ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

In the successful dawn of another commencement, St. Mary's Academy has again closed its portals on a class of twenty-two students, who are going forth into the school of life, eager and willing to take up its duties, and they are followed by the prayers and wishes of their Alma Mater that life's school may deal kindly with them, and that their graduation therefrom may be filled with all the happiness and success that marked the commencement of the Class of 1922.

The commencement exercises were held Wednesday evening at the K. of C. hall, and an interesting and delightful program entertained a large, and an appreciative audience which felt a personal interest in a class that reflected all the talent, energy and beauty of ambitious youth. With the exception of the Class of 1910, this is the largest class that has ever been graduated from St. Mary's. The "Salutatory" by Miss Agnes Shoemaker, the "Class Poem" by Miss Eileen Donlin, the Class History by Miss Berenice Kuhre, and the "Valedictory" by Miss Rosalie Troshynski, were all gems of literary merit, and were delivered in a gracious, unassuming manner. The music needs no special comment as St. Mary's gives only of the best, but particularly worthy of mention were the piano solos of Miss Alice Criss, and Miss Agnes Shoemaker, and the vocal solo of Miss Irma Stout. In Miss Shoemaker's selection, she gave a beautiful interpretation of Liszt's "Rhapsody II".

After the Conferring of Honors by the Very Rev. M. F. Cassidy, the Commencement Address was delivered by the Very Rev. Father Raphael, President of Trinity College, Sioux City, Iowa. His talk held the rapt attention of the audience, and was mainly on the necessity of religious instruction being a vital part of general education. He proved that all the right-thinking, broad minded men of to-day recognize that religion is essential in the right development of youth in order to make them intelligent, moral and loyal citizens, and deplored the existing conditions of to-day brought about mainly by the absence of religious training, which is the only safeguard of the moral life. The Reverend Speaker gave all due credit to our splendid Public Schools, but emphasized the fact that education without religion is not complete.

The only incident to mar the happiness of an otherwise perfect evening was the sad absence of one of the members of the graduating class, Miss Antionette Mullen, whose father, Mr. P. D. Mullen, was called to his eternal home on the day of her graduation.

A Good Chicken House Brings Bigger Profits

You need not be a poultry expert to raise hens that produce maximum profits. A few principles carefully followed will insure bigger profits from your chickens.

One thing which is absolutely necessary, besides good equipment, is a clean properly ventilated chicken house. A concrete chicken house is permanent and sanitary, therefore economical.

Your poultry's worst enemies, rats and disease-breeding vermin, are unable to get in their work and the chickens are able to live in real quarters and grow and "lay" in the best possible manner.

PATRICK D. MULLEN.

P. D. Mullen, one of O'Neill's most esteemed and beloved citizen, died at his residence in this city Wednesday noon after an illness of several weeks duration which had been preceded by several years of ill and falling health. The announcement of his death while not unexpected nevertheless came as a shock to the entire community and still is hardly realized. There probably is no person in the city or county with a more general acquaintance and of more intimate friendships than P. D. Mullen, actively identified as he was with all civic affairs pertaining to the public good since taking up his residence in O'Neill more than thirty years ago. He served for many years as a member of the city council and for a great portion of that time as acting mayor of the city, only ceasing to hold positions of trust in the municipality when he no longer could be urged to be a candidate for the same. The community and all of its residents will sadly miss his presence and his death is mourned by all.

P. D. Mullen was 53 years of age at the time of his death, and was a native of Kingston, Ontario, from which place he came with other members of his family to O'Neill and Holt county on the family removal from Canada. He is survived by his wife and by three sons, Homer F., John C., and Owen; one daughter, Miss Antoinette; four brothers, Bernard, of Sioux Falls, S. D., Dr. George and Dr. Will, of Omaha, Thomas P., of Elgin, Nebraska, and by one sister, Mrs. S. F. McNicholls, of this city. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church Saturday morning, the Reverend M. F. Cassidy officiating. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery where four brothers, John, Michael, James and Arthur, and one sister, Mrs. Collins, already are at rest.

The Frontier joins with the entire community in extending sympathy and condolence to the surviving relatives in their great bereavement.

E. W. WILCOX.

E. W. Wilcox died suddenly at his home in Inman last Tuesday. He had been in usual good health until a few minutes before his death. Mr. Wilcox was an old settler in this part of the country and is known throughout the county. The Frontier will have the obituary next week.

Hogbuyer Prussa claims the record for hog shipment. During the first nine days of June he bought and shipped thirteen cars of hogs.

H. J. Porter, of Chambers, is the latest entrant into the race for legislative office. Thursday at the earnest solicitation of friends Mr. Porter filed for the republican nomination for representative for Holt county.

R. H. Harris, prominent republican leader of Boyd county and at present serving as state senator from the Twenty-fourth district for the unexpired portion of the term of the United States Marshal Dennis H. Cronin, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for senator from the district. Other candidates for the republican nomination are Representative Brantley Stuyklevant of Atkinson and W. W. Bethea of Ewing.

A double wedding occurred in Neligh Wednesday that will be of interest to many of our readers. The contracting parties were Miss Blanche Hannah M. Steiner to Rev. Minar A. Gerrard, and Miss Helen Metta Steiner to William H. Ziegenbein. The former couple will spend the summer at Bristow where Rev. Gerrard is preaching, but, we understand, he contemplates going to a seminary this fall. The latter couple will be at home to their friends on a farm near Royal. The Frontier extends congratulations.
