

At Grady's Store

PURITAN
BACON

Cash Paid For Eggs

BARRINGTON
HALL
COFFEE

Ben Grady, Grocer

We Sell SKINNERS the Highest Grade Macaroni Egg Noodles, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Products

PHONES 68-126

Mrs. R. R. Dickson returned from a two weeks' visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burge returned to their home in Omaha Monday. They have been visiting with Mr. Burge's sons, Arthur and Edward, for the past two weeks.

A. Y. Craig moved his household goods to Tilden last Saturday where he and his daughter, Miss Ida, will reside. Miss Ida is teaching in the Tilden schools again this year.

Edward Peterson received a broken collar bone last Friday when his Ford car turned over with him north of O'Neill. He and George Bradt were returning from the Bradt farm when the accident occurred.

John Crowley and family arrived here on Wednesday of last week from Darlington, Wisconsin, and will make their home here. They are stopping, for the present with the former's brothers, Charley and Jim Crowley.

Valentine Republican: Mrs. M. V. Nicholson was killed to Boston, Mass., Wednesday night by receipt of word of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Sullivan, widow of a pioneer school principal of Valentine.

V. D. Anderson returned to his home in Washta, Iowa, Monday. He was visiting with his uncle, J. B. Anderson, and other relatives here for a week. Clifford Ritts and Harry Hatch accompanied him here for a visit with relatives.

Walter O'Malley returned home Sunday from the wedding trip to Omaha. Mrs. O'Malley has gone to Philadelphia, where she is looking after business matters and visiting with friends preparatory to making her home here.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets Tuesday afternoon, October 3rd, with Mrs. Signa Naylor. A full attendance is requested.

Valentine Republican: Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Twamley have moved up from O'Neill, where they have been living for the past few months, and are once more residents of Valentine, this time to stay. Mr. Twamley represents the Hanford Produce Co. of Sioux City.

Rev. George W. Mayfield, grandfather of E. D. Mayfield of this city, died at his home in Louisville, Nebraska, last week. The deceased was one of the prominent characters of Nebraska during the early history of the state; he was the father of six sons, five of whom are prominent newspaper men.

Arthur L. Cook died at his home in Dewey, South Dakota, on Sunday evening. Mr. Cook made his home in O'Neill about fourteen years ago. Arthur Louis Cook was born in Sioux City, Iowa, May 3, 1882, and died at Dewey, South Dakota, September 17, 1922, aged 40 years, 4 months and 14 days. He was married Nov. 15, 1908, to Miss Edith Voedisch, of O'Neill, Nebraska. To this union was born six children, all of whom survive except one girl who died about four years ago. Mr. Cook went with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cook to the neighborhood of S. & G. Ranch about thirty-five years ago, where he grew to manhood. He as lived at Dewey for the past twenty-one years, having as soon as he attained his majority, taken a homestead and made for his family a comfortable ranch home.

C. E. Stout went to Omaha Monday morning.

T. V. Golden went to Lincoln Monday morning.

The Zimmerman building is going up rapidly these days.

Miss Mary Hagerty came up from Columbus Monday evening for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Malone and children returned from Omaha Monday evening in their Buick.

Mrs. Ivan Kimble and Miss Ethel Kimble, of Brunswick, are here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ashton.

S. J. Weekes, president of the O'Neill National bank, went to Omaha Sunday to attend a session of the Bankers' Convention.

James F. O'Donnell, cashier of the Nebraska State bank, was a passenger to Omaha Monday where he attended the Bankers' Convention.

Miss Cora Meredith went to Bladen, Saturday, where she will teach in the public schools. Miss Gladys Miles is also teaching in the same school.

P. C. Kelley went to Casper, Wyoming, Tuesday of last week where he expects to again be identified with the publication of the Casper Herald.

Mrs. D. F. Bogan, nee Miss Mary Waring, and little son, arrived here Thursday from Burlington, Iowa, for a visit with her sister, Mrs. S. A. Arnold.

A marriage license was issued on September 22nd to Thomas M. Slatery, of Sybrandt, Nebraska, and Miss Lillian B. Robinson, of Burwell, Nebraska.

Grandma Jones returned Monday afternoon from Orchard where she has been visiting a few days with her daughter and family, Mrs. John Walmer.

H. W. Eppenbaugh and family and D. L. Hendrick and family, from Bassett, are here for a week's visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Hendrick.

C. J. Malone returned home the first of the week from Omaha where he was confined in a hospital for a time. The Judge is recovering slowly from his recent illness.

A marriage license was granted Monday to Dan E. Charney, of Falls City, and Miss Eula Stillson, of Atkinson. The couple were married at Atkinson Tuesday.

The Atkinson Graphic reports a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wilcox, September 13th. A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wright on September 14th, and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McDonald on the 16th.

Funeral services for the late Joseph Matousek, of Atkinson, were held at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson last Thursday morning. Mr. Matousek was born in Caslay, Bohemia, and was 59 years, 11 months and 11 days old at the time of his death.

Mrs. Henry Straka died at her home six miles west of Atkinson on September 14th. She was born in Cunsu, Australia, May 11, 1874. She leaves a husband, eight sons, and two daughters, all of whom reside in the vicinity of Atkinson. The funeral services were held from St. Joseph's Catholic church at Atkinson, September 15th.

The Holt county fair is in full swing this week. Tuesday was entry day, with fair sized crowd. No program was given during the afternoon. Wednesday the crown began to gather early in the day and by noon the streets had assumed the appearance of a metropolis. An excellent program is being given each afternoon at the fair ground. The exhibits are extra good.

I. P. Gage, Grand Secretary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Nebraska for the past thirty years, died at his home in Fremont, Nebraska, Monday evening. Mr. Gage was in usual health until Saturday when he became ill. His death will be morning throughout the entire state by the members of the order. He was, no doubt the most widely known Odd Fellow in the state.

The South Fork Fair held at Chambers closed last Friday. Those who claim to know say that the Chambers fair enjoyed the largest attendance this year over any year since the fair was organized. The exhibits were extra good in all departments and the people of that territory are to be congratulated for the interest that they have shown in the exhibits of agricultural products and live stock.

Three Omaha automobile bandits with three cars stolen from Omaha, were picked up here Tuesday evening by Detective James Murphy of Omaha and a state sheriff who had been tracing the men westward from the metropolis for three days. Detective Murphy returned to Omaha with the men Wednesday morning. The three cars, one a new Buick, were left here until later.

B. S. Gillespie returned to O'Neill last Saturday from Rochester, Minnesota, where he had recently gone to consult the Mayos in regard to a growth on his face which he thought might be of a serious nature, but after examination by five or more surgeons he was informed that there was nothing serious the matter with him, which, it is needless to say, made him feel pretty good.

Mayor James C. Dahlman and City Commissioners John Hopkins, of Omaha, were guests of the Holt county fair Wednesday. The mayor and Mr. Hopkins arrived Tuesday night and Wednesday afternoon the mayor delivered an address at the fair grounds. Wednesday evening Mayor Dahlman, Mr. Hopkins, Crawford Kennedy, of Lincoln, and Pat Statton, of Tilden, were the guests of J. B. Mellor at dinner, followed by a theater party. The visit was the first one of Mayor Dahlman to O'Neill in twelve years. The mayor returned to Omaha Thursday morning.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

Virgil Allers had the misfortune of pinching his fingers in the pump handle last week.

Thomas Abdouch spent the first part of the week at Norfolk, Nebraska.

Verle Mills and Robert Cook were absent Monday on account of sickness.

Virginia Taylor spent the week end at Royal, Nebraska.

Hazel Vaught enrolled in the third grade Monday. This gives the third grade a total enrollment of twenty-five.

The third grade have taken up the study of liquid measure in arithmetic and the study of the seasons in geography.

Nelly Toy, Stella Van Every, Fern Wilkinson, Edward Wertsbaguh, Robert Reeves, Boyd Bay, Donald Vaughn and Dick Cromwell of the fourth grade have handed in excellent papers in penmanship during the past week.

The fifth grade industrial art class made parasols this week. These were made of paper plates and crepe paper.

Goodsell Hutchins was absent Tuesday afternoon on account of illness.

The fifth grade has had no case of tardiness during this school year.

Roland Loy has been absent from school since Thursday on account of an injury.

Ruth Scott was absent last Friday morning on account of illness.

The grade children will march in parade Friday afternoon at the Holt county fair.

In history the eighth grade class have studied, reviewed and outlined to Monroe's administration and are much interested in their work.

The eighth grade are having daily drills in penmanship and shall endeavor to earn at least an improvement certificate and if possible a final one.

In order to become acquainted with flowers the eighth grade had a guessing game. The flowers were brought by the pupils and the class guessed the name of each. Florence Clevisch and Howard Ashton won the game each getting fourteen of eighteen correct.

It is the aim of those in charge of High school athletics to make all High school athletics self-supporting. No donations will be asked of the general public, but we do ask that all get back of our budget ticket selling campaign. The budget tickets are good for five games and will cost all school folks $1.00. This would be at the rate of 20c for a game. The adults budget tickets will sell for $1.50 or at the rate of 30c a game. Buy a budget ticket if you approve of this plan to make High school athletics self-supporting.

The first home game will be with Springfield, October 6th.

The High school football team will play their first game at Spencer Friday. Dr. Tinkler reports the boys to be in good condition and says they will give Spencer a real battle. Practice has been held in the morning during the past week, due to the fact that many of the boys would be absent for the fair. Several of the old men are now back in school and these will add considerably to the strength of the team. All players who have been showing an interest in the practice and who are in good standing will be taken to Spencer.

The following are new High school pupils enrolled during the past week: Merle Hunt, Archie Faulhaber, Leslie Uhl, Alice Hiatt, Everett Dimmitt, Myrtle Harrison, Bessie Cleary, Rose Saunto, John Minton. Total enrollment now is 142.

The ninth grade English class are studying Browning's "Incident of the French Camp."

PLEASANT VALLEY.

John Nichol hauled buckwheat to Page last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Murray were here from O'Neill last Sunday.

Martin Peterson and family were Sunday visitors at the G. W. Lush home.

Claude Hamilton spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Cora Hamilton, in O'Neill.

A picnic was given at the Hayne lake last Sunday. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sachett, of Page, and Mr. and Mrs. Less Lines and children were Sunday visitors at the C. A. Grass home in Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Streeter and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Streeter gave a birthday supper Sunday night in honor of Mrs. Stanley Soukup's birthday anniversary.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

(Received last week.)

The threshing machine is busy this week again.

Percie Grass was an O'Neill visitor last Monday.

Mrs. L. E. Grass was down from O'Neill last Saturday.

A heavy rain fell last Sunday night which pleased all the farmers.

C. A. Grass and family spent last Sunday with Mrs. L. E. Grass in O'Neill.

Miss Leona Stauffer spent last Sunday with Miss Vera Henderson in Pleasant Valley.

Geo. Wadsworth and family spent Sunday at the G. W. Lush home. Mr. Wadsworth is thinking of building a new barn at his farm in Pleasant Valley.

The Pleasant Valley school started last week. Miss Faye Smith as teacher. Eleven pupils will attend her school. We all wish her great success in the coming year.

We understand that the Allen

Sugar
Per Sk. $7.65Car load of Italian Prunes
the first of the week.White Pickling Vinigar, 50c per gallon

Seal Brand Coffee, 40c lb.

Comb Honey, 25c per pound.

J. C. Horiskey

brothers have dissolved partnership. Ethan Allen is to continue on the farm. We have not heard what Frank intends to do.

Page High school started last week. The pupils from Pleasant Valley, who will attend this year are: Ronald Grass, Harold Grass, Helen Anderson, Wayne Henderson, Mabel Clasey, Edward Grass, Vivian Hayne, Ocea Lush, Helen Van Conett, Wayne Titterington, Vera Henderson, Florence Anderson and Kenneths Braddock.

MARKED TEAL IS KILLED NEAR AGEE

While hunting ducks, William Harvey, of Blackbird, Neb., killed a blue winged teal duck which had a metal band on its leg. The inscription on the band reads as follows: "BIOL-SURV-208-102-208."

It is believed the duck was marked at some far northern point by officials of the government who are tracing the flight and distance of travel of these migratory birds.

ATKINSON MAN
SUES FOR LAND

(Norfolk News.) Harvey Shaw, of Atkinson, Neb., was on the witness stand in federal court for several hours Tuesday afternoon in his damage suit against Fred A. Haase and Charles W. Haase.

Shaw told the jury he traded his hardware stock at Atkinson for a certain piece of Minnesota land and claimed the price of land was misrepresented. He wants $20,000 damages.

The defense is endeavoring to show that Shaw boosted the price of his hardware stock in order to even up with the price placed on the land. The question of depreciation in land prices and hardware stock prices was being argued by attorneys on both sides. J. A. Donohoe of O'Neill and C. H. Kelsey of Norfolk represented Shaw. J.

J. Harrington of O'Neill is counsel for the defense and a bitter law suit was in progress Wednesday morning when the case was resumed.

Many witnesses from counties west of here were in the court room.

Indications are that this case will require most of Wednesday and possibly some time on Thursday. The court may adjourn on Friday. Judge Woodrough is presiding.

O'NEILL IS SELECTED
BY REBEKAH ASSEMBLY

Emma Steinkraus Is Elected New President At Twentieth Meeting Here.

(Norfolk News.)

O'Neill was selected as the place for the twenty-first annual meeting of district No. 29 of the Rebekah assembly at the business meeting of the twentieth annual meeting held here Wednesday morning.

The following officers were elected: President, Emma Steinkraus, Pierce; vice president, Ruby Davis, Norfolk; secretary, Mrs. O. Kaygley, Pierce; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Marsh, Norfolk; warden, Mrs. Ray Ashburn, Tilden, Past President, Mrs. Susan Kierstead of Tilden, and Assembly President, Mrs. Alice Coy of Scotia, Neb., were present at the meeting which was attended by a large delegation from all parts of this district.

Registration; exercises by the Norfolk group; presentation of grand officers; music by Norfolk and Clearwater groups; reports and a school of instruction by Assembly President Mrs. Alice Coy and the election of officers took up the morning session.

Secret work, memorial exercises, an address by Mrs. McCoy; initiatory work, reports of committees and other fraternal business took up the afternoon.

The installation of officers and a banquet concluded the meeting here.

To The Depositors

NATIONAL BANKS FAIL. When they do depositors lose heavily. Why? Because deposits in National Banks are not guaranteed.

STATE BANKS FAIL. When they do depositors are paid in full. Why? Because deposits in State Banks are protected by the Depositors Guarantee Fund of the State of Nebraska.

THE NEBRASKA STATE BANK OF O'NEILL is the only Bank in O'Neill which offers you this protection.

You will protect yourself and please us by depositing your money with us.

5 per cent paid on time deposits.

Nebraska State Bank

of O'Neill, Nebraska

Every One

Has Opportunities

Perhaps everyone will admit that he had had many good opportunities.

Comparatively few can take advantage of these opportunities because they lack the money.

This bank can often assist you at the right moment.

The

O'Neill National Bank

O'Neill, Nebraska

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $150,000.00.

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stock holders.