

"Lis'en, Peggy—every madder gies her kiddies KELLOGG'S because you can eat great big bowls an' they taste good—er an' they're all crispy an' dandy!"

You never tasted Corn Flakes so joyously flavored, so crispy-crunchy as Kellogg's

That's why big and little folks who know the difference insist upon KELLOGG'S! The thing to do is to make comparison—Kellogg's against any other kind of corn flakes you ever ate! If it's quality, or all-the-time crispness or delicious or appetizing flavor you want—well, just wait till you eat Kellogg's! And, what a delight to know they're never leathery!

You'll get so cheerful about Kellogg's that the day's best hours will be when it's time to sit down with the family in front of generous bowls all filled most to bursting with those big, sunny-brown Corn Flakes! Never was a better time than tomorrow morning to prove that KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes are about the "gladdest of all good things to eat."

Insist upon KELLOGG'S—the kind in the RED and GREEN package—if you want to know how wonderfully good corn flakes can be!

WILLIAM JOHN ARMSTRONG.

William Armstrong, one of the early settlers of Holt county, died at his country residence northwest of the city, Sunday night, after an illness of several weeks duration, of typhoid fever. The funeral was from St. Patrick's church Thursday morning, the Very Reverend M. F. Cassidy officiating and burial was in Calvary cemetery. The funeral cortege was very large, hundreds participating in thus testifying to the love and esteem in which he was universally held.

William John Armstrong was born at Scranton, Pennsylvania, December 29, 1875, and was 46 years, 9 months and 2 days old at the time of his death. He removed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong, to Holt county, forty-two years ago and since has made it his home. He is survived by his mother and the following brothers and sisters:

James and Joseph Armstrong, of Sheridan, Wyoming; Patrick, of Kansas City, Mo.; Michael and Mrs. Charles Reiser, of Sulphur, S. D.; Mrs. John Erwin, of Norfolk, and Miss Bessie Armstrong, of O'Neill.

The frontier joins with the entire community in extending condolences to the bereaved relatives in their hour of sorrow.

HOLT COUNTY FAIR A SUCCESS

The Holt county fair, one of the best attended of history, concluded Friday with one of the biggest crowds ever assembled within the confines of the grounds. Each day was better than the previous one and the attendance Wednesday was a record breaker for formal opening day. The program of races, baseball games, riding contests, relay races, steer bulldogging, etc., was most extensive and was so arranged that no waits marred its presentation. Mayor James Dahlgren and City Commissioner John Hopkins, of Omaha, and Crawford Kennedy, of Lincoln, were distinguished guests of the association Wednesday and the mayor delivered a most interesting address before the grandstand in the afternoon. Governor McKelvie was the speaker Thursday afternoon and spoke to a very large and interested crowd. Harry Fleharty, the speaker announced for Friday, unfortunately was unable to make train connections and could not be present. A feature of the riding was the participation of a number of riders from Wyoming, Montana, Oregon and the Dakotas, together with Holt county's own riders, who were fully as good and in several instances better than the visitors. George Newton of Portland, Oregon, champion roper of the United States gave daily exhibitions of his skill. The big kid parade Friday, school children's day, was one of the events of the meeting. The financial statement of the fair still is in the course of preparation, but it is thought that the association broke a little better than even, and Secretary John L. Quig and the other officers are receiving congratulations on the quality of the entertainment presented. The livestock and agricultural exhibits were bigger and better than ever and the hog exhibit without doubt the largest ever seen outside of the state fair at Lincoln.

THE HISTORY OF THE EVENTS and the instances of forty years leading up to the Great War is appearing each day in The Sioux City Tribune. It is really a fascinating story. Every person should be reading it—it will show the art of war making on a big scale. Let Americans not be blindly led into war—forehand knowledge is a great asset. This story will run in this territory only in The Sioux City Tribune. 18-1
