

"Oh, Buddy boy! Look what Mother went and put into the lunch basket—a whole whopping big package of Kellogg's Corn Flakes! Buddy, I believe I can eat just about twice as much as you do—my, how I love Kellogg's!"

Time to stop eating heavy food!

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

wonderful for the whole family

Nature rebels against heavy foods in warm weather. Much illness in summer is caused by overtaxing the stomach. Change your diet—and keep snappy in mind and muscle!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes with cold milk and fresh fruit are wonderful for the hot days—for breakfast, for lunch, for supper or for "snacks." Eat generously of Kellogg's because they digest without taxing the stomach and supply all the nourishment the body needs.

For children, for the workers and for the aged there is no more delicious, sustaining food than Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Realize what they mean to health!

Insist upon Kellogg's Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package bearing the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

Also makers of KELLOGG'S KRUMBLES and KELLOGG'S BRAN, cooked and krumbled

MARINELLO.

Oh! Yes. Those are preparations used by the best Beauty Shops, is a common expression. Women have confidence in them—Why? There is a beauty aid for every need. Every article has a reputation of its own. Not shallow-brained dabblers, or muddling mixers produced Marinello, but Specialists, familiar with need of Beauty, work with expert chemists in the development of preparations founded on a sound scientific basis.

Countless tests are made, results critically observed. Then a series of severest possible tests conducted by the expert department of Marinello school before any preparation is finally placed on the market. This is what you get when you use Marinello. Treatments given and full line of preparations at Mrs. Cole's Beauty Shop, 13-1.

KIRWIN-KELLOGG.

Michael F. Kirwin and Mrs. Irene M. Kellogg were married Tuesday, August 22, 1922, by Judge Sherman McKinley, at Dakota City, Nebraska.

The contracting parties are well known to the people of this community where they have lived for a number of years.

They will make their home in the bride's residence in the west part of O'Neill.

Their many friends extend congratulations and wish them much joy and happiness.

S. J. WEEKES RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

S. J. Weekes returned home last Saturday evening, from Washington, D. C., where he had been for the past three weeks looking after the estate of the late Congressman M. P. Kinkaid. By reason of the arbitrary action of a Trust Co., in Washington, with whom Judge Kinkaid had an account and other property in a safe deposit box, which they refused to deliver, Mr. Weekes was compelled to go into court with ancillary probate proceedings and be appointed Administrator in the District of Columbia as well as Nebraska. Other banks in Washington and the federal government transferred the Judge's property without question, on the certificate from the Probate Court of Holt county. This, the Munsey Trust Co., refused to do and by reason of their action necessitated a double administration of Judge Kinkaid's estate.

Mr. Weekes states that, while in Washington, he called the attention of a number of congressmen to this apparent injustice and several of them indicated their intention of introducing legislation looking to the elimination of this sort of practice in the District of Columbia.

No will was found among the Judge's effects in Washington and it seems now quite apparent that no will was made. In the absence of a will the estate will be divided among the heirs in accordance with the law of descent of the State of Nebraska. The estate, much of which is of doubtful value, is very much scattered, being located in Canada, Old Mexico and ten different states in the union.

HORSE AND BUGGY DEMOLISHED BY CAR

Another of those lucky accidents occurred about one-half mile north of the fair grounds Saturday evening between eight and nine o'clock, when a Ford car driven by Lew Morris, accompanied by his wife and Bernard Bay, ran into a horse and buggy owned by Mr. Morrow, who resides three miles northeast of town. In the buggy were Cecil and Leonard Morrow, George Hanley and Cletus Sullivan, who were coming to town. The boys, it appears, were partly in the ditch on the west side of the road in their endeavor to get out of the way of the coming car. The driver of the car failed to see the horse and buggy in time to avert the accident. The boys jumped from the buggy and were uninjured, the horse received a badly broken leg and was later shot. The buggy was demolished.

ART WYANT'S AUTO BURNED TUESDAY NIGHT

One of the cars used by Art Wyant on the mail route caught on fire Tuesday evening and was burned beyond servability. The accident occurred near the fair ground. A defective exhaust pipe is given as the cause for the fire.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses shown Alfred Abart during his late illness and death, and for many acts of sympathy shown us. Mrs. J. L. Crawford and family.

Miss Kamille Uhl went to Stafford Tuesday to visit Miss Bowman.

Today is the hottest day that has been known in this part of the country for a number of years. The thermometer registered 106 in the shade this afternoon. Thursday of last week was the next hottest day that has been recorded here when the mercury went to 103.

LINEMAN SCOFIELD RECEIVES 1200 VOLTS

Hanging in midair with one hand holding onto a trunk wire and the other holding a ground wire causing a current of 1200 volts of electricity to pass through his body was the unenjoyable predicament that befell Lineman Scofield while working on the electric light company's lines in the northeast part of town last Friday. Scofield thoughtlessly took hold of the ground wire while adjusting himself for the purpose of making a connection. He remained in this suspended position until the current passing through his body reduced the power enough so that his weight pulled his hands from the wires and he fell to the ground sustaining a slight injury to his leg, but otherwise unhurt.

AN OLD RELIC OF LINCOLN'S TIME

S. J. Weekes of this city, while in Washington recently, took occasion to visit and see many places and things of historic interest.

While standing in the bedroom where President Lincoln died after being shot in the Ford Theatre, Mr. Weekes was impressed by a unique sale bill which hung upon the wall of this room. This sale bill was not a description of chattels in the modern sense, but a sale of human beings. It is difficult for this generation to realize that such a condition could exist so short a time ago. It so impressed Mr. Weekes that he made a copy of the sale bill in full which is as follows:

"Estate Sale: By order of the Executor of the late Dr. J. W. Schmidt, by Alonzo J. White. On Tuesday, the 17th day of January, 1854—at the North of the Custom House at 11 o'clock, will be sold the families, the following entire gang of 101 Prime Negroes.

"Conditions: One third cash, balance three equal installments, with interest from date of sale, payable annually, secured by Bonds and mortgages of property sold, and approved personal security. Purchaser to pay for requisite papers."

A description of each of the 101 negroes follows in families of from three to eight each.

"No. 1 described as Kate—Old nurse—age 75.

"No. 57 described as Witty Bill (left thumb off) age 60.

"No. 85 described as Joe—(a carpenter, ruptured) age 50."

Among the list are five infants under twelve months of age. "Negro Market Letter" dated at Richmond, September 15, 1857, quoting the prices for negroes, which prices run from $500 to $1,550. The low price of $500 is on four girls four years old. The top quotation of $1,550 is for an "Extra Man."

cent of the corn crop in this part of the county.

This vicinity was represented at the ball game at Lynch recently. It was well attended and a real game. The score: Lynch 2, all Nationals 8.

The Wertz farm added three registered Aberdeen Angus cattle to their herd recently; purchasing them at Fullerton, Nebraska.

Haying weather conducive for the work, and those interested are making good use of the time, judging by the number of stacks on the hay meadows.

A. C. Mohr and two daughters, of Spencer, Nebraska, were visiting in this part of the country Saturday, returning to Spencer Tuesday. Mr. Mohr is remembered by the old settlers, having filed on land in 1878.

He was the Hainsville postmaster for several years.

Dissatisfaction appears to be general with the existing condition relative to service on two of the local telephone lines. The difficulty being the connection between the lines. The matter has been referred to the Railway Commission and no doubt will be settled satisfactory to all concerned.

SPRING VALLEY.

These hot days are drying up the corn very rapidly.

Chas. Downey, of O'Neill, was in this vicinity last week.

Hay is of extra good quality this year but is not so plentiful as in former years.

Cooler Tuesday evening and we began to wonder what we had done over our summer's wages.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Blain, who has been in the navy for some time, is home on a visit.

The Antelope slough is a very busy place these days. New residences (tents) springing up in a day. Haying crews are the occupants.

From the Venus item of last week we learn that Wm. West was called to LaPorte, Colorado, to attend the funeral of one of his brothers. We knew him as a good and kind neighbor.

A large crowd is reported at the Wm. Anderson dance Saturday night. Generally speaking there is about two girls to one boy at most of the dances but the conditions seem to have been reversed Saturday night according to reports.

Wayne Leonard, who has been staying with his uncle near Chambers for the past year and attending school, stopped at the M. A. Summers ranch recently, on his way to his home at Parker, South Dakota. He is making the trip on horseback.

Louise Shenoest, of Creighton, was a visitor at the Summer's home Sunday. He lost his coat coming over but an honest neighbor found it. He returned home after the ball game with a good opinion of our people. Venus won the ball game.

Potatoes potatoes everywhere. That's good for the farmers who have to buy their potatoes, and many of them have done so during the past two years. That is extremely bad. During those celebrated dry years many of our neighbors as well as ourselves had plenty of tubers.

The Dodd boys built a smudge to keep the mosquitoes away during the warm night. The scheme worked alright until one night the wind came up and fanned the coals into flames and scattered them around with the result that the tent and contents went up in smoke. The fire was prevented from spreading and no damage was done to the hay meadows.

Mrs. O. S. Marshall arrived here from Casper, Wyoming, Saturday morning for a visit with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Summers. She is on her way to visit her aged parents who reside at Blair, Nebraska. She will visit in Orchard while here. Mrs. Summers is expecting a visit soon from another sister who also lives in Wyoming and who was responsible for the capture of the notorious "chain man," Fred Brown, who occupied the front pages of the newspapers for several weeks this spring.

EMMETT CORRESPONDENCE.
