

CHANGE OF LIFE WOMAN'S TRIAL

Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is of Great Help at This Period

Metropolis, Illinois.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it is all it claims to be and has benefited me wonderfully. I had been sick for eight months with a trouble which confined me to my bed and was only able to be up part of the time, when I was advised by a friend, Mrs. Smith, to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I was so much benefited by the use of these medicines that I was able to be up and about in two weeks. I was at the Change of Life when I began taking the medicines and I passed over that time without any trouble. Now I am hale and hearty, do all my housework, washing, ironing, scrubbing, and cooking, all there is to do about a house, and can walk two or three miles without getting too tired. I know of several of my neighbors who have been helped by your medicines."—Mrs. EMMA CURVER, 705 E. 7th St., Metropolis, Illinois.

Depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Nervousness, irritability, heat flashes, headache and dizziness, are relieved by this splendid medicine.

TEXAS GIRLS WEAR SENSIBLE DRESSES.

For the most sensible dresses made by themselves Texas school girls were offered prizes. Here are the "Lone Star state" prize winners: Miss Jessie Breeden, Cuero; Miss Edwina Allen, Amarillo, and Miss Elma Fields, Humble. They won prizes in the order named. The contest was held at Galveston high school.

Artist Model Saves Self With Butcher Knife From Two Men Who Attack Her

Chicago, May 22.—Miss Jean Dare, artist's model, told Sunday night how she saved herself with a knife from two men who attacked her Saturday.

The girl, a pretty blonde, staggered into police headquarters, her clothing in shreds and suffering from numerous bruises on the face and body. She was passing an alley when the men sprang out and dragged her into a shed.

"I fought them for 15 minutes and was about to give up when I saw a butcher knife on a table," she said. "I got the knife and sank it into one of the men. He fell back and I dashed for the door. His companion started after me, but I reached the street before he got me again."

Miss Dare was raised on a ranch near El Paso, Tex., she said, and had become expert in knife throwing in her childhood.

Paris Hotel Suites as High As 1,000 Francs Day and Cafe Lunches $12, But Cut Promised

BY BASIL D. WOON, Universal Service Correspondent, Special Cable Dispatch.

Paris, May 22.—Alarmed at the evidence that American tourists seem to have taken to heart the lesson of last year's excessive prices and are patronizing smaller hosteleries, hotel men of France are making a concerted effort to increase service and reduce prices during the 1922 season.

Under the guidance of Marcel Knecht, astute chief of French propaganda, the hotel men's syndicate has succeeded in abolishing many of the abuses of which American abroad complained and have published a scale of prices considerably lower than those of last year.

Blame German Propaganda. Neither Marcel Knecht nor the managers, however, will agree that their own excesses are the reason for the emptiness of many large tourist hotels. They ascribe it all to German propaganda.

That there has been some such propaganda is a fact. Circulars in badly written English, with phrases obviously of Teutonic origin, have been received by representative Americans warning them not to go to Vichy and other resorts. Simultaneously tremendous publicity campaigns have opened in favor of Baden-Baden, Nuremberg, Marienbad and Karlsbad. It is pointed out, however, that the last two spas as now situated in Czecho-Slovakia.

For the benefit of Americans intending to visit France this season it should be stated that in first class hotels now more than 60 francs per day for a single room and bath, or 80 francs for a double room and bath would be paid under any circumstances. For rooms without bath, the maximum should be 50 francs. In hotels of second order rooms should not cost more than 40 francs without bath or 50 francs with bath.

Prices Still "Sky High."

Last year prices in most of the big hotels were double this year's scale and promises that they would be reduced were not kept. At Deauville, in the height of the season, an average price for a room and bath was 100 francs. Many cost as much as 120 francs. It was explained that as Deauville only has a short season, it was necessary to charge higher prices than those obtaining in hotels open all the year around. According to Americans at present staying in large Paris hotels, the new scale has not yet gone into effect. A small room without bath in the Continental is costing one American 40 francs a day without soap or service. Suits at Claridge's are being paid for up to 1,000 francs a day. Prices at the Ritz have not been increased since the armistice. At the Carlton the price for a double room with bath is 30 francs per day. At the Maurice a similar charge prevails.

Restaurant prices are as high as ever. A moderate lunch with wine at Ciro's or the Cafe de Paris, costs an average of $8 to $12. Without wine it is possible to order a lunch or dinner that will not come to more than $5.

QUIZ ATTELL ABOUT FIRE.

New York, May 22.—Abe Atell, former featherweight champion, low one of the owners of the "Ming Toy Bootery", was quizzed vigorously by the police Sunday regarding a mysterious attempt to burn his Broadway shoe store.

Detectives found Atell asleep at his home. They said he expressed astonishment when informed of the attempt to destroy the shoe store.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

Out of the Mouths of Babes. You've heard about the little girl who was given a woolly bear that she would name "Gladly," after the bear in the hymn—"Gladly, my cross-eyed bear."

Another little girl was asked if she knew who Nero was.

"He's the Good Man," she answered in awed tones.

"The Good Man? What makes you think he's the Good Man?" said her teacher.

Then, in answer, the little girl, still in awed tones, quoted the hymn, "Nero My God to Thee!"

No Chance.

Mayor Lew Shank visited school No. 3, and warned the boys and girls of the many traffic dangers, and explained to them their part in keeping the streets "safe for boys and girls."

He asked the boys how many wished to be police officers.

One tow-headed little chap held up his hand.

"I want-a be a cop," he piped.

"Are you Irish?" the mayor asked.

"Well, there isn't any chance for you, son. You'd better take up something else," was the mayor's disappointing advice.—Indianapolis News.

Of Another Race.

Mrs. Subbubs had hired a green country girl whose looks reflected the benefit of plenty of fresh air and wholesome country food. One morning Mrs. Subbubs entered the kitchen just after the grocer's boy had been there and she said to the girl, "Why, Hester, what a rosy, happy face you have this morning. You look as if the dew had kissed you."

Hester's face grew still rosier and her eyes sought the floor.

"Please'm," she murmured, "he isn't a Jew, his name is Michael."

Light Conversation.

A man wished to introduce a friend to his wife who was at the seashore. When the pair got to the resort they found the wife in the surf.

Entering the bath house the men donned their suits and went in the water.

The husband introduced his friend. A week later the friend observed the woman he had met in the water sitting opposite him in a street car. He bowed. She looked puzzled for a moment and then exclaimed:

"Oh, how do you do? I didn't know you with your clothes on."

They had to leave the car at the next corner.

He Would Work Then.

Tired Tim knocked at the door of a cottage. It was a chilly day, and he was very hungry.

The old lady who opened the door was a good sort. She asked him into the kitchen and placed before him a nicely cooked meal, and asked him why he did not go to work.

"I would," replied Tim, "if I had the tools."

"What sort of tools do you want?" inquired the old lady.

"A knife and fork," said Tired Tim.

Costly Language.

In one of the palatial homes of the new rich, a man sat before a blazing fire, a cigar between his teeth, a liqueur at his elbow. His friend sat opposite, likewise fortified.

The host was bewailing the enormous cost of keeping his son at college.

"Such expenses!" he cried. "And the worst of all is the languages."

"Languages?" repeated his friend, "How's that?"

"Well," said the host, "there is one item in the bill which runs, 'For Scotch, $250.'"

Thackeray.

He faces posterity as a great figure of rich genius and honest purpose, a purpose occasionally obscured by the force of imagination and the irresistible promptings of humor; weighing mankind in a gloomy balance, but not without hope; and bequeathing to us rich and various treasures of literature, which may well survive, if anything survives.—Lord Rosebery.

When Hungry Little Muscles Say, "Please Help Me"

DID you ever stop to think who it really is that's talking, when childish voices raise a clamor, "Mother, I'm hungry?"

It's really muscles and bones and nerves and cells worn in the stress and strain of play—that are calling for rebuilding material

What kind of an answer? The right thing, or just anything? It makes a big difference.

Grape-Nuts, so deliciously crisp and appetizing to taste, and so quick and convenient to serve, is a splendid food for rebuilding young bodies. All the wonderful nutriment put in wheat and barley by Nature, including the vital mineral elements, is there—and Grape-Nuts digests easily, quickly and completely. Served with cream or milk, Grape-Nuts is exceptionally nourishing.

"That's splendid!" says appetite. "That's just the need!" say the hungry muscles, nerves and bones.

Ready to serve right from the package—always crisp and fresh. A favorite dish with all the family. Sold by grocers.
