You don't have to coax big and little folks to eat Kellogg's Corn Flakes

Just as soon as you serve Hellogg's you'll note fussy and laded appetites getting mighty sharp; you'll find big bowls being handed back for "just a few more Kellogg's, mother—they're wonderful!"

And, that'll make you glad, for Kellogg's Corn Flakes are a great speed-start for the day's doings! They make for health and happy digestions! Kellogg's are never leathery or tough, but always joyously crisp!

Kellogg's—the original Corn Flakes—will be a revelation to your taste if you have been eating imitations! For your own enjoyment, do this:—compare the big, sunny-brown Kellogg's Corn Flakes with other "corn flakes." Eat some of Kellogg's—then try the imitations! You'll realize then why Kellogg's Corn Flakes are the largest and fastest selling cereal in the whole world!

Do more than ask for "corn flakes." Insist upon KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package! My, but it's

"LAST OF THE MOHICAN'S"

The residence on the old Frank Bain The residence on the old Frank Bain place, one mile east of the fair ground, was burned to the ground at noon last Friday. Fire was first discovered in the shed or summer kitchen in which an oil stove was used, but which had not been lighted since the day before. The flames spread rapidly and the entire house was soon in ruins. The place is owned by W. C. Hunter, of Carson, Iowa, and was occupied by Levi Hull and family. Some of the furniture was saved.
