A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swanson last Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Coday, of near Emmet, a girl, on Monday, April 3rd.

Mrs. Pat Hayes, of Atkinson, was a guest of her niece, Mrs. H. D. Grady, over Sunday.

Down at Inman J. S. Jackson, Charles Enders and A. N. Butler were elected village trustees for three years.

Ed Wertsbaugh has rented the office in the front part of the Battery Station and will carry a line of Ford Accessories.

M. W. Simpson, of Wayne, a brother of the late Wm. Simpson, was in O'Neill, Friday, looking after the settlement of the estate.

There will be a food sale at Bays' store Saturday afternoon, April 8th, for benefit of band fund. Your patronage will be appreciated.

Mrs. G. W. Jones returned Wednesday from a three months visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Walmer, at Orchard. Mrs. Jones has been in poor health the past winter.

The Frontier stated last week that Rolland Parker purchased the Harrison land that was sold at auction about ten days ago; this was a mistake, J. E. Harrison bid the property in for the heirs.

There has been quite an interesting contest on at Inman over the question of who will be the next postmaster, but the matter was settled a few days ago when J. S. Jackson received the endorsement at Washington.

Mrs. John Musser, of Rushville, Warden of the Rebekah Assembly of Nebraska, was the guest of the local Rebekah ladies Thursday while enroute to her home from an inspection trip in northeastern Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shoemaker gave a dinner Sunday at their country home to a large number of the young folks in honor of Mrs. Shoemaker's sister, Miss Grace Carlson, who leaves for Omaha the first of the week.

Hon. M. P. Kinkaid made his filing for congress for the eleventh time, the first of the week. Mr. Kinkaid is now serving the tenth consecutive term of two years as congressman from this district and his constituents are ready to return him to Washington for as many more terms as he may choose to accept.

The business men of Ewing have just recently organized a Chamber of Commerce in their village. The officers are: W. W. Bethea, president; L. L. Jones, 1st vice-president; S. E. Adrian, 2nd vice-president; A. E. Spittler, secretary and Carl Jacob, treasurer. The board of directors are: J. L. Fisher, J. S. Weaving, E. L. Davies, Leonard Hales, J. E. Sanders, R. O. Anderson.

Mrs. Christena Dierks has filed suit for divorce from her husband, Daniel Dierks, on the ground of cruelty and inhuman treatment. The Dierks are old time residents of Green Valley township coming to Holt county about twenty-eight years ago. The last few years they have resided in Atkinson. The petition states that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Fremont, Nebraska, July 26, 1892.

There seems to be an epidemic of anonymous letters in O'Neill. The Frontier has been favored with its share. This form of insanity is not confined to residents of O'Neill, but is prevalent in Page and Inman, and we understand traces of it are found in Atkinson. In most cases the patient recovers. The symptoms seems to be an unquenchable desire to do something mean to someone over some other person's shoulder.

At the regular meeting of the school board last Monday evening E. E. Erickson, of Rapelje, Montana, was elected superintendent for the coming year at a salary of $2,000. Mr. Erickson is a married man with two children. Miss Stella L. Eckels, of Hyannis, Nebraska, who is now one of the high school teachers, was elected principal, and Miss Rose Taylor, who has been a teacher at St. Mary's academy, here, was elected to one of the grades. The salaries will remain the same as last year. A kindergarten and two high school teachers are yet to be elected.

S. J. Weekes, President of the O'Neill National Bank, when interviewed today with reference to an article appearing in the Sunday Word-Herald commenting on a suit filed in the District Court of Douglas County by W. L. & C. L. Brady to recover money paid for stock in the Missouri Valley Cattle Loan Company and in which suit Mr. Weekes is made defendant. Mr. Weekes had this to say: "I have never had any dealings directly or indirectly with the Missouri Valley Cattle Loan Co., its officers or any of its stock salesmen. It is indeed the irony of fate to be accused of assisting in selling such stock when the facts are that bankers of Nebraska generally know and the people of this county particularly know that I have opposed and fought stock salesmen of all kinds, the Missouri Valley Cattle Loan Company included, both in season and out of season. So far as I am concerned this suit is nothing short of an attempted extortion and blackmail which will be proven if the instigators of the suit ever permit it to come to trial."

Regular morning service will be held in the church Sunday morning. Evening service will be held in the Big Tabernacle tent.

The Camp Fire girls put on a real program last Friday evening. The audience enjoyed it immensely.

The debate put on by the Epworth League last Wednesday drew a large crowd. The members of the league are real debaters.

The Good Cheer class meet on Wednesday in the church basement.

The Kings Daughters meet with Mrs. Clark Hough on Thursday.

DR. GILLIGAN THE NEW MAYOR.

Dr. J. P. Gilligan will guide the destinies of O'Neill for the two year period beginning in May. The doctor was elected by a large majority at the city election Tuesday, being the only candidate whose name appeared on the ballot and attempts to write in the names of others for the position not getting very far. He will be the first mayor of O'Neill elected for a term of two years, under the revised charter of cities of this class adopted at the last session of the legislature. Other city officers elected were John C. Gallagher city clerk, C. P. Hancock city treasurer, Thomas Birmingham councilman First ward, George Bay councilman Second ward and Mike Johnson Third ward. None of these had opposition and their names were the only ones appearing on the ballot for the respective positions. A lively contest for the two positions on the city board of education to be filled was the only thing to arouse any interest whatever in the election. No candidate filed for either of the school positions and as a consequence the names of all candidates had to be written in, resulting in a spirited campaign for eleventh hour candidates. Miss Anna O'Donnell and Charles B. Scott, the Women's Club candidates were the lucky ones. Miss O'Donnell running far ahead of all other candidates and Mr. Scott leading the rest of the field by a substantial majority.

THE DISTRICT MEETING.

At the General Meeting of the Women's Club on Wednesday plans for the District convention on May 2, 3, and 4 were discussed and formulated. The following committees were appointed:

A petition to the Mayor and City Council to have the week following Easter, April 17 to 22, as clean-up and paint week. Leaders in the various wards: Mrs. Daly, First ward; Mrs. Sauer, Second ward; Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Cowperthwaite, Third ward.

The Club will have a food sale on Saturday, April 22, to defray the expense of the convention. The committee consists of: Mrs. Arthur Ryan, Mrs. Swigart, Mrs. Winchell and Mrs. Carter.

GOLF BAWLS.

Rug putting is vindicated, and it even is not necessary to sand the rugs. Ed O'Donnell is getting rich making the ninth hole in three and attributes his success entirely to the winter practice.

The oft postponed match between Patsy Harty and Bill Biglin on one side and Straw Gallagher and Mike Horiskey on the other was played Sunday and it turned out just like the last checker contest between O'Neill and Orchard, both sides claimed the victory. Patsy and Bill have concrete evidence to bolster up their claims.

R. R. Dickson's new clubs have arrived and the judge professes to note a vast improvement in his game.

A golf tournament and entertainment for the delegates to the annual convention of the womens clubs of the Sixth Congressional district, to be held here in May, is being arranged. It will be the last golf tournament exclusively for women ever held in northern Nebraska.

FISH HOOKS.

Ira Moss gets the medal for catching the first game fish of the year in this immediate vicinity. Monday afternoon he landed several large bass, down the river. The news of the catch was exceedingly depressing to 77 Wade who has been trying for the fighters for several weeks now. However Mr. Wade already this season has one carp, one bullhead and fifteen sun fish to his credit, making the big sunfish catch Wednesday. Her Hammond and Frank Harrington tried it out Tuesday afternoon, but were unsuccessful and had to walk back to that, George Agnes forgetting to go down after them in the evening.

PINKERMAN RESIDENCE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Fire was discovered in the upper story of the James Pinkerman residence, in the west part of O'Neill, about one o'clock Saturday morning. Some trouble was experienced in getting the fire truck started, causing some delay in getting water upon the fire. The interior of the building was gutted. The household goods were removed from the lower part of the building. Mr. Pinkerman and family had gone to Scottville the previous afternoon and there was no one at home when the fire started.

The residence was insured for $1,700, but there was no insurance upon the furniture.

BAND WEEK.

The members of the O'Neill Concert Band have started their campaign this week for the purpose of raising money with which to maintain the band. The boys want to raise enough money to pay for their suits, which will be here soon.

The people of O'Neill have not been asked to furnish money for the upkeep of the band while the members have spent about $1,500.00 for instruments and now have a repertoire of up-to-date music which they will furnish the people of O'Neill one evening at least, each week during the summer.

Saturday will be tag day for the band, when a number of young ladies will sell the tag for what you feel like giving.

The band will give a concert Friday and Saturday noon at twelve o'clock.

A good band neatly uniformed is one of the town's best advertisements; let's all boost for the band.

WILL HE GET THE MONEY?

The O. F. Biglin furniture store received the following letter one day last week from a fellow who claims to be in prison in Spain and is self explanatory. Here it is:

"Madrid, 3-9-1922.

"Dear Sir: Being imprisoned here by bankruptcy I beg your aid to recover a sum of 360,000 dollars I have in America being necessary to come here to raise the seizure of my baggage paying to the registrar of the court the expenses of my trial and recover my portmanteau containing a secret pocket where I have hidden one check for that sum.

By reward I offer you the third part viz 120,000 dollars.

I cannot receive your answer in the prison but you must send a cablegram to a person of my confidence who will deliver it to me.

Awaiting your cable, to intrust you all my secret.

Yours truly,

"First of all answer by cable, not by letter as follows:

"Csalona Lista de Telegrafos—Bilboa-España, Arice well—40—Biglin."

MODERN AUCTION BRIDGE.

The modern game of auction bridge is a descendant of the old Russian whist and came to its name in a peculiar way about forty years ago, says the Detroit News. At that time there lived at Great Dally, Leicestershire, England, two families devoted to the game. They paid each other visits on alternate nights. Their way lay across an old rickety bridge, dangerous to travel after nightfall. So often did one neighbor say to the other in parting, "Thank goodness it is your bridge tomorrow night," that in time they referred to their game only as "bridge." And thus the new name became popular in the countryside and was later accepted throughout England, and soon came to America.

PRISON BABY'S MOTHER APPLIES FOR PARDON

Application for pardon of Mrs. Della Dehart, serving from 1 to 10 years for complicity in the murder of John Mize of Holt county last summer, was filed Thursday by Frank Warner, a Norfolk attorney. Mrs. Dehart once cared for Warner's sister when she was ill. Mrs. Effegene Hallock of Burwell, who has known Mrs. Dehart since girlhood, offers to employ her.

Mrs. Dehart states in the application that her husband, Rola, serving life, killed Mize because the latter attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Dehart is the mother of Betty June, Nebraska's first penitentiary baby. The mother and baby are at the orthopedic hospital. The application will be considered at the May meeting.

THE ELECTION AT PAGE.

The election at Page was a quiet one this year. A. E. Riggs and S. G. Coover were elected Village Trustees for the three year term without opposition.

The school election resulted as follows:

For the three year term: S. G. Coover and J. E. Smith.

For the two year term: George Hunter and Leonard Heiss.

For the one year term: Mrs. J. T. Walker and Mrs. J. L. Murphy.

The new officers of the town board will assume their office some time in May while the school officers elected will not take office until after the annual meeting in July.

FORMER O'NEILL MAN ROBBED AT OMAHA

The following article appeared in the Saturday edition of an Omaha paper:

"While Deputy United States Marshal Lee Weekes was busily engaged in the act of sleeping in his bed at room 403, Y. M. C. A. building, last night, he was joined by his brother, Dale Weekes, who is employed by the Burgess-Nash Co., and who was late in retiring because of having attended a movie.

"This morning the deputy marshal and his brother awoke to find that a sneak thief had been in their midst and had taken everything except their pajamas and a government pistol that the deputy had in his keester, alias suitcase.

"Deputy Weekes said the total loss was two watches and $15, with some clothing."

The serious part of the whole thing was revealed to Lee Sunday morning when he went to his wardrobe to "dollar up" and found that the thief had also taken a new suit of clothes in addition to what had already been reported.

HUMPHREY-LUTE.

Clyde Ernest Humphrey, of Stuart, and Mrs. Merle Lute, of Emerson, Nebraska, were married by Justice of the Peace L. L. Cosner, at Stuart, last Monday.
