearsals, under direction of Clifford Scott, will begin at once.

The general meeting of the Woman's club will be held next Wednesday afternoon. Plans will be made in preparation for the district convention and entertainment of delegates. All members are requested to be present.

For the benefit of those who reside in other localities we will say that the temperature took a sudden drop last Tuesday. The morning was nice and warm but the thermometer Wednesday morning registered seven degrees above zero.

W. A. Ellis, of Steel Creek, was a pleasant caller at The Frontier office last Tuesday. Mr. Ellis is one of the real substantial farmers of the Steel Creek country, where they grow some of the best live stock to be found in the county.

Thomas Cassidy, of Omaha, representing the Bradstreet Rating agency, was in O'Neill several days during the past week. Tom was raised on the Cassidy farm, a few miles southeast of O'Neill, and his visit has been enjoyed by his old friends.

H. Dietrick, of Osceola, Iowa, was in the city last Monday enroute home from Keya Paha county where he just traded for the 1400 acre ranch of Peter Freehedge, who resides about 18 miles north of Newport. Harry Haffner assisted in closing the deal.

The Misses Grace and Molly O'Malley came up from Omaha last Monday evening to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. M. O'Malley, which was held Tuesday morning. They are spending the remainder of the week with friends in and around O'Neill.

Rev. Clinton Lowery, D. D., and daughter Ruth, of Detroit, Michigan, and Rev. William Lowery, of Windom, Minnesota, arrived here last Saturday night for a visit with their mother, Mrs. N. S. Lowery, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Donohoe, on west Douglas street.

Raymond T. Baker retired as director of the mint a few days ago, turning over to F. E. Scobey, his successor, approximately one-third of the world's gold supply. The gold bullion and gold coin held at the United States mints at Philadelphia, Denver and San Francisco, and at the assay office in New York on March 1, totalled more than $3,000,000,000. The world's supply amounts to about $9,000,000,000.

Several new filings were made during the past week for supervisor, on the republican ticket, in the different districts. C. H. Nellis, of Green Valley, filed as a candidate from the sixth district; C. E. Farrier, of Chambers, in the fifth and C. F. Englehaupt, of Cleveland, in the first.

C. P. Rhodes has accepted a position as manager of a creamery business in Omaha and will personally take charge of the business about April 15th. Mr. Rhodes and family have made their home in Calgary, Canada, for the past few years. They will move to Omaha soon.

The case of Mrs. Della DeHart, who is serving time in the state penitentiary for the assistance she gave her husband, in the alleged murder of John Mize on the bank of the Niobrara river last summer, and who is now the mother of a daughter, Betty June, was before the pardon board at Lincoln last week. The officials decided that Mrs. DeHart should remain in the orthopedic hospital until the expiration of her minimum sentence, which will be about four months, she will then be paroled.

The daisy has been selected as the official flower of the American Legion and will be used extensively this year in the decoration of the graves of veterans of the world war on memorial day. It replaces the "poppy of Flander's Field" which has been the ex-service man's favorite flower, due to its associations overseas. Certain commercial organizations were trying to commercialize the poppy and agricultural authorities objected to it as a "weed." For these reasons the Legion adopted a truly American flower.

The Holt County Farm Bureau, through its attorney, J. A. Donohoe, filed an action in the district court yesterday to compel the county board to employ a county agent. In order to reduce the levy and to assist in the reduction of taxes, the county board decided to not employ the county agent during the coming year. This action did not meet with the approval of the members of the Farm Bureau and as there is a state law that requires the county board to employ a county agent where the proper petition has been filed, the Farm Bureau have taken the above steps to reinstate the county agent.
