

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLI.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1922.

NO. 1

Strawberries

At Grady's Store

PURITAN
BACON

Cash Paid For Eggs

BARRINGTON
HALL
COFFEE

Ben Grady, Grocer

We Sell SKINNER'S The Highest Grade Macaroni Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Products

PHONES 68-126

Miss Grace Hart, of Atkinson, and Mr. William E. Williams, of Omaha, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian manse by the Rev. George Longstaff Monday afternoon.

Atkinson Graphic: Henry Ramold writes that he has bought the A. M. Cummins shaving parlor at Columbus, "one of the up-to-date shops west of Omaha" says Henry.

Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock will speak in the K. C. Theatre next Saturday evening from a democratic viewpoint. The Senator is a fluent speaker and many will enjoy listening to him altho they may not agree with him politically.

Ewing Advocate: A very important piece of road work has been done this week between Section 6 in Deloit Township and Section 31 in Ewing Township which will give the people of Cache Creek a good outlet to the east in the wet season.

Lynch Herald: Mrs. Derrickson of Dorsey, who has been here for the past nine months keeping house for her two daughters, one who was teaching in the city school, the younger attending school, moved back to their farm on Steel creek the first of the week.

Mrs. G. W. Cherry and baby came down Monday morning from Casper, Wyoming, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter O'Malley and family, to visit friends and relatives in this city, before returning to her home in Denver.

Martin Cronin, the all-around handy-man is operating the line-type in The Frontier office this week, while E. D. Henry is taking a vacation. Martin is fast gaining a reputation as an operator and his service are in great demand over northeast Nebraska.

J. M. Cottrell was brought before the insanity board Wednesday morning and found to be mentally unbalanced. He was taken to Norfolk Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Cottrell made his home on a farm three miles north and seven miles east of O'Neill until February 20th when he held a public sale and came to O'Neill.

Battle Creek Enterprise: J. H. Livingston, who recently disposed of his interest in the Battle Creek cleaning establishment, has secured a location at Atkinson, Nebr. He visited in Battle Creek a few days this week and will leave for Chicago the first of the week to purchase a stock of goods for his Atkinson establishment.

Joe Obermier, of Catalpa, filed last Saturday for supervisor in the First district on the democrat ticket. Joe is the first democrat to toss his hat in the ring in this district. There promises to be a skirmish among the republican forces in that district, however, between C. F. Engelhaupt, Victor Johnson and J. B. Fullerton, who are contesting for the nomination.

James Walton, of Grand Island, went to Orchard last Monday for a visit with friends. Mr. Walton has been here for several weeks visiting his son, Grant. Mr. Walton is an old soldier and was a member of Co. F., 20th Iowa. He spent most the time during his enlistment under Col. Leek in Missouri and Arkansas, but took part in the last battle of the war at Penacola.

Chambers Sun: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Atwood and family arrived in Chambers last Friday, to renew old acquaintances. Mr. Atwood was a merchant here, leaving in 1914 for Chester, this state, where he is in the lumber business with his brother-in-law. Mr. Atwood was highly pleased to see the many improvements since he left. They left for home yesterday.

Frank Moore, who has been making his home with Sheriff Duffy, was taken to the penitentiary yesterday. Moore was being held here pending the sentencing of Harry Moore, for burglary. Both of the Moores plead guilty and received their sentences as mentioned in last week's Frontier.

A Children's Day program will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at the regular service time. Everybody is cordially invited.

Sheriff Duffy went over to Lincoln, Iowa, last week and brought Richard Estes here on the complaint of Andrew E. Lee, charging that Estes embezzled seventy-five cow hides valued at $246.00. Estes was arraigned in county court yesterday where he waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court under $500 bond which he furnished. The embezzlement is supposed to have taken place while Estes was employed on the Lee & Pringle ranch in the southwest part of the county.

Miss Mame McManus is in Chicago. M. O. Howard was up from Page Wednesday.

Pete Hereford is attending the bakers convention in Omaha this week. Miss Cora Meredith went to Wayne last Friday for a few days visit with Miss Mary Lewis.

Dr. Will Mullen, of Omaha, arrived here the first of the week for a visit with his brother P. D., who is quite ill.

Walter Rutherford, the watermelon king, was in O'Neill Wednesday, from his ranch home southeast of Page.

Miss Beth Jean Mayfield is rejoicing over the arrival of a new baby Shetland colt that arrived at her stables last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clauson were visiting at the home of Mr. Clauson's grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Gorea of Inman last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Flora, of Crookston, Nebraska, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Flora's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wood, at Page.

J. C. Gallagher, the present clerk of the City of O'Neill, has filed for the nomination of County Clerk on the democrat ticket.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Henry and daughter Elizabeth drove to Albion, Nebraska, yesterday for a few days visit at the Lyle Smith home.

Mrs. Ziemer and daughter, Miss Marcia, went to Omaha the first of the week, where Miss Marcia is having her eyes treated by a specialist.

A criminal action has been filed against George Norton from Stuart, charging him with illegal possession of moonshine. The case was filed on May 27th.

C. E. Downey tossed his hat into the democratic campaign last Saturday by filing for the nomination for supervisor in the 3rd district against John Sullivan, the present incumbent.

Mrs. J. M. Hunter and Mrs. W. C. Templeton and daughter, Lois Ruth, went to Sioux City this morning for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Page, formerly of O'Neill.

A number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seger, of Atkinson, gathered at their home on May 24th to assist them in celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Della Shaw went to Spearfish, South Dakota, last Saturday, where she will look after things while her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Plank, attend the Shriners convention at San Francisco.

The Children's Day program will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday at eleven o'clock. Regular preaching service in the evening at eight o'clock. Senior Endeavor will be held at seven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lancaster drove to Columbus last Friday where Mrs. Lancaster spent a few days with her parents while Frank went to Omaha over the Union Pacific. They returned home the first of the week.

The contract for the second story of the I. O. O. F. building was awarded last Friday to Span, Weller & Hise, of Atkinson, who agree to begin work on the building by the 15th and will have it completed by September 15th.

Miss Clarice Argenbright, of Atkinson, and Mr. Walter Glenn Ingram, of Hastings, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents in Atkinson Tuesday, the Rev. George Longstaff of this city officiating.

Professor Clear Golden arrived here last Friday for a short visit with his father and other relatives. Clear is one of the professors in the state university. He left on Monday for the Black Hills, South Dakota, country where he will join a surveying party for the summer.

Clarence, the sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Shaw, residing about twelve miles south of O'Neill, was quite badly injured last Sunday afternoon when a horse that he was riding reared and fell backward upon him, crushing him considerably although no bones were broken.

Carl Carlson, of Norfolk, and Miss Estella M. Gill, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Stuart on March 5th and the wedding was kept a secret until after the close of school on May 23rd. The bride was a member of the graduating class. They will make their home in Norfolk, where Mr. Carlson has a position as linotype operator on the Norfolk News.

Cash Paid For Eggs

Ketchup, per bottle - 10c
3 Cans Fruit - $1.00
Washing Powder, pkg. 5c

J. C. Horiskey
We Sell SKINNER'S
the highest grade Macaroni, Spaghetti, Egg Noodles and other Macaroni Products.

O'Neill, Neb.

R. L. Drayton is installing a Radio in the bank, at Page.

Cyril Sauser came home from the state university last week.

Miss Ruth Harnish is reported to be slowly improving from her recent illness.

C. L. Wood has been quite sick at his home southeast of Page, for the past ten days.

Ralph Mellor went to Omaha Wednesday and will return with a new car for the garage.

Miss Fern Hubbard is home from Lincoln, where she has been attending the university.

John E. Salmans, of Mitchel, South Dakota, is expected here Sunday for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harnish are here from Lake Preston, South Dakota, for a visit with relatives and friends.

John Bellar came home last Saturday from Norfolk, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis some time ago.

Wallace French, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen, and Miss Mary Louis and Clifford French, was transacting business in O'Neill today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biglin went to Omaha last Tuesday, where Frank has been attending the undertakers convention which was in session the first of the week.

Miss Cora Meredith and Mrs. C. F. McKenna entertained the Martez club this evening at the home of Miss Cora. Miss Ireneia Biglin won the honors at bridge.

The Farmer's Union at Page held a social session and business meeting in the church basement Wednesday evening. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening.

R. R. Dickson was elected grand senior warden of the grand lodge of A. F. & A. M., which has been in session at Omaha this week.

About an inch of rain fell over this part of the country this afternoon and evening. Some hail accompanied the rain but did no damage in this locality.

Mrs. M. G. Blain and Mrs. Wallace French returned to Page last Tuesday evening from a three weeks visit in Oklahoma. Mrs. Blain was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Avery, at Kingfisher, and Mrs. French was attending the golden wedding of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moffat, at Yucon.

Miss Elsie Longstaff left Tuesday morning for Hastings, where she meet her sister Hilda and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Goodenberger, who had been attending the Alumni of Hastings College. They drove from Hastings to Kearney, where they made a short visit and drove from their to their home at Natoma, Kansas.

Postmaster H. U. Hubbard captured a couple of twelve year old boys last Friday night after they had broken into the postoffice at Chambers. On the previous Monday night the office had been robbed of $7.00 and on previous occasions small amounts had been taken that, in the aggregate amounted to about $50. Plans were laid to capture the intruders which was accomplished Friday evening. The boys were turned over to the postal authorities.

20 Per Cent Discount Sale.
NOW ON FOR 10 DAYS.
A lot of Ladies' Shoes, worth from $3.50 to $10, go at $1.00. Flannel gloves, 10c. Straw hats, 10c each.
E. LINDQUIST

Our Friendship Is The Real Thing

We soon tire of the person who takes no personal interest in us.

Likewise we grow indifferent towards the bank whose officers show no feeling of interest in us.

All we ask is a chance to show you that we are interested in you and can render you a valuable service.

The O'Neill National Bank
O'Neill, Nebraska
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $160,000.00
This Bank Carries No Indebtedness Of Officers Or Stockholders.

WHEREVER YOU TRAVEL
YOU'RE IN TOUCH WITH HOME

No matter where your travels take you, the State Department watches over you and is ready to protect your interests. The part which the State Department plays in our international relations is entertainingly brought out in one of the highly interesting and instructive series of illustrated folders and booklets dealing with the various departments of Our Government, which are being distributed exclusively by this Institution to all who desire them.

If your name is not on our list, send it in at once and we will gladly forward to you all the issues to date. There is no obligation expressed or implied.

Nebraska State Bank.