

At Grady's Store

PURITAN
BACON

Cash Paid For Eggs

BARRINGTON
HALL
COFFEE

Ben Grady, Grocer

W. SKINNERS The Highest Grade Macaroni
Sells Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Product

PHONES 68-126

C. W. Moss was down from Atkinson Saturday.

Wm. Cronin came up from Omaha Tuesday evening.

Chas. Barnum, of Neligh, was an O'Neill visitor Monday.

Jeff Yelton, of Lincoln, spent Sunday with the Beha family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dishner have moved to rooms in the Annex.

George Tomlinson was in from the Mineola neighborhood Monday.

Homer Mullen came up from Lincoln, Saturday, for a visit with friends.

Lee Hunter and R. L. Drayton, of Page, were O'Neill visitors last Friday.

Miss Fern Hubbard expects to return to the state university next Tuesday.

Mrs. L. B. Parkinson is visiting with Mrs. F. C. Johnson at South Sioux City.

Art Brazell returned Friday from a business trip to the southern part of the state.

W. S. McDonald, J. H. Moore, J. H. Tucker and son, Roy, drove up from Page Friday.

Labor Day was duly observed in O'Neill by the closing of the court house and banks.

Miss Mary Pangel, of Norfolk, was a guest at the R. R. Dickson home several days last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Minar Girrard, of Bristow, were visiting at the H. A. Polk home last Friday.

Clarence and Archie Faulhaber started for Denver, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives.

Les Hough came down from his homestead in Wyoming last week for a visit with O'Neill friends.

Father Cassidy and Edw. O'Donnell returned Friday from a five days' trip to Hot Springs, South Dakota.

Tom Donlin came over from his home on the Niobrara river, Saturday, and spent a couple of days here.

Mr. Page, representing the Geneva Land Company, was in O'Neill Tuesday looking after land business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Colligan and children moved to South Sioux City last Thursday where they will reside in the future.

County Judge Malone issued a marriage license Saturday to Frank Walter and Miss Minnie Torey, both of Ewing.

Edward D. Smith and Miss Cecil R. Lowery, both of Chambers, were granted a license to wed, Tuesday afternoon.

Sam Berry reports that the Paul Kotke place has been traded to some parties for a quarter section near Cedar, Nebraska.

Mrs. Clifford B. Scott arrived home last week from an extended visit with her parents at Vancouver, Washington.

Dr. George Mullen, of Omaha, has been in this territory the past two weeks assisting P. C. Donohoe in the insurance business.

R. J. Marsh came home Saturday from a two week's stay at Battle Creek, Nebraska, where he has been writing life insurance.

John Mullen returned the first of the week from Lincoln where he was visiting with his mother and incidentally "taking in" the state fair.

Judge R. R. Dickson was in Omaha last Saturday attending the funeral services for the late grand master of the Masonic order, Edward M. Wellman.

Will Stannard and sister, Mrs. Max Janes, of Bakersfield, California, accompanied by Miss Kathleen Stannard, of Denver, arrived here last Sunday for a two weeks' visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Stannard.

Clear Golden arrived here last Saturday from the Black Hills country where he has been with a party of government surveyors during the summer. Clear is down on the ranch near Ewing working in the hay field this week.

Humphrey Democrat: Tony Heinen drove to Norfolk last Friday and there met his sister, Mrs. Fred Muetting, of O'Neill, who is a guest this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hienen, and with other relatives in this community.

Mrs. Owen Wade died at her home in Norfolk about noon Sunday, at the age of eighty-eight years. She was the mother of P. P. Wade, of South City, for many years a resident of Page, Nebraska, where he operated a grain and coal business.

Mr. and Mrs. Therlow Lord and little daughter, of Santa Ana, California, have been visiting Mrs. Lord's mother, Mrs. Hoffman, at Page, for the past week. They came to O'Neill Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clauson and Mrs. Shaw.

Stuart friends have received the announcement of the marriage of Alvan Fayette Daland, of Lincoln, and Myrna Carmen Redenbaugh, formerly of Stuart, Wednesday, August 23. The wedding took place in Council Bluffs, Iowa. They will reside in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McNabb, of Page, were in Orchard on Sunday of last week where they attended a gathering of relatives and friends at the home of their son, D. B. Relatives were present from different points in the state and from Bloomington, Illinois.

Stuart Advocate: Verdel, the little seven-year-old son of Joseph Zink, living south of Newport, had his right hand crushed by a pulley of a hay stacker last Friday evening and was brought to the Wilson Hospital where it was found necessary to amputate the index finger.

Humphrey Democrat: Up in Holt county there is a man by the name of McGill. He is a tax payer, and not a great while ago he called at the office of the county treasurer and said, "I want to pay McGill's taxes." The treasurer replied, "All right, what is your girl's name."

Hugh O'Neill accompanied by Rev. Wabs, Carl Grant and C. W. Grant, came down from the village of Ancar Monday afternoon. The two Mr. Grants had been visiting friends in the Ancar neighborhood and stopped in O'Neill a short time on the way to their home at Dorsey.

L. E. Wertz came down from Scotts Bluffs, Nebraska, Tuesday morning for a visit with his parents, at Star, until Saturday afternoon. L. E. is working in the refineries of the Great Western Sugar Co. He says there is a big crop of beets in the western part of the state this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pound came up from Omaha last Thursday and remained at the home of Mrs. Pound's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Downey, until Saturday when they drove to Cut Meat, South Dakota, where Mrs. Pound will teach in the public schools this year. Mr. Pound also has employment there.

Merle Spindler, aged about sixteen years, living in the Phoenix neighborhood, received a very severe cut on his right thigh when his Ford runabout turned over with him last Sunday. He was taken to Atkinson for medical attention. The accident was caused by the breaking of the hub on a front wheel.

R. S. Miller, of Wagner, South Dakota, stopped in O'Neill last Thursday for a short visit with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Simmons. He returning from a overland trip to Grand Island and North Bend, Nebraska, and reports that the corn in the south Platte county, is practically ruined by the continued drought.

Thomas Hynes and daughter, Mrs. Nell McCormick, of Norden, Nebraska, spent Thursday night and Friday visiting with their many O'Neill relatives and friends. Mr. Hynes was one of the original colony that located here with General O'Neill in 1874. Mr. Hynes makes regular visits to O'Neill and enjoys meeting the few remaining members of the party of the early settlers.

Sheriff Duffy accompanied Jack Hoff to the penitentiary last Monday. Hoff has been occupying a cell at the county jail here for the past two months on account of the crowded condition of the state penitentiary. He received a sentence some months ago in Judge Dickson's court for carrying a gun with presumably a malicious intent.

About one hundred of the friends and relatives of John Moler gathered at his home last Sunday for the purpose of assisting him to properly celebrate the seventy-second anniversary of his birth. An enjoyable day was spent. Mr. Moler is enjoying exceptionally good health and was able to assist Mell Putnam up-up hay the next day.

Stuart Advocate: Monday of this week, about twenty-five of the neighbors of Mrs. Phillip Kopp, jr., appeared at her home, with their mowers, rakes and all other necessary implements, mowed, raked and stacked the hay on a quarter section of her land. That is the kind of neighborly spirit that is admired and appreciated by everyone.

Atkinson Graphic: Mrs. A. B. Roy and little daughter left Friday for their home in Blackfoot, Idaho. Mrs. Roy has been visiting the past three months here with her sisters, Mrs. Sammons, Mrs. Wm. Weller, Mrs. John McCaffrey, and also with a sister, Mrs. Joseph Rooney, of Valentine, and a sister-in-law Mrs. James Pinkerman, of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ziemer drove to Lincoln Tuesday where they will spend the remainder of the week attending the state fair. Phil says that this will be the first year that he has attended the fair as a visitor. In former years he has conducted an eating stand which occupied most of his time. They will visit different points in the state before returning.

A combination gas and oil stove created considerable excitement at the H. A. Derby home northeast of town near the fair ground, Tuesday morning. Draperies near the stove became ignited and things took on the appearance of a regular fire. Mr. Derby happened to be at home at the time and by prompt action the fire was extinguished without much damage.

The Norfolk Division of the Federal court will convene in Norfolk on September 18th. The jury will report on September 20th. Those from Holt county who are drawn on the jury are: W. L. Evans, O'Neill; D. C. Garey, Inman; J. M. Alderson, Chambers; Edward L. Melchor, Stafford; E. C. McKay, Ewing; L. M. Rhodes, Stuart; John Steinhauer, Dorsey; Leon R. Tompkins, Inman.

The O'Neill Concert band held another of those enjoyable concerts in the band stand on the court house lawn Tuesday evening before a very large and enthusiastic audience. The boys appreciate the loud and ringing applause given them by the crowd. The band has recently acquired considerable new popular music and enjoy playing the regular weekly concerts. Come out and hear them.

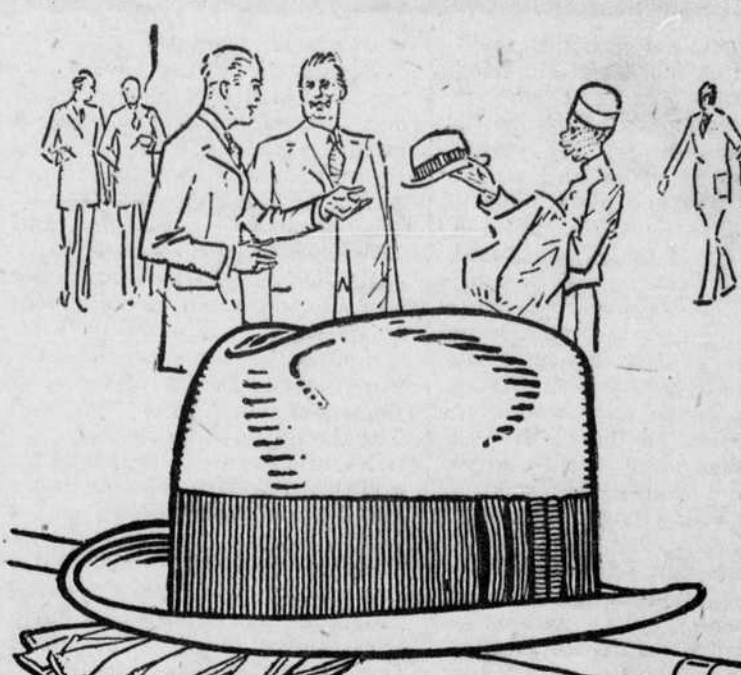

Chambers Sun: The sad news was received in Chambers Sunday, that Claude Cooke had passed away, at noon that day, at Elgin. The remains were brought to his parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Cooke, Monday and funeral services held at the M. E. church Tuesday at 2 p. m. Interment in Chambers cemetery. Obituary will appear in the next issue. The bereaved have the sympathy of the entire community.

A. Snell, of Page, accompanied by his sons, Rollie and Roy, were in O'Neill last Friday looking after business matters. Mr. Snell was one of the very early settlers of this county, locating at Page when there was but few residents in the county. Mr. Snell is one of the few remaining old soldiers of the rebellion and can recite many interesting stories that took place during his several years of service that are amusing now but were concrete realities during those trying times.

The Nebraska State Railway Commission have started an investigation of potato shipping rates from points in northern and northwestern Nebraska, to points in the eastern part of the state, over the C. & N. W. and C. St. P. M. & O. Ry. The hearing is set for Monday, September 18th, at 10:00 o'clock, in the forenoon, at Lincoln, Nebraska. Citizens who are interested are cordially invited to be present and an opportunity will be afforded to make such showing in the matter as may be desired.

Game Warden E. Heinzelman brought George Rowse and Russell Graves into Frank Campbell's justice court last Thursday where Rowse received a fine of $150.00 and costs for shooting three ducks out of season; the latter was fined $15.00 and costs for fishing without a license. After further study of the game laws Justice Campbell decided that the fine for shooting ducks out of season was but $25.00 and has notified Mr. Rowse to that effect. Mr. Rowse and Mr. Graves reside near Swan lake, in the southwest part of the county.

W. S. DeVall, residing about eighteen miles north of O'Neill, near the Meek postoffice, was in O'Neill Monday exhibiting a branch of a tree containing a blue colored fruit about the size of the ordinary wild plum, but which tastes altogether different from the ordinary plum. Those who claim to know say that it is a small prune. Mr. DeVall obtained the tree from a nursery about twelve years ago with a shipment of fruit trees. This is the second time that the tree has borne fruit; the first time only a small amount but this time he estimates the crop at about six bushels. Mr. DeVall left the branch at this office along with three of the largest Johnathan apples that we have seen in a long time. He says that the apple crop is extra good this year, especially where the orchards have been sprayed and properly taken care of.

STETSON HATS

Styled for Young Men

A strong stock of these hats in the above models which completes your classified dress. At the "Home of Good Merchandise."

P. J. McManus

SALE BILLS—THE BEST AT THE FRONTIER.

"Seal Brand"
The Coffee of Universal Appeal

In the camp—
the pot of gold at the end of the long trail—
because of its rich, full, satisfying strength.

CHASE & SANBORN'S
SEAL BRAND COFFEE

In 1 and 2 pound cans. Never in bulk.
Ground, Unground or Pulverized.

40c per pound

— For Sale By —

J. C. Horiskey

WOOD SEPARATOR
STORAGE BATTERY

An Underpriced Battery

The CW Battery (Wood Separator) has quality plates, selected cedar wood separators. Built right, of all new, high-grade materials. Easily the best low-priced battery you can buy!

6-volt
11-plate
$16.15

Sizes to fit all cars. Other sizes at slightly higher price.

O'Neill Battery Station
O'Neill, Nebraska

Phone—Office 39 Res. 89

Representing
Willard Batteries
(THREADED RUBBER INSULATION)
and CW Batteries
(WOOD SEPARATORS)