Inman Leader: J. H. Butler took his little daughter, Mary, to the hospital in Omaha, last Saturday, where on Monday the little one underwent an operation for a growth on the neck. This is the second operation for this trouble since D. A telegram from the hospital Sunday evening states that the operation was a success and that the little child is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter, of Scottville, met with an experience last Sunday night that they will not care to repeat soon. They had spent the evening at the O. P. Chase home three miles southwest of Page; when they started home the lights on their car were poor and they were unable to see but a short distance ahead of the car. Everything went alright until they arrived in the Opportunity country, where they ran into a team hitched to a wagon standing in the road with its driver fast asleep, the tongue of the wagon came through the windshield and struck Mrs. Richter in the face inflicting a severe wound, which, for a few days gave them considerable anxiety.

Union Services. The churches will meet in the Big Tabernacle Tent Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, for the preaching service. Rev. Hunter will preach the sermon. Mr. Wheatley will conduct the large Chorus Choir. At the close of the preaching services, the Sunday schools will go to their respective churches to hold their Sunday school services. Be at the Big Tent on time Sunday morning. Let us make this one of the largest meetings for God next Sunday, that was ever held in O'Neill.

Bring the entire family and enjoy the services with us.
GEORGE LONGSTAFF,
J. A. HUTCHINS.
