MOSES P. KINKAID

Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid, of this city died at a hospital in Washington, D. C., at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, following an operation Wednesday evening. Burial will be in Prospect Hill cemetery, this city.

Word of the serious illness of Judge Kinkaid was received in a telegram to Judge C. J. Malone early Thursday morning and a few hours later came the following telegram to S. J. Weekes from Lawrence Malone, secretary to Judge Kinkaid:

"Judge Kinkaid died at 9 o'clock this morning. Body will be taken to O'Neill. Kindly make necessary local arrangements.

Although it was known that Judge Kinkaid has been seriously ill for several months, the announcement of the death of O'Neill's most prominent and beloved citizen comes as a shock to the entire community. Ill health caused his withdrawal as a candidate for renomination and election to congress several weeks ago and he gradually had been growing weaker since that announcement. Last Thursday he was removed to the hospital at which he died.

Judge Kinkaid was born in Monongalia county, West Virginia, but his biography does not give the date of his birth. He came to O'Neill in the late seventies and engaged in the practice of law. He was elected to the state senate in 1883 and to the district bench in 1887, serving as district judge until and including the year 1896. His first election to congress was in 1902, to the 58th session, and he continued to represent the Sixth congressional district, the largest district in the state, since that time until his death. No man in Nebraska enjoyed a more general and personal acquaintance than did Judge Kinkaid and his congressional colleagues say of him that he enjoyed the same respect, love and esteem in Washington, as he did at home.

Local arrangements for the funeral, which will be in charge of S. J. Weekes, await the receipt of further intelligence from Washington.

FOR SHERIFF.

I wish to announce to the voters in the republican primaries July 18, 1922, that I am a candidate for the nomination for the office of sheriff of this county.

I was born and raised in Holt county and have made it my home all my life. I was born on a farm near Chambers in 1887, and Chambers was my home until nine years ago when I came to O'Neill. For the past seven years I have carried the mail between O'Neill and Chambers. I also have been in the automobile business for the past six years, three years of that time I was associated with J. J. Thomas, but the past three years I have been conducting the business myself.

I am a married man with a family of three children. If you want a man for sheriff that is not afraid to do his duty, I ask your support at the primary.
