WU LAUNCHES DRIVE ON PORT OF TIEN TSIN

Heavy Battle Develops Along Line Flanking City, Harbor Of Peking — Attacking Forces Are Very Confident.

Special Cable Dispatch.
Pao Ting Fu, China, (Headquarters Wu Pei Fu), April 30.—A heavy battle developed Sunday along the battle line flanking the city of Tien Tsin.

Troops of Chang Tso-Lin are now in possession of the city and their lines extend 15 miles south of the Peking-Tien Tsin road. This city, the port of Peking, is one of the principal objectives of Wu Pei Fu, whose forces are attacking.

Reports from Tien Tsin say that the city is apprehensive of looting if Chang's forces are defeated.

Christians Among Soldiers.
Wu Pei Fu has been reinforced by 35,000 men under Peng Yu Siang, famous Christian general. This force includes 10,000 Christian soldiers, who were converted during the Boxer uprising because of the courage exhibited by American martyrs of those stirring days. They are picked veterans and their arrival has had an excellent effect on the forces of General Wu.

Handley-Page airplanes have arrived here preparatory to launching an air attack on the forces of Chang. Wu Very Optimistic.

General Wu exhibits the greatest confidence in the success of his cause. "We will surround Peking and Tien Tsin, secure control of the roads and cut the war within a week," he declared Sunday after receiving reports from the front.

AIRPLANES VICTORIOUS OVER 9 BATTLESHIPS

Shanghai, May 1.—Bombing planes defeated nine gunboats in a battle at Canton, according to dispatches from that city received here Saturday.

Three planes of the Canton government attacked nine warships in the Pearl river when the crews were suspected of being sympathetic with the Peking government.

A direct hit was scored on the river cruiser Haichi. The bomb killed 20 sailors and wounded 30 and put the vessel out of action. The others surrendered.

First In History.
This was the first battle in history between air and water fleets.

According to the dispatches, nine warships were lying in the river when agents of President Sun Yat Sen were sent to ask the commanders to pledge neutrality during Sun Yat Sen's expedition against Peking.

The fleet commanders refused to pledge neutrality and the Canton government thereupon demanded that the squadron be surrendered.

This was refused and the gunboats cleared for action, evidently preparing to bombard Canton.

Three Planes Appear.
Suddenly three bombing planes zoomed into view over the vessels and commenced dropping explosives. All of the bombs landed in the river except the one which hit the Haichi.

This burst with a terrific explosion, the dispatches said, partially wrecking the boat, dismounting its guns and scattering its decks with dead and maimed. Bits of debris showered over the other eight gunboats.

The war vessels were helpless against the aircraft, their guns being useless for high angle fire. As the air fleet pivoted and returned to the attack, surrender signals were hoisted by the whole fleet.

These gunboats were the last of the Peking government's navy.

GOMPERS OPPOSES RECOGNIZING REDS

Says Recognition by U. S. Would Be Betrayal of Civilization.

Chicago, May 1.—Recognition of Russia by the United States would be a "betrayal of civilization" Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, said in a statement Sunday. The statement was issued just before Mr. Gompers left for New York. He had come to Chicago to address a labor mass meeting Saturday.

Mr. Gompers charged that propaganda was being spread by the communists in America and that the recent steel strike was an effort on the part of radical leaders to turn American labor over to the red international.

"I can think of nothing that would be more fraught with distress to humanity than American recognition of the bolshevik power in any form," he said. Mr. Gompers charged there was an international conspiracy of banking interests to "loot Russia through securing concessions from the bolshevik."

"Russia herself is on the bargain counter behind which stands Lenin as a bandit merchant, to take what he can get and what will serve his purpose in exchange for the heritage of the people rendered helpless by him," Mr. Gompers said.

COTTON CONSUMPTION EXCEEDS PRODUCTION

Universal Service.
Washington, May 1.—World consumption of cotton during the year ending July 31 next will have been 21,000,000 bales, or 6,000,000 bales more than was produced during the crop year.

This was the outstanding fact developed by a world survey just completed by the department of commerce through its domestic and foreign staff.

FAMOUS PIANIST'S MOTHER IS PICKED UP DEAD IN N. Y.

Rose Grainger, Rated Millionaire, Falls or Jumps from 18th Floor, Body Found on 11th Story Roof.

New York, May 1.—Mrs. Rose Grainger, mother of Percy Grainger, the famous Australian pianist, was killed Sunday in a plunge from the eighteenth floor of the Aeolian building.

Whether she jumped or fell from a window in the office of Mrs. Antonia Sawyer, manager of the pianist, has not been definitely determined. At first the police recorded the death as "suicide," but later changed it to read "either fell or jumped."

Her son has been notified in Los Angeles, where he is on a western concert tour. Mrs. Grainger is said to have been worth a million dollars. She has been complaining of ill health recently.

Complained of Illness.
Mrs. Grainger, who came to America two years ago, has been residing at White Plains. She telephoned to Mrs. Sawyer, who was her best friend, on Saturday night, saying she was suffering from pains in her side and a headache. Mrs. Sawyer suggested an automobile ride to New York Sunday and called for her Sunday morning.

On the way to the city she complained again of being ill. Mrs. Sawyer suggested that they go to her office where there is a cot. Arriving at the office Mrs. Grainger asked her friend to get some bicarbonate of soda, saying she believed it would relieve her. Mrs. Sawyer went to a drug store, leaving the pianist's mother alone. When she returned 15 minutes later her office door was locked. After she had opened it she found Mrs. Grainger was missing. One window was open. She looked from it and saw the body of her friend on the roof of an 11-story building adjoining.

Notified Elevator Man.
She notified the elevator man who called the police. When the officers arrived they called an ambulance and a physician but the woman was dead before assistance reached her. Her skull had been fractured and she was injured internally. The roof on which she fell was broken by the force of the fall.

Mrs. Sawyer says she is positive her friend did not leap from the window intentionally. She is of the opinion that she was leaning out for air and became dizzy or fainted and tumbled over the sill.

Percy Grainger came to America in 1915 and made his New York debut in the same building from which his mother plunged. He enjoyed his piano playing for two years and joined the army when this country entered the war.

ROB 30 CLUBMEN OF COIN AND JEWELS

Seven Bandits Escape from Chicago Gambling House With $10,000 in Cash And Jewels.

Chicago, May 1.—A gambling resort, where there is no limit, was held up Sunday by seven bandits. They escaped with $10,000 and jewels belonging to 30 well known Chicago club men and gamblers, according to the authorities.

While none of the victims complained to the police, the story of the raid was pieced together Sunday night.

Two of the bandits appeared at a secret door and gained admission. Their five confederates, masked and armed, rushed in. The house was in turmoil.

"Leave your money on the tables," commanded the bandits. "Take off those rings and band over those stick pins."

Then the gamblers knew the raid was not being staged by the police. Two of the gamblers were injured by jumping from second story windows. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

MAY BUILD ASYLUM FOR MOONSHINE MAD

Hammond, Ind., May 1.—Moonshine liquor is taking a terrific toll in this steel mill district, which teems with foreign-born residents, according to county officials, who point out that with all state institutions for the insane filled to capacity, some place will have to be provided for the county's "white mule" insane.

Insanity, due to the effects of moonshine, has increased so alarmingly that officials are considering seriously the advisability of erecting a county insane asylum. One hundred and sixty-eight victims of illicit liquor are now being held at the county jail and at the poor farm, where it is impossible, because of the crowded conditions, to give proper medical treatment for moonshine madness.

The prince will be graduated from the military college at that time and will be given seats in the supreme council and the House of Peers.

HARDIN PUT BACK ON HIS FEET TWICE

Was Relieved of Both Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble by Tanlac, States Los Angeles Man.

"For the second time Tanlac has put me on my feet, and you may know by that what I think of it," said William T. Hardin, 1409 Garden St., Los Angeles, Calif.

"Three years ago, I had rheumatism in my shoulders and neck so bad I could hardly work. I tried medicine after medicine only to get worse, but finally I got hold of Tanlac, and I haven't had a trace of rheumatism since."

"Then last summer my stomach got out of order, I lost my appetite and what little I did eat made me feel bloated, all stuffed up and miserable. I always felt weak, tired and worn out, and was so nervous I couldn't sleep."

"Well, Tanlac did a good job for me before, so I just got some more of it, and now it has again fixed me up, and I'm feeling strong and energetic like I used to. I'll tell the world Tanlac's the medicine for me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

ONLY KIND THAT PATTY KNEW

Unfortunate That Grandma's Nickname Came Into Her Head at Precisely That Moment.

Patty's grandmother was one of those modern, wideawake citizens who take an active part in everything civic. She was chairman of her suffrage district and attended women's conventions throughout the county.

Her family called her "Our Politician" to tease her and three-year-old Patty would listen round-eyed and wonder why grandmother was so cross with them.

One day grandmother was entertaining a group of her friends by exhibiting Patty.

"Tell about Red Riding Hood," begged grandmother innocently.

Patty began, "Little Red Riding Hood—went into the wood with a basket—to visit her grandmother, who—" She hesitated, waiting to be prompted with "who was sick."

"Who?"—Grandmother waited hopefully.

"Who was a politician!" finished Patty, with a sudden inspiration.—Chicago Journal.

TOURIST SEEKS MAIN STREET
First Inquiry Made by Man From Middle West on His Arrival at Washington.

Nobody can tell what a traveler is going to ask when he gets off the train at Union station.

Ask the street car superintendents who load 'em on winter and summer. Ask the men who run the sightseeing busses. Make inquiry of taxicab drivers.

They will tell you that it is an ordinary happening to have a stranger ask if "that big building with the dome is the White House."

One of those funny spring days last week a traveler from the Middle West came marching forth from the station portals to bask in the infrequent sunshine which that moment was pouring down upon Washington.

There was no doubt about him being from the Middle West. It was written all over his sturdy frame, tanned face and hospitable manner. He felt at home. He had no idea that anybody might rebuff his cordiality.

"Good morning," he said.
"How are you?" I replied.
"Where is Main street?" he asked.

FROST KEEPS GRIP ON GOLD

Placers in Alaska That Are Only Thawed to a Depth of About Three Feet in Summer.

Certain Alaska gold placers lie in ground that is permanently frozen, only the surface being thawed to a depth of two or three feet in the heart of summer. In this respect they resemble the gold-bearing gravels of Siberia, and the methods of working are similar. Summer is the best time to prospect for new leads, but excavation of the gravel from shafts and tunnels can be as well carried on in winter. The ground at the end of a shaft is softened by a fire of wood and then attacked with the pick. But, instead of breaking under the blows, it mats together, and this tendency renders gunpowder and dynamite comparatively ineffective in dealing with the frozen mass. With any less powerful incentive than the gleam of gold to spur on his human antagonist the frost king would doubtless win an easy victory in so desperate a conflict.

At What Age Should You Take Needless Risks With Your Health?

Is that a queer question? Then many people are doing a queer thing—and often it turns out to be a serious thing.

The Federal Bureau of Education says in its rules for the health of school children that children should not drink coffee or tea.

This rule is based on the well-known fact that the drug element in coffee and tea whips up the nerves, and that serious ills often follow.

If it's a good rule for children to keep away from the harm of nerve-stimulation, isn't it a good rule for everybody?

Think it over. Granted that your body may stand more, can your judgment afford to risk more? Any doctor can tell you what coffee and tea often do to the health of adults as well as children.

There's no sacrifice in being safe. Postum is a delightful, satisfying mealtime beverage, wholesome and pleasant alike for adults and children. Postum has no age limits!

Your grocer has both forms of Postum Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for fully 20 minutes.
