GOLF TOURNAMENT MAY 28, 29, 30 AND 31

The O'Neill Country Club will hold a tournament for all amateur golfers on their course, beginning Sunday, May 28th, and continuing until the evening of Wednesday, May 31st.

The club proposes to make this the big event in golf circles in this part of the country.

The committee on arrangements are W. H. Hartly, Dr. L. A. Carter, J. P. Golden, Edw. Gallagher, and F. J. Biglin.

The preliminary work completed and everything will be in readiness long before the tournament opens.

A large number of players are expected here from Norfolk, Neligh, Hartington, Wayne, Stuart, Atkinson, Inman, Chadron, Bassett and Ainsworth.

The banquet and dance will be held on Monday evening, May 29th.

CHECKER TALK.

The members of the checker club are arranging an exhibition game, wherein W. W. Leighton, the checker wonder from Minnesota will play eight games at one time.

The Orchard checker players went to Neligh last week one day where they met the Albion players.

The Albion disk pushers cleaned up the Orchard fellows in jig time, and seemed to show no mercy upon them.

The O'Neill bunch are now planning on going to Albion and winning the championship of Boone county also.

The local players have hesitated to take on the southeasterners until after their match with Orchard but now that they have a line on their game they have no hesitancy to meet them in a match soon.

O'NEILL NOW CLAIMS THE CHAMPION CHECKER PLAYER. The events of the past few days have placed O'Neill at the top of checkerdom in this part of the world.

A series of eight games was played at the rooms of the local checker club last night between Inspector of Schools A. M. Voss, who is the champion checker player of the state, and W. W. Leighton, the recognized champion of Minnesota.

Voss won three games, Leighton won one game and the other four were draws.

After the series between Voss and Leighton, L. C. Chapman took Voss on and won all games played. This gives Chapman the title without a struggle.

If Chapman can be induced to play the Iowa and South Dakota experts, the title of the central states will be located in O'Neill this summer.
