

You know how delicious Corn Flakes can be When you eat Kellogg's

Altogether different in flavor! Altogether different in crispness—that's what makes Kellogg's Corn Flakes all-the-time delicious, appetizing, inviting! You never tasted such a really wonderful cereal! Kellogg's delight the little people—and the big ones, too! Kellogg's are just as fascinating for lunch or supper or between-time nibbles as they are for breakfast!

Just to see those sunny-brown Corn Flakes in a big bowl and some morning's milk close by is a sight to put a keen edge on hunger! But—when you eat a few spoonfuls—and you get that crispy deliciousness and that fascinating flavor! Kellogg's are never leathery, never tough, never hard to eat!

Ask for KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes! If you just ask for "corn flakes" you're likely to get an imitation! Demand the original Corn Flakes! Kellogg's are sold only in the RED and GREEN package that bears the well-known signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

Peter Duffy returned home from Lincoln last night. Pete assisted Sheriff Heenan, of Boyd county, in conducting Walter Simmons, the supposed murderer of Frank Pahl, to the penitentiary last Saturday morning, where he was placed for safe keeping. Simmons still maintains that he is innocent of the murder of Pahl.

The special train carrying one hundred and fifty Omaha boosters, arrived in O'Neill over the Northwestern at 5:45 this afternoon on schedule time. Dan Desdune's colored band accompanied the boosters and gave a concert in the bandstand this evening. Each child present in the afternoon received a number of souvenirs, consisting of balloons, bells, whistles, and other similar advertising articles. A free dance is arranged for the K. C. hall immediately following the commencement exercises, which are being held in the hall this evening. The booster train will go east over the Burlington at 12:30 tonight.

Homer Sheridan, the Sioux City wonder, knocked out Jack Hunt, the Omaha white hope, in the fourth round of what was to have been a ten round boxing match before a crowded house, at the skating rink here this evening. Pete Dietrich, of Atkinson, won the decision over Otto Bird Head, a Sioux Indian from Verdigré, in a fast five round preliminary. Dietrich is entitled to special credit in that he did not know that he was to box until after six o'clock this evening, arriving here from Atkinson just in time to enter the ring for the preliminary. The bouts were the best ever witnessed in O'Neill. The boxing matches were staged under the auspices of the K. C. Athletic club.

Improving on Nature.

I plucked an autumn leaf in the park and took it to the studio. Showing it to the man with the wonderful relatives, I said: "How's that for an imitation leaf made out of a very fine grade of leather?" "Le'see!" asked the man with the wonderful relatives. Passing his fingers over the tinted surface, he remarked: "My uncle used to make imitation leaves." "I suppose," I queried, "that they were much better than this one?" He looked at me in pity and sneeringly said: "I'll say they was!"—Exchange.

Valuable Weather Predictions.

Forecasts recently issued by the British meteorological office predicted ten days of fair weather, probably a record for long distance weather prediction in England. No doubt wireless figured largely in this innovation, which, if found to be tolerably reliable, promises much for the agriculturist and others.—Scientific American.

PAGE ITEMS.

George Brechler, of Madison, was in town last Saturday.
L. R. Dillard has installed the city water in the drug store.
M. O. Howard returned Monday night from a business trip to points in Iowa and eastern Nebraska.
Mr. and Mrs. James Carman, living north of Page, were shopping in O'Neill Monday.
S. G. Coover accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Ethel Asher, were in O'Neill, Tuesday on business.
Mrs. Anton Soukup has been seriously ill for some time. Her condition seems to show no improvement.
Chas. and David Bowen, from north of Page, were in O'Neill last Monday looking after business matters at the court house.

The Page base ball team went to Venus last Sunday and played a game of ball with the Venus boys who defeated them 5 to 6.
Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, who reside three miles northeast of Page, were in O'Neill the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. John L. Quig, of O'Neill, were visiting at the Wm. Clark home in the southeast part of town the first of the week.

The pump at the village pump house has been out of repair several days this week, and as a consequence the water supply has been pretty low.
The tourists have begun to travel west. A number of cars pass through here every day. The travelers all seem to carry their camping outfits with them.

The American legion dance at the club rooms in the west part of Page, was well attended last Friday night. The boys made a little money besides having a good social time.
A prenuptial shower was given Miss Jennie Davis last Saturday afternoon by her many friends. She received many beautiful and useful presents. A pleasant time was enjoyed.

The school board has not contracted with a superintendent for next year, although we understand that they have decided upon a man in Dakota for the job providing he doesn't sign up somewhere else before they get a contract to him.
The village fathers have signed a contract with the Omaha Development Co., to furnish an estimate of the cost and a blue print of the proposed electric high line, that the Tri State Utility Co. proposes to build through this part of the state. From what we can learn there will be no expense incurred unless the village vote the bonds and build the proposed line.

The Junior class of the Page high school gave a banquet to the Seniors on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. June Townsend. The class and its guests gathered at Prof. Leh's house for a social hour before the banquet. The rooms where the main event took place were tastefully decorated with the colors of the graduating class and illuminated by Rev. McGaughey preached the baccalaureate sermon to the Page High School Seniors on Sunday evening. The commencement was held on Thursday evening, in the opera house. The five members of the graduating class, Addie Miller, Elsa Weber, Edna Hubbard, Elton Trowbridge and Mary Louise French, spoke of various phases of the ideal they had learned to put before themselves during High School days, and they concluded their part of the program with a beautiful ceremony in which they passed a candle, symbolic of Knowledge, Guidance and Friendship, to a member of the succeeding class. Mr. Leh made the main address of the evening, on the subject, "Past and Future." The evening's exercises were closed by the presentation of the diplomas and other honors. As a new feature of the commencement exercises, the eighth grade diplomas were also given out at the same time.

CHURCH NEWS.
Next Sunday will complete the series of preparatory lessons given by Mr. and Mrs. McGaughey at the Sunday school hour. These classes have been for the most part crowded to the utmost capacity and the instruction has been profitable to all who have taken it.
The Page Epworth League entertained the Venus League last Friday evening at a social in the church basement. There were plates for seventy-three, about twenty or perhaps twenty-five were present from Venus. Every one was in the right spirit to enjoy a good time and while there was nothing particularly new, every game and exercise was interesting and thoroughly enjoyed by those present.
The baccalaureate sermon was delivered last Sunday evening by the pastor, a large audience attended. The church was beautifully decorated in the class colors and the entire service was very inspirational.
The Memorial service will be held Sunday morning.
The primary department of the Sunday school will serve ice cream in the basement of the church Tuesday after-son at Page for several years, and after disposing of the drug store continued to reside in Page.

The funeral services were held Saturday and the remains were taken to his old home at Palmyra for burial.
The deceased leaves two children, a son, John at Stockham, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Faulhaber, of O'Neill.

BARNEY STEWART.

The body of Barney Stewart arrived at Inman last Thursday from Rocky Point, Wyoming, and was escorted by the members of the I. O. O. F. lodges of Page and Orchard, to Page where funeral services were held at two o'clock the same day, and the remains were laid to rest in the Page cemetery. Rev. Spracklen, of Orchard, preaching the sermon under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge of which he was a member.

Barney was born in Tennessee and was about 64 years old at the time of his death. He came to Holt county with his parents forty-two years ago and, along with other members of the family, took a homestead west of Page about two miles. As near as we can learn Barney's homestead is now owned by George French.

During the past two years his health has been failing, notwithstanding every effort has been made to obtain for him that which would tend to be beneficial. He has made his home in Wyoming for the past two years.

The passing of Barney Stewart removes one of the old land marks of the east end of the county and a man to whom the early settlers looked to for help in sickness and trouble. Barney was one of those big hearted fellows who was always ready to do something for the needy and those in distress. He was known by almost every man, woman and child in this part of the country, having cried sales all over this part of the state for many years.

The deceased leaves a wife and two sons, Nelson and Dewey, and two brothers, W. S. of Page, and Wilson of Vancouver, B. C.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING.

A reception and surprise to the retiring president marked the closing of the second year of the O'Neill Woman's Club on Wednesday, May 24. Mrs. Dishner was presented with a beautiful silver dish by the club. Mrs. L. A. Carter made the presentation. The following program was given:

Roll call responded to by impressions of the convention.
It was shown by the answers to roll call that the convention was a wonderful success. The poise and ease with which the district leaders conducted the meeting and the earnestness, loyalty and good feeling was a revelation to all. Mrs. Penney, Mrs. Frater and Mrs. Hudson were general favorites. Each woman on the program received special mention for the way in which she took her part, and it was an inspiration to all who attended.

Reports of officers and chairmen of Departments. Miss Anna O'Donnell, treasurer. Mrs. Cowperthwaite, chairman of literature. Mrs. Radaker, of home economics. Mrs. Scott, chairman of music. Election of new members.

The following names were voted to membership: Mrs. White, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Lienhart, Mrs. Campbell, Miss Meyer, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Froelich, Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Bay.

There are forty-three paid up members for next year, up to date.

Upon finishing up the business of the year Mrs. Dishner yielded the chair to the new president, Mrs. C. B. Scott and the club pledged their loyalty and support by a standing salute.

Mrs. Scott appointed the standing committees and the chairmen of departments announced their helpers for the programs, all of which will appear in print soon.

Appreciation was expressed to the officers for their cooperation and support during the administration and especially for the untiring efforts of the secretary, Mrs. Downey, whose books are a very model of excellence.

Following the adjournment the refreshments were served and a general social good time enjoyed by all.
