

A supreme tempter for appetites of big and little folks

"Lissen, you Herbie, you let go of those Kellogg's Corn Flakes or you'll be late for school—and I won't wait for you another minute!"

Put it right up to Kellogg's Corn Flakes to do a master job sharpening breakfast appetites! And, they'll repeat at lunch and supper—for Kellogg's are irresistible in goodness! Kellogg's win every one because their flavor is delicious and because their crunchy crispness is unailing! You'll prove that!

Such a cereal you never ate before! You'll say Kellogg's are a revelation—and they will be, in particular, to any one who has eaten imitation corn flakes! Kellogg's are as distinctive in flavor as they are in crispness. And, Kellogg's are never tough or leathery! Start eating Kellogg's Corn Flakes tomorrow morning! You can't afford to miss such happiness as Kellogg's hand out to young and old alike!

But—please be sure you get KELLOGG'S, the delicious Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package. Look for the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

HAZEL BETHEA WINZENREID

(Ewing Advocate.)
Hazel Louise Bethea was born at Ewing, Nebraska, January 17, 1892, and died at Hastings, Nebraska, on May 1, 1922.

Hazel was the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bethea, of this city, and grew to womanhood in this community.

She was married to Harry Winzenreid at Norfolk, on July 24, 1921, and shortly after moved with her husband to Hastings, Nebraska, where she lived until the time of her death.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist Episcopal church in Ewing on Thursday afternoon, May 4th, Rev. Philley and Rev. Porter, officiating. Interment was made in the Ewing cemetery, the Eastern Star lodge, of which she deceased was a member having charge of the burial service at the grave.

Beside a grief stricken husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bethea, of Ewing; five sisters and one brother, as follows:

Madeline Bethea, of Ewing, Frank and Eunice Bethea, of Lincoln; Mrs. Florence Whittemore, of Elgin; Mrs. Ida Jillson and Miss Aillean Bethea, of California.

The profusion of flowers betokens in a small way the high esteem in which Hazel was held by her friends, who are numbered only by her acquaintances.

MILLARD FILLMORE ROBERTS.
(Stuart Advocate.)
Millard Fillmore Roberts was born

February 22, 1854, at Louisville, Kentucky. When he was six months old, his parents moved to Leavenworth, Kansas. Living at Leavenworth and Olathe, he grew to manhood. From Olathe he moved to Washington county, Kansas, where he was married to Miss Ophelia Thompson.

To them four sons, Leonard, Lester, Clyde and Harry were born.

After spending twenty years of their married life in Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and children, moved to Holt county, Nebraska, living here thirteen years, until the time of his death. Most of that time was spent on their farm three miles west of Stuart.

Following an illness of about three months, nearly all of which time he was confined to his bed, Mr. Roberts died at his home in Stuart, about 9:20 Friday night, April 29, 1922, at the age of sixty-eight years, two months and seven days, his wife and children being with him unto the last.

Those left to mourn his death are Mrs. M. F. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts, their youngest son, Harry, having passed away in 1918.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. H. H. Bees, were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the Stuart cemetery.

TAXPAYERS MEETING.

The Court House was pretty well filled with tax-payers from all parts of the county last Saturday at the regular meeting of the Tax-Payers League.

S. O. Campbell, of Page, was re-elected as chairman and Willis Barker of O'Neill as vice-chairman. John A. Robertson, of Joy, was re-elected as secretary and treasurer and an executive committee of one person from each voting precinct in the county was appointed. The Constitution and By-Laws as adopted was read and liberally signed.

A committee consisting of Willis Barker, Martin Conway, and John Sullivan was appointed to confer with the committee that has been appointed by the Farm Bureau for the purpose of investigating the question of taxation.

Mr. Golden made a very interesting talk and quoted figures from the tax lists showing that taxes had increased in every precinct in the county from 100 to 900 per cent.

The next meeting will be held in Stuart Saturday, May 20th, at 2 p. m.

O'NEILL WOMAN'S CLUB.

The O'Neill Woman's club wishes to take this means of expressing appreciation for the kindness, courtesy and willing cooperation during the convention. To the committees who worked so loyally to make the meetings a success, to those who contributed their talent to the programs, to those who so kindly opened up their homes and lent their cars for the entertainment of the visitors during that time, to the citizens who by their decorations made the visitors welcome, to The Frontier and Independent, who gave so much publicity to the convention and to Mrs. Evans, the Commercial club and the Knights of Columbus who furnished us with headquarters and convention hall making it possible to have the meeting, we give sincere thanks.

There will be three more meetings of the Club this year. On Wednesday, May 17, the Home Economics will have their last program. On Friday, May 19, the Music Department will meet, and on May 24th the business session closing up the year's work and installing the new officers. Make your suggestions now for next year programs.

PAGE ITEMS.

About 250 people were present at the two performances of the comedy, "The Spoilers' Den," given by the senior class of the Page High School in the local hall last Friday and Saturday evenings. The play moved along with considerable snap from start to finish, the interest never lagging for a moment. The seniors are to be commended for the perfection of their technique and for the spirit with which they entered their parts. Elton Trowbridge, who played the part of Lorenzo Gates, the young millionaire, handled the many humorous situations in a very realistic manner. Mary Louise French, as Amy Hatfield, the "Culture Enthusiast," eager to improve her position in society at all costs, left one in doubt as to whether she was only acting or whether she really meant it. Edna Hubbard and Elsa Weber, who took the parts of Nell Frick, "The Manager of the House," and Emma Oliver, "The Victim," were as serious and effective as those characters might have been in real life. Addie Miller distinguished herself in the role of Hazel Duck, the tomboy, adding not a little to keeping the movement lively. The effect of the play was considerably enhanced by the singing of Velna Clark, a member of the junior class, who also sang special songs between the acts.

The plot of "The Spoilers' Den" supposes a small city by the name of Wister, where the four girls are conducting a millinery business. This somehow fails to make possible for them the kind of life they would like to know, and, as the curtain raises to reveal the sitting room of their flat one Saturday evening in summer, the girls manifest a considerable degree of dissatisfaction. The announcement that they are to receive a call from Lorenzo Gates, the fourth cousin of one of the girls, and a millionaire, starts the action at a rapid pace. The plan of the girls is to make Emma Oliver, one of their number, win the affections of the young millionaire and thus pave the way toward the future social glory of all four. In their eagerness, however, the plan miscarries, and they all try for the prize. This leads to great confusion, which is brought to a happy issue only after the girls have gone through the bitterness of confession and suspense. Lorenzo saves the day by suggesting a new partnership, in which the business will have the benefit of his capital and the social aspirations of the girls will have the range of a metropolitan city.

"The Spoilers' Den" is an original play, written especially by Prof. Leh for the present cast. Mr. Leh has been at work, planning and writing the acts, and preparing the members of the cast for their parts, ever since last fall. Writing plays is not ordinarily a part of the duties of a superintendent, and this one, Mr. Leh says, was not attempted without some misgivings. The result, however, was fully sufficient to justify the effort.

The Young Married People's New Movement Class, of Page, completed its membership contest last Sunday. There was a record attendance of 44. The total membership of the class is now 66. Of these, 17 have been added since the contest began. Mrs. DeLancey is the leader of the winning team. The losing team, of which Mrs. Bernholtz is the leader, will give a banquet to the other side in the church basement on Thursday evening. The Page Sunday school, which has been growing steadily for some time, has broken all records for some Sundays past. Last Sunday's attendance was 235, almost double the attendance of a year ago.
