

Free Luncheon

At Grady's Saturday

PURITAN
BACON
SANDWICHES

Cash Paid For Eggs

BARRINGTON
HALL
COFFEE

Ben Grady, Grocer

We Sell SKINNERS The Highest Grade Macaroni Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Products

PHONES 68-126

Charles Pettijohn was down from his Stuart ranch last Saturday visiting with his wife and friends.

A marriage license was issued on May 22nd to Fritz Welw, of Newport, and Johanna F. Ackermann, of Stuart.

Miss Geneva Alderman and Miss Genevieve Gallagher, of Newport, were visiting with O'Neill friends last Saturday.

Judge Robert R. Dickson and Reporter C. B. Scott went to Bassett Monday night where they will hold court this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Harrington, of Dallas, South Dakota, are the proud parents of a little daughter born to them on May 7th.

W. S. Grimes, of Chambers, was an O'Neill visitor Wednesday. He reports a good rain at Chambers Sunday night and Monday morning.

Mrs. W. J. Biglin and the twins, Ruth Ann and Rose Mary, went to Jackson last Saturday for a month's visit with her parents.

Neligh Register: Martin Cronin, the movie picture magnate of O'Neill, was in town a few hours yesterday renewing old acquaintances.

Miss Mary McLaughlin, the efficient librarian of the O'Neill public library, spent several days last week at the P. J. Judge home in Atkinson.

Rev. J. A. Hutchins returned Saturday night from Sunoll, Nebraska, where he delivered an address to the commencement class of that village.

The farm residence of D. M. Armstrong, in the northwest part of the county, was destroyed by fire Wednesday evening of last week. The fire is supposed to have started from an incubator.

Irene Gole entertained at a theatre party followed by refreshments at her home last Monday evening.

Miss Genevieve Biglin went down to Sioux City last Thursday to attend the Senior-Junior banquet of the student nurses at St. Vincent hospital.

A. Y. Craig went to Tilden Monday for a visit with his daughter, Miss Ida, who has just recently submitted to an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

Miss Ruth VanValkenburg, of Inman, spent several days during the past week at the home of Miss Mildred Malone. She returned home Wednesday.

Miss Lila Walmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walmer, former residents of O'Neill, is a member of the graduation class of the Orchard high school this year.

The business men of Inman have organized for the promotion of a chautauqua this year. Arrangements are already being made for a big time during the five days.

The big crow hunt up at Stuart on the 14th inst, resulted disastrously for the crows. The extermination association report that about 1,500 crows and eggs were destroyed.

Butte Gazette: Earl David Stearns and Miss Nellie Sessie Rossman, both of Catalpa postoffice, Holt county, came over Tuesday, and were married by Judge Ford at his office.

The prospects for a large fruit crop this year are the best that the county has known for years. The cherry trees were loaded with bloom as was also the apple trees and other small fruit.

Mrs. Joe Smith and baby spent Sunday with friends in Atkinson.

Mrs. D. L. Hendrick returned to her home near Bassett Sunday afternoon. The Block 18 club were entertained at the H. J. Hammond home last Friday evening.

Mrs. C. J. Malone has been enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Hancock, of Inman, a few days this week.

Miss Mae and Miss Grace Hammond entertained the Martez club last Monday evening. Miss Ida Chapman won the honors at bridge.

The county board has been in session yesterday and today transacting the regular routine business. They expect to adjourn this evening.

Father Cassidy and Miss Mary Cullen are entertaining the members of the Junior choir of St. Patrick's church at a picnic today in Brennan's park.

Miss Gladys Miles is expected home this evening from Bladen, Nebraska, where she has been teaching home economics in the public schools for the past two years.

According to the weather reports, almost the entire state received a good rain the first of the week except O'Neill. Several Iowa towns also report good rains.

Martin Cronin, proprietor of the Norfolk Poster Advertising Service in O'Neill, has erected a double panel on the vacant lots north of Hagensick's blacksmith shop.

Homer L. Nye has tendered his resignation as county agent to take effect July 1st. The Farm Bureau board have taken no action in the matter of appointing his successor at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lancaster and two children, of Havelock, Nebraska, arrived here last Tuesday for a week or ten days visit at the home of the former's brother, F. H. Lancaster and family.

About twelve of the friends of Mrs. Susie Sparks gave her a surprise party last evening at her home in the west part of O'Neill, the occasion was the celebration of her birthday anniversary.

Postmaster McCarthy received notice yesterday that he afternoon train east, No. 8, which leaves O'Neill at 2:05, will carry pouch mail every day except Saturdays and Sundays for distribution at points east of Norfolk.

Miss Sarah and Miss Clarissa Simons are visiting with their sisters, Mrs. Devine and Mrs. Anderson, at North Bend, Nebraska, this week. Miss Sarah is taking a two weeks' vacation from her duties at the telephone office.

Neligh is becoming quite metropolitan. The houses are being numbered this week under the authority of the Neligh Chamber of Commerce. The foot ball team are doing the work and furnishing the numbers for 25c per house.

The O'Neill and Paddock base ball teams met at the O'Neill ball park last Sunday afternoon. The Paddock team was defeated by a score of 10 to 7. The battery for O'Neill was Graham and Carney, and for Paddock was Hansen and Borg.

Seven unusually large state trucks parked in O'Neill from Sunday evening until Monday morning. They were being returned to Lincoln from Valentine where they have been used for the past several months upon a road project near there.

Mrs. M. H. McCarthy entertained about twenty-five little boys and girls at her home last Saturday for her son Robert, who was enjoying his sixth birthday anniversary that day. Refreshments were served and the usual good time enjoyed.

C. W. Billings and family departed for their new home in Leeds, Iowa, Wednesday, Mr. Billings and son, Elmo, drove down in their car, while Mrs. Billings and her daughters, Leone, Elizabeth and Audie went down on the Burlington.

Mrs. Harry Bowen returned to Omaha last Saturday with the relatives who were visiting at her home several days last week. Master Russell Bowen went to Omaha Wednesday morning to join his mother for a visit of a few weeks' duration.

Inman Leader: Word comes from Rozet, Wyo., that during the heavy snow storm in Wyoming last week Ralph Leidy lost one horse and a cow and Roy Hoxie lost several head of stock as a result of the storm. The snow was eight feet deep.

Inman Leader: Mrs. Manus O'Donnell, of Penby, Manotoba, Canada, sister of Edw. Boyle, residing three miles northwest of Inman, arrived last week for an extended visit. Mrs. O'Donnell formerly lived in this vicinity leaving here about twenty-four years ago for Canada.

We understand that an inch of rain fell over the southwest part of the county last Monday morning. Although the weather was cloudy and threatening rain at regular intervals, during Sunday and Monday, only .06 of an inch of rain is reported by Rain Collector Bowen in O'Neill.

Father Petlach, of Dodge, Nebraska, held services in the Bohemian language at St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning. The practice of having a Bohemian priest come to O'Neill, once each year and hold services for those who are unable to fully understand the English language, has been continued for a number of years and is much appreciated and enjoyed by the old people.

The distribution of taxes levied for 1921, compiled by the Department of Finance, and taken from the footings filed with the tax commissioner, for Holt county are as follows: Valuation $34,566,608.00; State $114,069.03; County $156,297.19; School $302,377.51; City and Village $36,475.24; Townships $70,660.43; Total general $679,879.40; Poll Tax $6,530.00; Miscellaneous $2,599.43; Total $689,008.83.

W. A. Gannon was up from his ranch near Inman last Friday with a load of hogs which he sold to our hog buyers. While in the city Mr. Gannon made The Frontier a visit. He has been a constant reader of The Frontier for many years and anxiously watches for its appearance each week.

The report of the Department of Finance on the taxes for 1921, gives O'Neill as follows: Population 2,107; valuation of city $1,704,595; valuation of school district $2,188,450; school census 660; per capita city tax $8.09; school general fund $9.00; per pupil general fund school tax $29.84.

Mrs. Ed. T. Campbell entertained the Foresome at her home last Sunday evening. Mrs. J. A. Devine was the honor guest of the club. Other guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stout, Anna O'Donnell and Edw. O'Donnell. Mrs. P. B. Harty and Ben Grady won the honors at bridge.

Rev. J. A. Hutchins and son, Goodsell, drove to Winside, Nebraska, Tuesday for a short visit with Mrs. Hutchins, who is visiting there with her parents. They will go from Winside to Ponca where Goodsell will spend the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mendenhall.

Atkinson Graphic: Andrew Anderson, son of A. Anderson and brother of Hans Anderson, died at Belle Fourche, South Dakota, May 3, 1922, at the age of 23 years. The Anderson family will be remembered by many having resided here for a number of years before going to Belle Fourche.

The Senior class of the Lynch high schools were in O'Neill Saturday. They came over to get their photos taken. They were Misses Mollie Sovick, Inice Hensley, Eva Barnes, Madlen Peklo, also Earl Conklin, Dan Cavanaugh and Byron Tullis. Sponsor, Miss Benjamin. Drivers, Clifford Wolfe and Vac Sedway.

A number of travelers through the country have expressed their surprise that O'Neill does not have a tourists park. Nearly all of the towns the size of O'Neill have such parks, and they are a drawing card for these towns. Now that O'Neill is on several highways a park would no doubt cause many travelers to camp here.

Stuart Advocate: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jilison received word Sunday morning announcing the death of their son-in-law, Rev. Wilbur Smith, at Grand Island, following an illness of several weeks duration in a hospital in that city. Mr. Jilison left Monday noon for Central City, Rev. Smith's old home, where the funeral occurred Tuesday.

James F. O'Donnell went to Long Pine Monday where he was in conference Tuesday morning with interested state bankers, in the matter of recommending a receiver for the late defunct American State bank of Long Pine. W. F. Parker, of Wood Lake, who is at present the receiver of the Brown County State Bank which failed last year, was the choice of the conference.

The special car of Superintendent N. C. Allen, of the Burlington, arrived in O'Neill this afternoon. Along with the superintendent is C. J. Connett, train-master; O. M. Hoenschel, road foreman and D. T. Calvin, road-master. Superintendent Allen will take personal charge of the Omaha booster special train of eleven cars which will go east from here at 12:30 over the Burlington tonight.

Arrangements are being made to organize a base ball team here this year. Manager Mike Ford has been working on the proposition for some time and has sixteen prospects for members of the team who are being groomed for action. Mike says there is no question but that a fast team will be developed from the present line-up. The boys are practicing and will be in shape for an exhibition game in the near future.

Governor McKelvie suspended from office the sheriff of Thurston county pending court action to permanently oust the sheriff and county judge from office. The action was taken on a formal complaint that the two officials were deliberately failing to enforce the law against bootleggers. The county judge was not suspended because the governor has no authority to take such action in his case, but it must come directly before the court.

The boys and girls of the Ewing high school each won in points over Orchard, Elgin, Clearwater and Neligh, at the track meet held at Neligh on the 12th. Ralph Tomjack, of Ewing, was the largest individual winner of the boys, having three firsts to his credit, making 15 points. Alta Larson, of Ewing, won the most points among the girls, winning three firsts, a tie for another first, and one second, making a total of 23 points.

The O'Neill band gave their first concert in the new band stand last evening. The boys have their new uniforms, which, by the way, are as nifty as any of the band suits in this part of the state. The boys are furnishing some excellent music this year and they are all anxious to make the O'Neill band the top band in this part of the state. It is their intention to give a concert in the bandstand once each week during the summer when the weather will permit.

The state fish car went west through O'Neill yesterday afternoon on No. 1. Six cans, containing about twelve thousand rainbow trout were left here for the waters of the Redbird. Ray Zimmerman accompanied the trout to their new home. The fish car was in charge of Chief Game Warden George Kostler. State Fish Commissioner W. J. O'Brien arrived here over the Burlington last night and this morning drove to Swan lake where the state is seining the bullheads from the lake preparatory to stocking it with bass and croppies. Mr. O'Brien will take a load of bullheads to Gretna with him tomorrow in the state fish car which will be loaded at Atkinson.

The Cream of American and European Golf Ball Factories Is Here Assembled

O'Sullivan Golf Clubs are made to fit the individual who is to use it. To peg away with ready-mades frequently is a round peg in a square hole.

Patronize your Pro. His attention is concentrated on golf and golf goods.

GOLF BALLS
CADDY BAGS
TENNIS GOODS

SOFT DRINKS
CONFECTIONARY
LUNCH

O'SULLIVAN GOLF CLUBS.

J. B. O'Sullivan

TELEPHONE 18F11

COUNTRY CLUB

O'NEILL

Mrs. C. F. McKenna entertained a few friends Tuesday afternoon at her home northwest of O'Neill.

Mrs. F. J. Biglin entertained a number of friends at a six o'clock dinner for Mrs. J. A. Devine, Wednesday.

Mrs. R. E. Gallagher was hostess to a few friends Tuesday at a six o'clock dinner given for Mrs. Devine.

Mrs. Fred Faulhaber was called to Stockham last Thursday by the serious illness of her father, George J. Timmermier, who died the following day. Miss Bernadette Brennan entertained eight of her young lady friends at her home in Brennan park last evening.

County Judge Malone issued a marriage license Wednesday to Lyle Roberge and Miss Jennie Mildred Davis, both of Page.

Mrs. Bert Wattles, of Hot Springs, South Dakota, arrived here Wednesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Harrington.

Those who took part in the high school play last week enjoyed a 6:00 o'clock dinner at the Golden Wednesday evening, followed by a party at the Zeb Warner home.

Martin J. Lampert and Miss Thelma J. Shaw, both of Orchard, were married by Rev. George Longstaff Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, at the Presbyterian manse.

Mrs. Edw. T. Campbell entertained sixteen ladies Tuesday evening complimentary to Mrs. J. A. Devine, of Cheyenne. Miss Grace Hammond won the honors at auction, and Mrs. Devine won the all-cut.

Butte Gazette: Dr. Douglas, D. L. Jovanat, H. Nightengale and H. Connot made up a delegation that came over from Atkinson, Wednesday, to consult with the business men here with a view of opening up a direct road to Atkinson through Holt county. They went over with a delegation from here and took a preliminary survey of the proposed site of Brush creek crossing, having it surveyed and estimated by Surveyor Thatcher, with a view of finding the probable expense.

H. J. Hammond, H. J. Reardon, W. H. Harty, J. P. Golden, M. H. Horiesky, C. C. Reka, Frank Froelich, J. C. Gallagher, Geo. S. Agnes, Frank O'Connell and Arthur Ryan went to Albion last Sunday to attend a class invitation of the Knights of Columbus. The first four named went from Albion to York as delegates to the state convention of the Knights of Columbus, which was in session Tuesday. M. H. Horiesky also went to the convention as visitor.

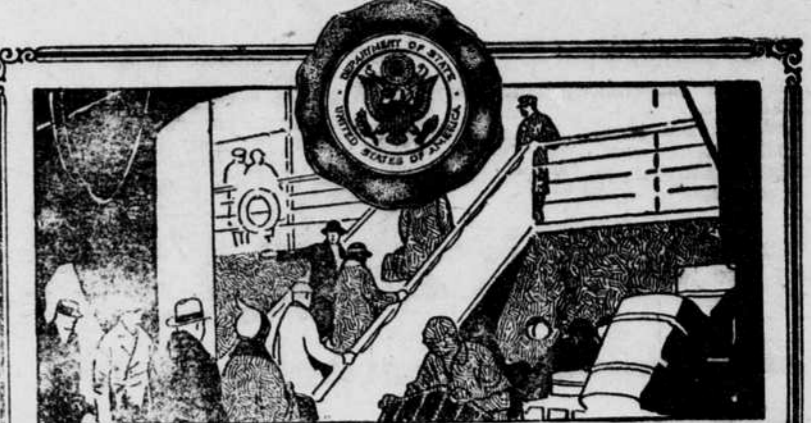

A meeting was held at the office of T. V. Golden last Tuesday which was composed of the parties along Douglas street who have been patrons of the heat furnished by the Hanford Produce Co. The object of the meeting was to devise some way to continue the heating system in case that the Hanford people sell their lighting plant to some prospective buyers, who, we understand, do not care to take over the contract of furnishing the heat.

Several suggestions were made by different ones but no definite action was taken at this meeting. Another meeting will be held later.

NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

No person shall operate or drive or cause to be operated or driven a motor vehicle on the public highways, unless such vehicle shall at all times have displayed one number plate on the back thereof, and one number on the front thereof, furnished for it as hereinbefore provided; in all cases such number plates shall be securely fastened to the motor vehicle so as to prevent such plates from swinging, and at a minimum distance of 16 inches from the ground. No person shall attach to or display on such motor vehicle, any number plate or certificate, other than as assigned to it for the current year, or fictitious or altered number plates, or registration certificate that shall have been cancelled by the department of public works.

PETER W. DUFFY,
Sheriff.

WHEREVER YOU TRAVEL YOU'RE IN TOUCH WITH HOME

No matter where your travels take you, the State Department watches over you and is ready to protect your interests. The part which the State Department plays in our international relations is entertainingly brought out in one of the highly interesting and instructive series of illustrated folders and booklets dealing with the various departments of Our Government, which are being distributed exclusively by this Institution to all who desire them.

If your name is not on our list, send it in at once and we will gladly forward to you all the issues to date. There is no obligation expressed or implied.

Nebraska
State Bank.

Your First
Deposit Your Lucky Day

It is said success is the result of one-half luck and one-half ability.

Ability means precaution, alertness, patience, stability, earnestness, thrift and work.

A good thing may come your way by pure chance.

A checking account with this bank may place you in a position to take advantage of the opportunity that comes by chance.

The O'Neill National Bank

O'Neill, Nebraska

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $160,000.00

This Bank Carries No Indebtedness Of Officers Or Stockholders.