

"Faster, Jimmy, faster!
You know mother said
there won't be any breakfast till we bring the Kellogg's Corn Flakes!"

Compare flavor and crispness! KELLOGG'S against any Corn Flakes you ever ate!

Takes the rough edges off hopping out of the covers these snappy mornings just thinking about that lusty bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes waiting down-stairs! Big and brown and crispy-crunchy flakes—a revelation in appetizing flavor, wonderful in wholesome goodness—the most delicious cereal you ever tasted!

Instantly you like Kellogg's, not only because of appealing flavor, but because Kellogg's are not "leathery"! Kellogg's are a delight to eat, as the little folks as well as the big ones will tell you! And Kellogg's ought to be best—they're the original Corn Flakes! You have only to make comparison to quickly realize how perfect they are!

KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes for tomorrow morning's spread! They got the day started right! Insist upon KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—the kind that are not leathery!

WM. J. McKIM.

(Clearwater Record.)

Wm. J. McKim was born at River Falls, Wis., October 5, 1871, and died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Anna Pattee in Clearwater, April 18, 1922, aged 50 years, 6 months and 13 days. In 1877, when a boy he moved with his parents to Layfayette, Ind., then later in the year 1881, they again started westward, stopping in Antelope county, where his father located a homestead in Frenchtown township, three miles west of Clearwater. The same is now owned by Nick Goscha. They resided on this claim for a good many years and Bill as he was familiarly called by his friends, got his education in the district school of that locality. In the year 1905, he decided to take a Kinkaid homestead, so along with Posey and Jack McKim they filed on three sections in the sand hills south of Inman, where he resided for six years; he then proved up on his claim and traded same for farm land near Opportunity, Nebraska, twenty miles northeast of O'Neill, where he resided the most of his time up to his demise. Two months ago he took sick and came down here to stay with his sister in order to be closer to a doctor and have some care and attention in his failing health. His malady which was caused from the after effects of the flu, didn't seem to respond to treatment; his blood got thinner and his heart got weaker until finally it failed to pulse and Bill had passed to his last reward, easy, no pain, just like he had lived quiet, inoffensive, no trouble, any thing would do for Bill, being his motto, but while there was no outward display he was a man among men, always standing for the betterment and broadening of mankind; unselfish to a fault, ever ready to lend a helping hand to the weary and downtrodden. He was a man of few words, but large deeds and many of his acts of kindness are hid under the proverbial bushel. He has filled his place and filled it well, what more can be said in honor of any man. He was never married, but leaves to mourn his loss, four brothers and one sister, James, of Oakdale; Levi, of Canada; Posey and Jack, of Opportunity, and Mrs. Anna Pattee of this city. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the hall, Rev. Bennett of the M. E. church preaching a short, touching and interesting sermon. Interment was made in the cemetery north of town.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

It is quite windy this week. Zola Synder's school has closed for this year. P. A. Grass made a business trip to O'Neill last Monday. Mrs. C. A. Grass is suffering with an abscess on her face. Miss Fay Smith, of Page, visited the Pleasant Valley school last Wednesday. Mrs. Ray Asher returned last week from a three weeks' visit with her sister at Norfolk. The Pleasant Valley school was dismissed last Thursday on account of the teachers' meeting at Ewing. Mrs. Cora Hamilton, of O'Neill, spent the first of the week with C. A. Grass and family in Pleasant Valley. George Kohler is improving his place by building a large front porch, on to the house. Aden Riggs, of Page, is building it. The Hayne school closed last Thursday. Miss Opal Boggs gave a very enjoyable picnic. Luncheon was served at one o'clock. A fire broke out last Friday between the Charlie Grass farm and the Strube place, burning over about one hundred and sixty acres of land. The fire ended one mile south. The fire is supposed to have started from a cigarette stub being thrown out by some one passing.

Will the boy who picked up the wrist watch at the curb at the cigar store, return it to Irene O'Donnell and receive reward. 47-1

WITHOUT STREET ADDRESS YOUR MAIL IS DELAYED AT OFFICE OF DELIVERY

The Dead Letter Office has been in existence ever since Ben Franklin started our postal service. Even then people addressed mail to Mr. Ezekiel Smithers, "Atlantic Coast," and expected Ben to know just where Zeke lived.

Perhaps they had Zeke's address in letters up in the garret, maybe a chest full of 'em, but then it was easier to let Ben hunt Zeke. Today people are addressing letters to John Smith, New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Ill., thinking Uncle Sam can locate him, which is just as incomplete as was Zeke's address of yore. The Postoffice Department asks you to put the number and street in the address. It helps you.

Trinidad Col.

How do you expect the Postal Clerk to know whether you mean Trinidad, California, or Trinidad, Colorado? ALWAYS SPELL OUT THE NAME OF THE STATE IN FULL IN THE ADDRESS.

"MORE BUSINESS IN GOVERNMENT"

This apt phrase was used in President Harding's first message to Congress and applies particularly in postal management where postmasters are being impressed with the fact that they are managers of local branches of the biggest business in the world.

HERE COMES A STRANGER!

Let's make our post office look neat, Mr. Postmaster. Straighten up the rural letter box, Mr. Farmer. Tidy up some, Mr. Rural Carrier. First impressions are lasting. Maybe Mr. Stranger, taking notice of these improvements, will come back, bringing you benefits. Start these with "POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK" May 1-6.

HUMANIZING THE POSTAL SERVICE

"There is no unimportant person or part of our service. It is a total of human units and their co-operation is the key to its success. In its last analysis, postal duties are accommodations performed for our neighbors and friends and should be so regarded, rather than as a hired service performed for an absentee employer."—Postmaster General Hubert Work.

NEVER LINCOLN'S REAL LOVE

His Marriage With Mary Todd Seems to Have Been Largely Matter of Convenience.

Mary Todd, wife of Abraham Lincoln, was the sort of woman who is described as "capable and upright." Lincoln, it is testified by biographers, was not deeply in love with Mary, either before or after their marriage. As a matter of fact, his heart was buried in the grave of his first love, and he had proposed marriage to a second and unwilling young woman. By the time he married Mary Todd, who was neither beautiful nor gracious, he had come to regard marriage as a necessity rather than as the ultimate result of love and romance.

Their courtship was long and suffered many bumps and separations before it culminated in marriage. When Lincoln first met Miss Todd she was only sixteen years old and was being courted by Stephen Douglas, the great man's rival in many things.

Lincoln had suggested in a rather offhand way that he would marry her. Apparently regret set in rather soon, for he made several attempts to gracefully withdraw from the compact. But Mary, with prophetic vision, had an idea that he would one day reach the White House and she was determined to be its mistress.

"Kidnap" Camera.

When you inquire about the big camera the station photographer uses in taking the 1 1/4-inch square photographs for the 50-trip family ticket he says, "Oh, it is a special one we invented years ago for kidnaping."

"How do you 'number them?'" "It is a six-exposure plate, and each of these spaces on the sheet of paper corresponds to one on the plate. Each plate is numbered. We used to use this camera for kidnaping."

Then you swallow your pride and ask boldly:

"What do you mean—kidnaping?"

He laughs kindly at your ignorance.

"Why, you know," he says, "we take our camera and go out on the street and see a little boy and take his picture. We get his name and address. By and by, after we develop the picture, we go around to his home and show it to his mother. If she likes the picture, she buys one. That's kidnaping."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

PAGE SCHOOL NOTES.

The program of the school given at the opera house Friday evening, April 21st, was well attended and was very good. The songs, plays and dialogues were much liked. The "Boys from Dixie" were especially popular. The amount of money taken in was $48.40. "Pep and Ginger."—The students of the High School are divided into two teams this week. The leader of the Pep team is Elyda Kennedy, of the Ginger team, Velna Clark. The purpose is to see which side can get more subscriptions for a certain publication. The losing side is to give the other side a party. Half the amount taken in is to go to the High School to be used for athletic equipment. The school is kept informed of the standing of the sides by two thermometers drawn on the board. They now register 20 to 30 in favor of the Ginger team.

Mr. Lord, the representative of the publication, who introduced the plan on Monday, gave us an interesting sales demonstration, in the afternoon.

PAGE CHURCH NOTES.

The Ladies Aid meets with Mrs. Geo. French Thursday afternoon.

The services last Sunday were well attended in spite of misty weather and the threatening rain.

The W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. Kightlinger Wednesday afternoon. There will be a special Mothers' Meeting program.

A number of delegates from Page are planning to attend the Norfolk District Conference Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Following the Easter program was the baptismal services and receiving of members into the church. There were thirteen baptised including infants and children, and five joined the church.

The young folks of Page gathered at the church Tuesday evening of last week and were taken in cars to O'Neill to attend the big tent meeting. All enjoyed the inspiration of the spiritual atmosphere.

There were fifteen who had the courage to rise early Easter morning and walk to a grove nearly a mile out to a League sunrise prayer-meeting. It was surely worth while, not to mention the campfire breakfast.

We now have a membership of forty-one in the League and we had an attendance of thirty-nine at our devotional meeting Sunday evening. Miss Lillian Hayne sang a solo and we had an inspiring meeting on the subject: "The Vision From the Mountain Top."

The Easter services were well attended the register showing 236 at Sunday school. The program was unusually good, each number reverberating with the spirit of the occasion. Much credit is due to the faithful work of our primary superintendent and her faithful corps of teachers and all who assisted in training the classes in their special parts.
