GERMAN-RUSSIAN TREATY STRIKES GENOA LIKE BOMB

Von Wiegand Calls It Alliance In Guise of Economic Pact-Tragedy, Says France -British Flay Germans.

BY KARL H. VON WIEGAND, Special Cable Dispatch.

Genoa, April 18 .- "A German Russian alliance in the guise of an economic treaty."

That is the Easter egg the Germans and Russians laid in a hidden nest Sunday, it was discovered by the allies Monday.

This egg, laid at Santa Margherita had the effect of a bombshell on the conference, re-convening after the Easter holidays.

Sensation of Hour. That the Germans who have played a realistic role here of "scary raobits" should form an "economic treaty" with the Russians came as the greatest surprise at the conference and is the sensation of the hour. Germany joined hands with Russia ecross the fringe of the newly created border states.

It was about 7:30 in the evening when Tchitcherin for Russia and Ratheau for Germany penned their signatures to the most momentous document signed since Versailles.

The treaty is largely the work of Baron Ago Von Maltzan, chief of the Russian division of the German for-eign office and one of the cleverest and at the same time one of the most modern diplomats in the present German regime.

Principal Points In Pact.
The main points in the treaty are:
1—Mutual annulment of all pre-war debts and all war claims. 2-Russia solemnly renounces Article 116 of the Versailles treaty under which Russia could demand reparations from Germany.

3-Each contracting power guarantees the other to be the most fav-4-Germany gives full recognition to the soviet government, the two countries resuming full diplomatic relations "Treaty of Rapallo."

The document is known as the "treaty of Rapallo." The Hotel Imperial where the in strument was signed is in the city limits of Rapallo although it is actually nearer the businesse district of Santa Margherita. The treaty contains only six articles covering not quite three typewritten pages double spaced. The treaty specifically provides that if Russia grants any other nation claims for damages for property confiscated under communistic nationalization of foreign property, Russia shall grant similar claims to Germany.

Shortly before noon Monday the concluding of the signing of the treaty created a tremendous sensation on all sides, especially the French and the little entente delegations.

The Germans formally notified the general secretary of the conference that the pact with the Russians had been signed and advised the inter-allied powers of its contents.

Italians Not Alarmed. A hasty exchange of views was ef-fected Monday between the British,

French and Italians and each delegation will hold a special meeting Monday night to determine its attitude The Italians said that their interests will not be affected unfavorably. France, on the other hand, takes the treaty almost as a tragedy.

The British accuse the Germans of betraying England, their best friend. French May Quit Parley.

The French are assuming a threat-ening attitude and Genoa has suddenly been transformed from a peace to a belligerent camp. The French are seriously considering quitting the conference.

Lloyd George was sitting in his villa talking to members of his party when German attaches of the Berlin delegation arrived and placed the treaty in his hands.

Lloyd George "Blows Up."

The premier of England "blew up" and sent word back to the Germans that they drafted the treaty behind conference's back. He charged the Germans with disloyalty and bad faith.

"The treaty created much sensation in our camp," said one member of the French mission. "We knew that ne-gotiations for such a pact had been going on in Berlin, but this is not a joyful Easter message to us. It was devilishly clear, too. You wouldn't suspect Germans being capable of this especially clever clause which says that if the allies get anything out of Russia for foreign property confis-cated Germany will enjoy the same benefit. That means if we succeed in forcing Russia to pay anything, Germany gets the benefit.

"France will be the subject of odium if we do not get anything while Germany gets praise and credit for broad mindedness in cancelling debts without trying to meet any. Devilishly clever, I say."

The Germans are trying hard to minimize the importance of the historic trend of the conference.

As the sensation of the agreement grew, their efforts increased in that direction, explaining that the pact was merely a trade agreement.

Husband Declares Immigration Bureau Tried to Keey "Butcher" Out but Was Kep From Having Its Way.

New York, April 18 .- Gen. Gregorie Semenoff cannot be tried in the federal or state courts here or in the American army military courts for murders committed in Siberia.

This was the decision tele-graphed Monday night to Sen-ator Borah at Washington by Federal District Attorney Hayward. Semenoff, however, remains in Ludlow street jail and will continue to stay there until he raises $25,000 bail or the suit of the trading company which charged him with seizure of its goods in Siberia is dismissed. While the former ataman of the Russian Cossacks is being made the target of a verbal bombardment in Washington he is being made a target of a physical bombardment here.

BY JAMES R. NOURSE,

Washington, Apul 18.-Responsibil ity for the admission of Gen. Gregoria Semenoff, Cassack leader, into the United States was laid at the door of the state department and a special board of immigration officials at Vancouver in testimony given Monday before the Senate committee on education and labor.

W. W. Husband, commissioner gen eral of immigration testified that the immigration bureau used all the influence at its command to keep Semenoff out of the country because of his reign of butchery in Siberia and his shooting of American soldiers Reports of army officers and protests of the American Legion against Semenoff's entry were placed before the special board and efforts also were made to have the case transferred t Washington for decision.

But State Department Interfered

The state department, however, in terferred and after having obtained Vice Consul Rider at Vancouze, to vise Semenoff's passport, it demanded a reopening of the case after the special board had once decided against Semenoff's entry. On these hearings being held at the state department's order, Semenoff was admitted.

Commissioner Husband said his Eureau was powerless to prevent Semenoff's entry after the case was reopened and the board decided to admit him. He pointed out that the additional evidence submitted at the second hearing was that of two former Canadian army officers, who gave Semenoff a clean bill of health and declared he was not responsible for the killing of American soldier and Russian peasants.

"On Way to Paris"-Semenoff. Semenoff, in his own statement to the board at Vancouver declared his purpose in coming to the United States was "to pass through on his way to Paris to attempt to raise funds for a counter revolution in Russia. He planned to see Grand Duke Nich olas and other Russian monarchist Blamed for 30,000 Deaths Year. The investigation by American of ilcers disclosed that Semenoff was responsible for the deaths of at leas 30,000 persons in one year, most of them having been Russian peasants who would not submit to his rule in Siberia. The holding up of supply trains, attempts to take American rifles from the trains and the firing upon American soldiers were all related in the protest.

It was pointed out in the report Commissioner Husband said Semenoff at one time attempted to set up a rival government in opposition to that of Kolchalk, and that he could not have kept himself in power without the aid of Japanese troops. Semenoff was constantly under Japanese protection, the witness said.

"Semenoff Not Legally Married." Semenoff arrived at Vancouver on the steamship Empress of Russia, under the name of "H. Victorni" accompanied by the woman claiming to be his wife, now with him in New York. The bureau forwarded affidavits to Vancouver from the first Mme Sem enoff, then in Shanghai, asserting that Semenoff was never divorced and not legally married the second time.

Colonel Warden admitted before the board that Semenoff "shot one or two persons every morning," and did no feel the day was properly begun un less someone was executed. He also declared that "the trouble was that Semenoff was in league with the Japs, and all the other allies hated the Japa worse than poison; he had the idea the Japanese would help him to be come dictator of Siberia, but the Japa fooled him."
Semenoff was questioned sharply by the special board about his divorce and marriage, his testimony differing materially from that given by his wife. He said that he met his present wife in Chita, while she was visiting her mother and aunt, that she was not working there, and that the marriage took place at 6 in the evening. Her testimony to the board was that she had no relatives in Chita that she was employed in the office of the general staff, and that the wedding was at 8 in the evening.

WOMEN THROWING UFF YOKE

Emancipation of the Sex Has Been Making Rapid Strides Throughout Falestine.

The emancipation of women in Palestine is taking place very rapidly. Women were not very seriously regarded heretofore. They were looked upon as a bit of chattel to be given little more regard than a dog or a cat about the house. They were bought and sold to the whims of the lord and master of the domestic establishments. They dared not leave the premises without special permission of the "husband." They were not even given any work to do, but of recent years a change has come over the scene and the women under the impetus of some greater freedom have developed into able artisans.

An exhibition of the work of the women of the country was held recently at Halfa and the results were greater than were hoped for by the most ardent supporters of the enterprise. There were many beautiful specimens of pottery, weaving, embroidery and other domestic accomplishments. Women have demanded and are receiving equality in the home and are entering into a line of activities from which they have been heretofore barred.

"Why is it," asked the inquisitive citizen, "that after a man rises to great eminence he has an air of weariness?" "I've never been able to find out," said Mr. Gadspur, "whether that is due to the exertion of having risen to a great eminence or the fact that after a man gets up in the world everybody he meets makes him tired."-Birming ham Age-Herald.

It Was Embarrassing.

A handsome and wealthy young man from the East, visiting in the small town where my aunt lived as a girl, seemed interested in her and she was doing her best to outshine the other girls of the town.

With her hair done up in curlers and her stylish instep length skirt draped carefully to one side, she lay resting in the outdoor hammock one quiet summer day. Suddenly startled by the creaking of the gate and the unexpected appearance of the city lad, she overturned the hammock, which became wrapped about her knees and held her long legs straight up in the air. The young man, gallantly enough, rushed to her rescue; but she never saw him again,-Chicago Tribune.

The Woman was week-ending at the suburban home of the Young Matron. Six or eight friends were having dinner with the couple.

For some months the proud bridegroom had been singing the praises of the Young Matron's experiences in the culinary art, particularly her plemaking ability.

The Boy Who Started to Town With a Hundred Dollars

The advice they gave him for getting on in the world was simple and familiar enough: "Keep what you have, and build on it. Be careful what you do and it will grow into more."

It's a safe rule—with money or health, but a good many overlook the rule with health, until they have lost what they had. Then it's hard to get a new supply.

Postum is a splendid help in saving health from the very common losses through the drug elements of tea and coffee-whose effects on the nervous system any doctor can tell you.

Thousands of people who think it wise to be as careful of their health as they are of their dollars are users of Postum. They find this famous cereal beverage a delightful drink with any meal, and it's free from any disturbing element.

You can begin with Postum today, with an order to your grocer. The road to health is a good road for anybody to follow. "Save what you have, and build on it," is sound policy for everybody.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.
