

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLII.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1922.

NO. 4.

Strawberries

At Grady's Store

PURITAN
BACON

Cash Paid For Eggs

BARRINGTON
HALL
COFFEE

Ben Grady, Grocer

We Sell SKINNERS The Highest Grade Macaroni Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Products

PHONES 68-126

Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell returned from Omaha last Monday.

Wm. Clark, of Page, was in Plainview the first of the week.

J. C. Harnish is erecting a new metallic ceiling at the Variety store.

J. C. Gallagher returned from a two week's visit with friends in Albia and Des Moines, Iowa.

Dan Cronin came up from Omaha last week for a visit with O'Neill relatives and friends.

A ten pound sun arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davidson Wednesday afternoon.

Hogbayer Prussa shipped a car of hogs to Chicago and one to Omaha markets last Saturday.

Mrs. John Sullivan went to Norfolk Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Tom Grady.

Mrs. Bryan Simmons spent last week at the home of her parents northwest of Chambers.

Wm. Clark, George E. Hunter, C. M. Stevens and Lee Taylor, of Page, were O'Neill visitors yesterday.

S. O. Campbell and C. E. Ferdig, of Page, were transacting business in the county metropolis Tuesday.

Mrs. L. F. Sougey returned last Thursday from a two week's visit with relatives in Omaha and Lincoln.

Mrs. M. M. Davis and daughters, Miss Fern and Mrs. Lyle Roberge, of Page, were O'Neill visitors Tuesday.

Pete Hereford and wife returned Saturday night from a visit to the former's old home at Clarinda, Iowa.

Jerry Scott came down from Rushville Sunday and visited for a short time with his brother, Attorney C. B. Scott.

Attorney P. J. Donohoe, of Bonesteel, South Dakota, was visiting relatives in O'Neill last Saturday.

Mrs. George Longstaff entertained a number of friends at a six o'clock dinner on the lawn, Monday evening.

Mrs. R. R. Dickson and daughter Miss Marjorie, went down to Omaha last week for a visit with friends.

Mrs. Edw. Campbell was hostess to the Martez club Monday evening. Miss Mae Hammond won the honors at bridge.

Mrs. O. K. Tickler returned home last Friday from an extended visit with her parents at Harvard, Nebraska.

Floyd W. Brainard, of Stuart, and Miss Nellie Stewart, were granted a marriage license by Judge Malone Wednesday.

Chambers Sun: Dr. Oxford has received a beautiful imported golden clock that runs fourteen months with one winding.

Chambers Sun: Harry Cooper is at Celfax, Iowa, where he is receiving treatment, at a government hospital, for rheumatism.

Judge R. R. Dickson is in Valentine this week holding court for Judge Westover who was obliged to hold court elsewhere.

Mrs. Wm. McManus, of Chadron, arrived in the city Tuesday morning to spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives here.

Chambers Sun: The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Sears, residing about five miles southwest of Chain Lake, passed away Monday, June 12th at 10 p. m., after being in this world about four hours.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Walker and daughter, Miss Ethel, of Page, were visiting in O'Neill yesterday at the Dr. Burgess home.

Judge R. R. Dickson was in Long Pine Friday evening conferring with the receiver of the defunct Commercial Bank, of Long Pine.

A marriage license was granted Monday to William Joseph Wilkinson and Miss Mary Genevieve McCarthy, both of Atkinson, Nebraska.

Mrs. S. C. Twamley went to Tilden Sunday where she will nurse an old friend. Mrs. Twamley has been a practical nurse for a number of years.

George Bradt is tearing down the barn on his residence lots in the southeast part of town and contemplates erecting a fire proof garage.

Casper Herald: A. E. Biglin suffered a broken and smashed thumb when he fell from a horse last Sunday. He is still carrying his hand in a bandage.

Jack Ritts and Miss Leona Schriener, both of Newport, were united in marriage at the court house, Saturday, June 24th, by County Judge Malone.

Real Estate dealer S. L. Berry last week sold the John S. Keepers ranch, five miles north of Chambers, to W. L. McAllister, of Lincoln, for $15,000 cash.

Miss Florence McCafferty has been assisting in the county agents office during the past ten days while Miss Helen Donohoe has been enjoying the mumps.

The taxpayers organization met with the supervisors at the court Wednesday for the purpose of equalizing the assessment in the different precincts.

Nine car loads of corn-feed fat cattle were shipped to the Omaha markets Monday. Cattle shipments are frequent but not this grade of stuff as a rule.

Atkinson Graphic: A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cotton, June 15th. A baby boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Liably on June 18th.

M. H. Todd and son, Herman, of Emmet, were in O'Neill last Saturday making arrangements for the big picnic and celebration at Emmet on the 4th of July.

Mrs. W. T. Evans returned Monday evening from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Rhodes, at Omaha. Her grandson, John Ralph Evans returned with her.

Mrs. Lawrence Malone, of Washington, D. C., is visiting with her mother in Omaha. She will visit relatives and friends in O'Neill before returning to the east.

One correspondent at Colorado Springs announces the fact that Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pettibone, of Sidney, Nebraska, formerly of O'Neill, are stopping at one of the leading hotels of that city.

Mrs. F. L. Wilson, of Stuart, slipped and fell as she was alighting from a car about ten days ago, and dislocated her arm at the elbow. She was taken to Norfolk for an X-ray examination.

McMillan & Markey have opened "The Subway" their new lunch room which is located in the basement of the bakery. The furniture and furnishings are white and present a very classy appearance.

Atkinson Graphic: Mrs. Robert Riley left Monday for Deadwood, South Dakota, to see her mother, Mrs. Emma Compton, whose home is at Deadwood, and who was seriously hurt June 11th in an auto accident and may not recover.

Miss Margaret Burns, who visited at the J. W. Hickey home for a few days, left last Monday for her home in Tonapah, Nevada. Miss Burns is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy, and has been attending school there for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Finch and family, who reside near Springview, Nebraska, stopped in O'Neill, Wednesday for a short visit with friends. They were enroute to their old home at St. Edwards, Nebraska, for a few days visit with relatives.

Mrs. Neil P. Brennan entertained twelve friends at a theatre party at the Royal followed by luncheon and dancing at the home of Miss Bernadette Brennan, Thursday evening of last week, complimentary to Miss Louise Worth, a niece of Mrs. Brennan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Renschler, of Springview, Nebraska, arrived here Monday. Mrs. Renschler, formerly Miss Bea O'Donnell, will spend a few days with her mother. Mr. Renschler and Edw. O'Donnell went to Omaha Tuesday with the expectations of returning with a new car.

James Davis, Ed Peterson, James Davidson, Jack Davidson, Ed Burge and Zeb Warner will start for Marsh lake in Cherry county, next Sunday morning. They will be joined at Ainsworth by Dan Davis, who will pilot the party to the supposed good fishing ground. They expect to be absent a week at least.

The residents of O'Neill were aroused from slumber last Saturday morning at 2 o'clock by the fire whistle announcing a fire at the pump house. An overheated exhaust pipe was the cause of the blaze which was extinguished without much damage except to the roof and one of the large drive belts.

Stuart Advocate: Sunday afternoon Lee Spillman's little daughter Gayle and W. S. Arter's baby boy, Harold, had a narrow escape from death by poisoning. The little children were playing at the Clyde Lane place northeast of Stuart, when they discovered some mercuric bichloride. Gayle proceeded to feed it to little Harold with the result that a physician had to be called whose prompt action saved the child's life. Children seem to have a knack of finding poison no matter where it is hidden.

Miss Gertrude Donovan arrived in the city Tuesday evening from St. Paul, Minnesota, for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Finley.

The large, new farm residence of C. W. Hall near Stuart, was destroyed by fire on the 16th. The daughter fell while carrying a gasoline lamp; the lamp exploded setting fire to the contents of the house in a very few seconds. Miss Hall was not burned seriously. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The stork again visited this community last Monday leaving two boys and a girl at three of our homes. A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Flaharty, of Blackbird; a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jurgenmiers, at Emmet; and a girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John P. Riley, residing about seven miles north of O'Neill.

About a dozen members of the local Masonic order went to Stuart Friday night where they attended a county gathering of the members of the order. One hundred members from different parts of the county were present. Following the speaking the Eastern Stars served a banquet which was followed by a theatre party.

Miss Marguerite, Miss Leona and Miss Genevieve Evans, sisters of Mrs. Lawrence Malone, drove up from their home at Omaha the last of the week and spent several days at the C. J. Malone home in O'Neill, and at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Tavener, at Page. They returned home Monday accompanied by Miss Mildred Malone.

The Frontier printed some large bills, Tuesday, advertising the big time at Emmet next Tuesday. The Emmet boys are planning on a large crowd at their picnic and celebration. A regular old time celebration is planned. Bronco busting, horse racing, base ball and other amusements will take place during the afternoon. Read their advertisement on the front page.

Mrs. Sheridan Simmons and daughter, Mrs. Robert Cook, went to North Bend Monday where they will visit with their daughter and sister.

C. R. Pettijohn came down from his ranch near Stuart on Wednesday of last week and remained here until Tuesday morning. Chas. says that they have had plenty of rain there this spring and when he left home last week the hay meadows were too wet to mow.

The Cotterill Sisters, Misses Alice, Bess and Florence, are now radio entertainers and have been giving concerts for the General Electric broadcasting station at Schenectady, New York, but are in Los Angeles at the present time, where they are nightly entertaining the people of the western part of the United States. The sisters have a wide reputation and are among the leading entertainers of the country today.

Attorney George F. Rose, Chas. Peterson and Chas. Miller, all of Genoa, Nebraska, were in O'Neill, on business Monday. Attorney Rose is an old friend of the editor, formerly of Fullerton, Nebraska, and we acknowledge a pleasant visit. Mr. Miller made his home in this locality a number of years ago when homesteading was a popular sport in Holt county, he was also shaking hands with old friends.

The Jolly Seven arranged a picnic for the girls, at the Country Club, last Sunday afternoon but on account of the rain the party was adjourned to the American Legion club rooms. A theatre party at the Royal followed the picnic dinner. Those present were: Misses Helen Willcox, Irma and Demaris Stout, Mariam Gilligan, Ida Chapman, Genevieve Biglin and Florence McCafferty; Messrs. Julius Cronin, Frank Froelich, Will Froelich, Cecil Conklin, Joe Weekes, Ed. O'Connell and George Harrington.

One of those grand and glorious rains began falling last Sunday morning and continued at intervals during the day. Rain Collector Bowen reports the official registration of 1.85 inches. Mr. Bowen was seriously contemplating sending the gauge to the department and getting a thermometer with a longer tube. Harry says he is ashamed to draw his salary each month without giving any information to the ones higher up, but however, that feeling has passed away since Sunday and when Sheriff Duffy lands another helper for him he will start mowing the lawn again.

Chambers Sun: An old time resident of Amelia, John Dickerson, who left here several years ago, was called to the great beyond last week. He had been in poor health for some time and all that medical aid and loving hearts could do was of no avail. John was a good neighbor and true friend to all who knew him, always ready to lend a helping hand. We join with the relatives in their bereavement and may, by his passing away, be the means of drawing them all nearer to God. Most of the children and step-children were present at the end.

Ellsworth Hunter, of Page, received a broken collar bone Wednesday evening of last week when an auto in which he was riding overturned on the U. T. Pass trail near Manitau, Colorado. Ellsworth, in company with four college chums from Wesleyan, drove to Estes Park to attend a convention of the Y. M. C. A. and on the return trip were taking in the sights when the accident happened. No further particulars have been received other than he is getting along nicely and will return home on the train as soon as the doctor will release him from the hospital.

The road work on the project running north from O'Neill, has been completed, and the work on the bridges is also finished with the exception of putting on the railing. The bridge contractors are expected to start putting on the railing next week and have the project ready to turn

Big Picnic!

July 4

— AT —

Emmet, Nebr.

SPEAKING AT 11:00 A. M.

BRING YOUR PICNIC DINNER WITH YOU and enjoy a good, old fashioned celebration.

HORSE RACES, AND MINOR SPORTS IN THE afternoon. Liberal Prizes.

BRONCHO BUSTING CONTEST
good prize to winner.

THREE DAY CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM
beginning at 2:00 p. m., July 4th.

BASE BALL GAME AT 3:00 P. M.
Emmet vs. Spencer.

PAVILION DANCE AFTERNOON & EVENING

FIREWORKS IN THE EVENING

Everybody Welcome. Committee In Charge.

over to the federal inspector in about thirty days. The work on the federal road between Ewing and the county line was started this week and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. Foreman George Stine has been sent to Stuart to take charge of the federal project near that place and work will soon begin.

MISS MARSA ZIEMER MARRIED.

Mrs. J. E. Salmans, nee Miss Marsa Ziemer, left Saturday for Mitchell, South Dakota, where she will join her husband, J. E. Salmans and Miss Marsa were married in Madison county on April 17th and their wedding was kept secret until a few days ago when Mrs. Salmans announced the fact to her mother. They will make their home in Mitchell.

HUMPHREY OUT OF RACE FOR CONGRESS

(Norfolk News.)
Lincoln, Neb., June 26.—Judge A. R. Humphrey, of Broken Bow, Republican candidate for the nomination as congressman from the sixth congressional district today filed a withdrawal notice with Secretary of State Darius M. Amsberry.

It was openly hinted at the state house today that Judge Humphrey's support would go to Judge Bruno O. Hostetler, of Kearney. It is the opinion of a number of state house officials here that Judge Humphrey might fill Judge Hostetler's place on the district court bench in the event that the latter is nominated on the Republican ticket for congress.

TAXPAYERS LEAGUE MEETING.

The next meeting of the Taxpayers League will be held at the Court House in O'Neill, Saturday, July 8th, at 2 p. m. All taxpayers whether business men or farmers requested to attend as business of importance to every taxpayer will be considered.

S. O. CAMPBELL, Chairman.
JOHN A. ROBERTSON, Secy.

Subscribe for The Frontier and keep posted upon the affairs of this great county of ours.

WHEREVER YOU TRAVEL
YOU'RE IN TOUCH WITH HOME

No matter where your travels take you, the State Department watches over you and is ready to protect your interests. The part which the State Department plays in our international relations is entertainingly brought out in one of the highly interesting and instructive series of illustrated folders and booklets dealing with the various departments of Our Government, which are being distributed exclusively by this Institution to all who desire them.

If your name is not on our list, send it in at once and we will gladly forward to you all the issues to date. There is no obligation expressed or implied.

Nebraska State Bank.

OUR INTEREST IN

HOME PEOPLE

Our object is friend-making as well as surplus building and we are not interested in any business that does not in some way mean profit to our home people.

We invite business on this basis.

The

O'Neill National Bank

O'Neill, Nebraska

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $150,000.00.

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stock holders.