Tomorrow is "Good Friday." Have you your potatoes ready to plant?

The annual Grand Confetti ball of the American Legion will be given at the K. C. hall Monday evening.

Miss Helen Wilcox went to Chadron last Friday where she remained over Sunday visiting with a number of friends.

Geo. T. Davis, Dr. Noyes, Lee R. Tompkins and C. A. Van Valkenburg were elected members of the school board at Inman last week.

Saturday, April 22nd, will be the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the custom of celebrating arbor day, by J. Sterling Morton, who was then secretary of agriculture.

The Ewing Chamber of Commerce are offering a prize of $15.00 for the best, and a $10.00 prize for the second best improved yard in the village. A $5.00 prize is also offered for the best kept garden.

Mrs. J. K. Aaberg, who was called to the bedside of her father at Valentine some time ago, is now visiting with relatives at Van Tassel, Wyoming, before going to her new home in Arcadia, Texas.

Mrs. Minnie E. (Miller) French and S. W. Green were elected members of the school board for the long term and A. E. Spittler and W. H. Graver for the short term at the election held at Ewing last week.

Chambers Sun: Rev. Halvorsen left Saturday for Corwith, Iowa, to deliver his first sermon in his new location, he returned home Tuesday evening and is now busy packing up, preparatory to moving there some time this month.

J. K. Aaberg loaded an emigrant car last Saturday and has departed for his new location in Arcadia, Texas, where he will operate a 283 acre farm, about twenty-five miles southwest of Houston. The farm is of the agricultural and dairy type.

Bishop Beecher of the Episcopal diocese of Kearney, will hold services at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Friday, at 4 o'clock, 4:30 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock p. m. The 4 o'clock service will be a Meditation and the one at 7:30 a Good Friday Meditation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mills, of Meadow Grove, Nebraska, were visiting at Knoxville for about a week, coming to O'Neill, Sunday. They returned home Monday. Mr. Mills is a brother of H. W. Mills of this city. They resided on a farm two miles south of Opportunity for a good many years, moving to Meadow Grove some twelve years ago.

Casper Herald: Mrs. A. E. Biglin, accompanied by her two children and mother, Mrs. Ann Seeley-Weed, anticipate leaving on Tuesday next for an extensive visit at Olean, New York. They will be the guests of Mrs. Havens, daughter and sister of the Casper matrons. The party will spend much of their time visiting and enjoying the delightful trip.

Inman Leader: The Northwestern railroad have closed their coal chute at Inman and hereafter the company will use oil in their engines instead of coal. The men who have been employed here will be given other positions at points along the line we are told. Those employed in the coal chute were Charles McIntosh, Frank Baldwin and Oscar Bradley.

Judge W. H. Westover, of Rushville, filed the first of the week as a candidate for the supreme court from the Sixth district. Judge J. R. Dean, of Broken Bow, who filed some time ago, will be his opponent. The supreme court judges are elected on a non-partisan ballot.

Holt county will have a county agent for the ensuing year at least. Saturday morning District Judge Robert R. Dickson granted a writ of mandamus asked for by the farm bureau, requiring the county board to make the necessary appropriation for the year, as required by statute when certain requirements are met by the bureau members and which had been complied with.

Fire destroyed the $75,000 school building at Tilden on April 1st. The building was one of the most modern in this part of the state and was erected in 1912. $22,000 insurance was carried on the building. Miss Ida Craig, of O'Neill, was one of the instructors but was in Norfolk with the other teachers attending county institute. Pat Stanton, Jr., son of Pat Stanton, of Tilden, who has made O'Neill many visits during the past thirty years, was perhaps seriously injured while fighting the fire by being hit upon the head by a falling window weight. School is being held in the churches.

Some of O'Neill's most scienced checker players were treated rather rough by an outsider last Thursday and Friday evenings. The visitor was A. M. Voss of Lincoln, state inspector of high schools, who can talk checker just like a native. Mr. Voss cleaned them all up at the local checker club, even taking Champion Chapman down the line for several games. Will Munshower was the only one to get a game on the Lincoln man, and Munshower's victory was due to a certain move which Voss contended he could make and still get a draw. Munshower didn't think so and proved his contention in the play that followed.

Inman Leader: Elmer, the thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Killinger met with quite a serious accident last Wednesday night about six o'clock. He ventured to near a gasoline engine that was in operation and his coat got caught in the fly wheel and before his father, who was standing near, could stop the engine the boy's clothes were so completely wrapped in the wheel that he was thrown from his feet and his head struck the trucks of the engine several times inflicting bad wounds on his face and head. Dr. Noyes was called and nine stitches were required to close the wounds. The boy was unconscious for a long time after the accident.

Here are four spring diseases: Gardentis, spring fever, housecleaners' backache and fisherman's rheumatism. Have you felt any of the symptoms yet?

What is believed to be the largest litter of pigs ever farrowed in the state of Nebraska, was born at the Theo. Cape farm adjoining this city, on Monday of this week, when a Duroc sow gave birth to 20 pigs all alive and doing fine. Mr. Cape has 63 pigs from four sows and says you don't have to have many sows to raise a carload of hogs if you get the right kind.—Neigh News.

Chambers Sun: On April 5th, E. W. Cooke received the following from the Interstate Commerce Commission: This case was submitted November 21, 1921, and was decided February 11, 1922. "Complaint praying for an order under paragraph, (21) of Section 1 of the Interstate Commerce Commission act, requiring the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company to extend its line from Ericson to Chambers, Nebraska; Held that the proposed extension is not reasonably required in the interest of public convenience and necessity." Complaint dismissed.

FISH HOOKS.

Zeb Warner and the boys tried out some of the new tackle Sunday.

77 Wade chaperoned a party of eight down the river last Sunday and 77's record of 17 so far this season, was slightly increased as a consequence.

Joe Hunter may not play golf this summer. Last Thursday was his first day out this year with the rod and line and he succeeded in catching about the limit of croppies.

Hugh O'Donnell and Erwin Cronin were the first fishermen to register this season, each bringing back several croppies and bullheads from Mud bridge last Saturday.

The two Jims, Davis and Davidson, went down the river to the bayous near Stafford last Sunday and made a pretty good catch of bass, croppies and catfish. They are contemplating a trip to Fish lake before long.

A party of Ewing fishermen who visited Cottonwood lake several weeks ago report that a number of dead bass, carp and pickerel, some quite large, were found along the lake shore, evidently smothered during the cold weather, but say that not all the fish in the lake were winter-killed.

Frank Barrett, champion pickerel catcher of Holt county, hasn't succeeded in landing any big ones so far this spring, but has several of good eating size to his credit. The other day Larry and he captured a stray frog out on the Dry creek hay meadows and then they took the next morning off to go fishing. On arrival at the river it was discovered that there was a hole in the frog sack, so both had to use spoon-hooks.

GOLF BAWLS.

Patsy Harty almost made a hole in one the other day, but unfortunately there was a stick in the way.

Jim Donohoe, Doc Kubitschek and Ed O'Donnell to the contrary notwithstanding, Mickey Brady never did stand that way. He couldn't.

A match between the right and left handed players is being talked of for the not far distant future to decide once and for all which are the most proficient.

Paddy O'Donnell made the ninth hole in three Tuesday afternoon, to the financial depression of several who happened to be present. The play was the first to be made since the promulgation of the new rule that any golfer making the ninth in three is privileged to collect two bits from each of the innocent bystanders.

There is serious talk of suspending Jimmy Gallagher from the club if he doesn't cease being so accommodating. Ben Grady made his record drive of the season the other day and Jimmy, who happened to be passing along through the trees where the darned thing landed picked it up and returned the ball to the owner, thinking it was a lost one. And it might have been at that.

For the benefit of the golf widows, it is stated that a telephone has been installed at the course. The number is Chestnut 181 and John Bernard O'Sullivan will be glad to call the missing husband to the phone at any time. An arrangement also has been made with the Hanford company to blow the whistle at 6 o'clock each evening as a notice to the players that supper is about ready.

There was a considerable discussion between a bunch of the golfers down at Harty brothers emporium Wednesday morning luring the rain as to whether one was entitled to message the greens before putting. Asher Ryan insisted that it wasn't according to Hoyle and some of the bunch declared that Hoyle never played golf anyway. The question is still undecided, but they are doing it anyhow.

CLEAN UP NOTICE.

The citizens of O'Neill are hereby notified that the week beginning April 16th, has been designated by the City Council as "Clean Up Week," and all citizens, property owners and others are requested to make a thorough cleaning of their respective premises and remove therefrom and from the alleys and streets adjoining, all rubbish, tin cans, ashes and other refuse and to remove from the barns, lots, streets or alleys all manure accumulated, and for instructions as to disposing of all such refuse, you are directed to call on the City Marshal, who has been appointed City Scavenger.
