

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLII

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1922.

NO. 52.

Strawberries

At Grady's Store

PURITAN
BACON

Cash Paid For Eggs

BARRINGTON
HALL
COFFEE

Ben Grady, Grocer

We Sell SKINNER'S The Highest Grade Macaroni Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Products

PHONES 68-126

Mrs. W. H. Hartly entertained the Foresome at her home last Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Boyle were guests of the club.

Mrs. Sophia Albert came up from Omaha last Monday for a visit with her old friends. She expects to remain here about two weeks.

Aloysius Pius Wewel, of Newport, and Miss Julia Wiechmann, of Stuart, were granted a marriage license by Judge Malone last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winkler, who reside near Atkinson, are the parents of a daughter who arrived at their home on the 18th of May.

Charles and Conrade May, of Dyersville, Iowa, were in the city Friday, looking after their land interests near Emmet and also east of O'Neill.

Mrs. J. A. Devine and sister, Miss Grace Campbell, departed last Saturday for their home at Cheyenne, Wyoming. They were joined at Kearney by Dr. Devine.

John L. Crane filed a petition in the district court last Friday asking for a divorce from his wife Nellie A. Domestic troubles of the milder type are given as the cause.

C. F. Englehart, son Edward, and daughter, Miss Lucy, were down from their home in the west side of the county last Tuesday attending the Decoration day program.

Miss Nana Beha closed her third term of school in District No. 24, last Friday, with a picnic in the Erb grove, northwest of O'Neill, that was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Elmer Merriman, son Lawrence, and T. W. Lewis, of Sioux City, arrived here last Thursday night and spent Friday visiting with old friends. Elmer is still with the traction company.

Mrs. P. B. Hartly and Miss Mary Fitzsimmons entertained the Martez club last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Hartly in the Scott building. Miss Mae Hammond won the honors at bridge.

George Peebles, who has been making his home at West Plains, Missouri, for the past few years, returned to his old home at Emmet last week. Peebles still owns his farm just north of Emmet.

Judge J. R. Dean, associate justice of the supreme court, stopped in O'Neill today for a visit with friends while enroute to his home at Lincoln from Chadron where he delivered a Decoration Day address.

J. B. Anderson and son, Glen, returned last week from a ten days trip through the Rosebud country. While away they visited with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Orpha Bayers, at Mission, South Dakota.

Ewing Advocate: The claying of main street from the Weaverling corner west is progressing rapidly, and will be finished this week. This is a much needed improvement. Let the good work continue.

Mrs. Clarence Odland, living northwest of O'Neill, lost control of her flivver and ran into the electrocutor in the center of the street near the K. C. opera house last Tuesday afternoon. Very little damage was done.

John L. Quig received a letter last week from Joe Ruddy, who is now in the real estate business at Monterey, Mexico. Joe was formerly a resident of Page and later was in the real estate business at Gordon, Nebraska.

C. A. Grass and family were up from Page last Sunday visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. Lucy Grass, who returned home with them that evening and will spend several days visiting with relatives northwest of Page.

Mrs. Mary Semrad, of Abie, Nebraska, Mrs. Lucy Shultz of Columbus, Nebraska, were in Page today attending the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Soukup. Charles Semrad, of Abie, Neb., a nephew, was also present at the funeral.

Mrs. John Hiber Monday evening received word of the death of her father, Mr. J. C. Hutchinson, at his home in Santa Monica, California, Tuesday, May 23, after an extended illness. The funeral was held the following Thursday.

R. R. Dickson, grand junior warden, accompanied by L. G. Gillespie, proxy senior warden, Elmer Surber, proxy junior warden and H. E. Radaker, master, will go to Omaha the first of the week where they will attend the session of the Masonic grand lodge.

The daily papers of Tuesday contained the announcement that William J. McNichols, of Lexington, has filed for the office of lieutenant governor on the democrat ticket. William is an O'Neill boy. He was recently reelected head of the Knights of Columbus in this state. The only fault that we can find with him is the fact that he is a democrat.

E. J. Beene and son, Lawrence, were in from their farm one-half mile north and one and one-half miles west of Dorsey, last Wednesday. Mr. Beene says that the oats are looking pretty good although not as good as they have some years; he states that the corn is coming nicely and the prospects are favorable for a regular crop this year.

The Federal Land Bank has announced a reduction of its interest rate on new business, effective June 1, from 6 per cent to 5 1/2 per cent. This is below the competitive rate of other loan concerns in the district. In a letter to Secretary James F. O'Donnell of the local organization the land bank officials state that they have abundant funds to loan.

Archie C. Millington and Miss Lucile J. Brayles, both of Atkinson, were married by Rev. George Longstaff at the Presbyterian manse on Wednesday of last week, at nine o'clock in the evening. They were attended by Glen Jonerson and Miss Grace Dyson, both of Atkinson. Miss Brayles was one of the teachers of the Atkinson high school during the past year.

Miss S. Eckles went to her home at Hyannis, Nebraska, last Friday afternoon, where she will spend the summer vacation with home folks. She will return in September to assume her duties of principal for the coming school year.

Mrs. D. D. Murphy and daughter, Miss Bea, went to Omaha this morning to be present at the commencement exercises of a class who are finishing the course at the training school for nurses at St. Joseph's hospital. Miss Helen Murphy is a member of the class.

Mrs. Ambrose Gladson and little daughter, accompanied by her brother, James McPharlin, returned to her home in Omaha Wednesday morning. She had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McPharlin, for several days. James will go from Omaha to Pueblo, Colorado, where he will spend the summer with his sister, Mrs. A. L. Severson.

Three miles of road is being graded along the Black Hills trail through the Dorsey country. Wiley and Jensen are grading the mile of road running north and south past the old Dorsey store buildings, also two miles west from the intersection north of the store buildings. This has been a bad piece of road and grading will be greatly appreciated by those who travel that way.

The canopy over the walk at the Mellor garage is nearing completion. Frank Bellows, of Walthill, Nebraska, is doing the work. A door has been cut near the front of the garage on the west side of the building which will be used as the main entrance for cars, while the south car entrance will be closed with the exception of a small door, thus eliminating the danger of being hit with cars going in and out of the garage.

Miss Ida Craig has been visiting at the home of her brother near Chambers since the closing of her school at Tilden a couple of weeks ago, until Wednesday when she went down to Tilden for a day with friends before starting for Hood River, Oregon. She expects to visit at Portland and San Francisco also before going to Los Angeles where she will attend summer school, returning to her school work at Neligh in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan drove over from Bonesteel, South Dakota, last Sunday for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stanton. Miss Marguerite Carney accompanied them for a short visit with her sister, Miss Mary. Miss Marguerite is teaching school near Bonesteel but will teach in the town school next year.

Miss Bessie McLeod went to Lincoln this morning where she will attend the university this summer.

The following Burlington officials arrived here this evening on an inspection tour with their observation engine and two coaches: E. P. Brackner, Vice President, Chicago; W. E. Thiehoff, General Manager, Omaha; E. Flynn, General Superintendent, Lincoln; N. C. Allen, Superintendent, Omaha; F. T. Darrow, Superintendent of Construction, Lincoln; O. M. Hoenshell, Road Foreman, Omaha; D. T. Calvin, Road Master, Ferry.

A class of eight girls and three boys graduated from the Stuart high school this year. The exercises were held in the auditorium on Tuesday evening of last week. N. W. Gaines of the University extension work delivered an address on "Signs of the Times." The graduates were: Viola Armstrong, Mildred Conner, Jennie Gill, Stella Gill, Esther Kobarg, Ruth Robertson, Bessie McClurg, Mary Mamm, John Bigelow, Albert Kunz and Lyman Jillson.

Nineteen young ladies and gentlemen graduated from the Ewing high school last week. They are: Isabelle Conger, Verna Virginia Snyder, Vesta Vivian Snyder, Cecil Alys Tomjack, Lillian Jane Holliday, Dagny O. Nellman, Madeleine Helen Bethea, Gretchen Evelyn Butler, Dale L. Graver, Bessie Bell Good, Edna Twist, Harold H. Briggs, Loreta Frances McKamy, Verna Borden, Audrey Hales, Archy M. Lichty, LeRoy F. Versaw, Ralph M. Tomjack, Alberta Butler.

Miss Gertrude A. McCarthy, field agent for the Father Flannigan Boys' Home, of Omaha, was in the city soliciting for the institution. The home was founded December 8, 1917, and has made rapid progress during the past four and one-half years. 1251 boys are now cared for in the home. A new building is now being erected that will accommodate 500 boys when completed. The home is conducted along non-sectarian lines and is mother to boys of all nationalities.

Omaha Bee: While talking with friends yesterday afternoon in the lobby of the Live Stock exchange, Jason Hamilton, 50, farmer of Venus, was stricken with paralysis. Dr. R. E. Schindel was called and Mr. Hamilton was taken to the South Omaha General hospital, where he is reported in a serious condition. The stricken man has been operating a farm near Ewing owned by A. M. Tillman, banker of Hopper and was on the local market with a load of cattle sent in by Mr. Tillman.

The republican county central committee has announced the apportionment of delegates for the county convention, as one delegate-at-large and one delegate for each of 50 voters or fraction thereof. Attention is called that delegates should be nominated to go upon the primary ballot and their names certified to the county clerk before June 18. Also that the law requires the nomination by each voting precinct of candidates for men and women membership on the county central committee, to be voted upon at the primary election, at which one man and one woman member of the central committee shall be elected from each precinct. The names of the committee nominees also should be certified to the county clerk before June 18.

Cash Paid For Eggs

Ketchup, per bottle - 10c
3 Cans Fruit - $1.00
Washing Powder, pkg. 5c

J. C. Horiskey
We Sell SKINNER'S
the highest grade Macaroni, Spaghetti, Egg Noodles and other Macaroni Products.

O'Neill, Neb.

Martin Cronin was in Neligh a couple of days this week.

Roy Brownell and W. H. Tucker were up from Page today.

Bob Hanks, the retired cattle king of Atkinson, was transacting business in the hub last Saturday.

Miss Florence McCafferty has resigned her position as stenographer in the office of John L. Quig.

Mrs. H. J. Reardon entertained a number of friends Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Boyle, of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Boyle came up from Omaha last Saturday and have been visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. J. P. Golden and Mrs. R. R. Morrison entertained at a picnic at the Country Club today for Mrs. H. J. Boyle.

J. E. Deck, who formerly conducted a bank in Atkinson, but who now makes his home in the western part of the state, was in O'Neill last Saturday.

Rev. W. H. Guest, of Orleans, Nebraska, has accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Atkinson and will arrive there to take up his work about June 11th.

Four fellows stopped a short time in O'Neill Wednesday enroute home from the lakes in Brown county. They had seventeen bass with them that weighed 74 pounds.

Arthur Hendrick ran into the electric light pole near the residence of Mrs. A. V. Virgin last Monday evening with a Ford car. The car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Arbuthnot are improving their residence property on the corner of Douglas and Second streets, by raising the house and putting a new foundation under it.

J. E. Reeder, who has been representing Haley-Neeley Co., in this territory, has been transferred to Norfolk, and a gentleman by the name of Price took his place here last Saturday.

Mrs. H. J. Hammond entertained a few friends last Wednesday evening complimentary to Mrs. H. J. Boyle, of Norfolk. Mrs. F. J. Biglin won the honors at bridge and Mrs. R. E. Gallagher the all cut.

Fred Cronk, of Page, was in O'Neill last Saturday.

Mrs. O. K. Tickler and baby went to Harvard, Nebraska, last Saturday where she will visit her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Arthur Ryan suffered a broken arm last Monday when she endeavored to crank the car when the starter refused to work.

Miss Eva Harmon closed a term of school in District No. 145, fourteen miles northwest of O'Neill, last Friday with a box social and dance. The proceeds of the evening will be used for the benefit of the school. Lawrence Murray and James Crawley were the auctioneers. A number of O'Neill young people were present and enjoyed the evening.

State Representative Brantley E. Sturdevant, of Atkinson, has filed for the republican nomination for state senator for the Twenty-fourth district, which comprises Holt, Boyd, Keya Paha, Brown and Rock counties. Mr. Sturdevant has represented the old fourth representative district of Holt and Boyd counties in the legislature the past two terms.

Clarence Dikeman, who lives about two miles north of Royal, is fixing up a picnic and camping ground that will be appreciated by the entire community. The place is ideal for this purpose as it is in thickly wooded section. A cement swimming pool is being built also a cement cooler to be used by campers as a storehouse for food. Cottages will be built tables and seats made, and other provisions made for the comforts of summer visitors. Indications are that the venture will be a great success. It will be ready about the middle of June.

"Pat O'Brien's Decision" afforded the citizens of O'Neill and vicinity the opportunity of seeing the town and country, and incidentally themselves, in moving pictures at the Royal theatre this evening. The film will be shown again Friday night. Mrs. L. E. Sougey has the lead in the picture, with Frank Harrington supporting and M. H. McCarthy as the irate dad. Scenes about town, farm and ranch scenes and river views are shown during the course of the plot, which is a very pretty little love romance, and they live happy ever afterwards.

The high school enjoyed a picnic last Friday.

Ralph Young, of Meek, was in the city today on business.

Father O'Sullivan went to Chicago last Sunday for a week's visit.

Attorney W. J. Hammond has been in Omaha several days this week.

The west end of the county received two good rains during the past week.

W. B. Eastman, of Lincoln, has filed for the democrat nomination for state auditor.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, of Stuart, recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

W. W. Bethea, Mrs. Bethea and Mrs. J. N. Kay, of Ewing, were O'Neill visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. L. A. Burgess went to Page, today for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Walker.

Womans Christian Temperance Union meets with Mrs. Scott Hough Tuesday afternoon, June 6th.

Mrs. J. E. Smith is at Homer, Neb., word having been received that Mr. Smith's father is critically ill.

Misses Nellie and Ethel Walker, of Page, were visiting with their sister, Mrs. L. A. Burgess last Saturday.

Roland Frost came over from Sioux City last Sunday for a visit with his mother and sister, Miss Dorothy.

J. P. Lichty, F. O. Clyde and George Page, all of Page, were in O'Neill, Wednesday, looking after business.

Ewing Advocate: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snyder attended the funeral of E. D. Perry at Norfolk last Saturday. Mr. Perry was a former resident of Ewing.

Several applicants for the position of superintendent in the Page school were in town the early part of the week.

Lloyd Stevens and Mrs. Rosella Howell, both of Newport, were married by County Judge Malone last Monday.

A light frost is reported to have been in evidence last Tuesday morning, in the south part of town. No damage was done.

Ray Hatch and wife, of Lincoln, spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hatch, in O'Neill.

Clerk of the District Court Ira Moss returned today from a five days visit with his brother who resides south of Atkinson.

Miss Dorothy Frost came up from Omaha last Friday for a visit with her mother. She is attending the Van Sant business college.

Will Biglin left Thursday morning for Jackson, where Mrs. Biglin and daughters, Ruth Ann and Rose Mary, are visiting relatives.

Quite a number of prospective teachers from Page were in O'Neill last Friday and Saturday taking the teachers' examinations.

Miss Mary Witherow left last Sunday for her home at Central City, Nebraska. She has been teaching in the high school here for the past two years.

The special election held in school district No. 88, on May 20th, carried. The proposition was whether or not the district should issue $3,500 worth of bonds for the purpose of buying more land and improving the school building at Emporia.

Our Friendship
Is The Real Thing

We soon tire of the person who takes no personal interest in us.

Likewise we grow indifferent towards the bank whose officers show no feeling of interest in us.

All we ask is a chance to show you that we are interested in you and can render you a valuable service.

The O'Neill National Bank
O'Neill, Nebraska
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $160,000.00
This Bank Carries No Indebtedness Of Officers Or Stockholders.

WHEREVER YOU TRAVEL YOU'RE IN TOUCH WITH HOME

No matter where your travels take you, the State Department watches over you and is ready to protect your interests. The part which the State Department plays in our international relations is entertainingly brought out in one of the highly interesting and instructive series of illustrated folders and booklets dealing with the various departments of Our Government, which are being distributed exclusively by this Institution to all who desire them.

If your name is not on our list, send it in at once and we will gladly forward to you all the issues to date. There is no obligation expressed or implied.

Nebraska State Bank.

