

So extra delicious With fresh fruits

No other food has such an appeal on a hot day as Kellogg's Corn Flakes! They win fickle appetites, they satisfy hungry folks! As an extra-summer taste thrill, eat Kellogg's with the luscious fresh fruit now in season. Such a diet is not only ideal from a health standpoint, but it is refreshing!

You can eat Kellogg's Corn Flakes liberally at any meal because they digest easily. Let the children have all they want.

Insist upon Kellogg's Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

Also makers of
KELLOGG'S KRUMBLER
and
KELLOGG'S
BRAN, cooked and krumbled

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

TAKEN UP.

Taken up at my place seven and one-half miles north of the O'Neill fair grounds, on September 28th, three geldings. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for keep and advertising.

C. M. BOURNE,
O'Neill, Nebraska.

The Frontier, only $2.00 per year.

The Photograph is the only thing in the World that money can pay for which reproduces step by step the history of a lifetime.

O'NEILL PHOTO CO.
O'Neill, Nebraska.

Cash Paid For Eggs

1 lb. package pepper 35c

White Pickling Vinigar, 50c per gallon

Seal Brand Coffee, 40c lb.

Comb Honey, 25c per pound.

J. C. Horiskey

LITTLE GEORGE KELLEY.

The community was shocked Tuesday afternoon when it became known that George, the two year and eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelley, had fallen from a wagon and had been so badly crushed that he died a short time later.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley and the children were gathering potatoes in the field when the little fellow fell from the wagon in front of the rear wheel, the wheel did not pass over his body, but crushed it. Medical aid was summoned but the little one passed away soon after the physician arrived.

Funeral services were held from the Catholic church this morning and burial was made in Calvary cemetery.

MRS. WILSON W. ABBOTT.

Mrs. W. W. Abbott died at her home in the southeast part of the city Monday, at the age of sixty-two years, nine months and twenty-one days. She has been in poor health for a number of months; several months recently she has been in a hospital in Omaha where she submitted to an operation for the removal of a limb with the hope of prolonging her life.

She was born in County Carry, Ireland, and came to this country when a girl. She was united in marriage to Wilson W. Abbott, at Kansas City, on July 4, 1888. She came with her husband to Holt county in March, 1908, and resided on a farm near Chambers until 1916, when they moved to O'Neill where they have since resided.

The deceased is survived by her husband, three daughters and two sons.

The funeral services were held from the family home Wednesday morning.

JUDGE MINTON.

Roy Daniel Judge, of Atkinson, and Miss Janie Agnes Minton, of this city, were united in marriage Tuesday morning at seven o'clock at St. Patrick's church, by Father Duhamel.

The ring ceremony was used. Miss Anna Barrett, of Fremont, a cousin of the bride, was bride's- maid and Joe Judge, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride wore a blue suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride's-maid was also attired in a blue suit with hat to match.

Following the ceremony a four course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Minton, to fifty guests.

The newly weds departed for the west Tuesday evening on a short wedding tour. They will make their home on a ranch near Atkinson.

The Frontier joins with the many friends of the contracting parties in wishing them much joy and happiness.

MORE LOCAL MATTERS.

E. C. McElhany and F. L. Hunter were up from Page Tuesday.

Homer Mullen came up from Lincoln last Saturday and spent Sunday with friends in O'Neill.

Volney Phillips arrived here Tuesday from Canada for a visit with her mother who resides at Star.

The Music Department of the Woman's club will meet at St. Mary's Academy, Friday afternoon, October 27th.

B. F. Kissinger, of Atkinson, suffered a broken bone in one of his knees when a cow kicked him one day last week.

R. E. Gallagher, his mother, Mrs. Robert Gallagher, of Page, M. H. McCarthy and George Harrington went to Cherry county today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fesler went to Norfolk on Monday of last week. Mrs. Fesler will take treatment at a hospital there for a few weeks.

Miss Ida Chapman entertained the members of the Martez club at her home Monday evening. Miss Ireneia Biglin won the honors at bridge.

Mrs. E. J. Kindle, of Ashland, Nebraska, came Friday and remained until Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cooper.

The Catholic ladies will hold their annual bazaar Thursday, October 26th. Dinner will be served each evening beginning at 5:15. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Ralph Merriman and two daughters returned to their home in South Sioux City Monday, following a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Seybolt are visiting relatives and friends at Grand Island and Lincoln. They also expect to visit at Kearney before returning home.

Mrs. J. H. Morrow and Mrs. P. L. Barrett and daughter, Mary Catherine, came up from Fremont the first of the week to be present at the Judge-Minton wedding.

George Harrington went to Columbus the first of the week to attend the funeral services of Lewis Bruckner who died from injuries recently received in an auto accident.

T. V. Golden has received word from Governor McKelvie of his appointment as a delegate from Nebraska to the Southern Commercial Congress to be held at Chicago November 20 to 22 inclusive.

Miss Bessie McLeod entertained twenty friends at a bridge party at her home Thursday evening of last week. Mrs. P. C. Donohoe won the major prize and Miss Ireneia Biglin won the all-out.

Guy Hull and Miss Hollis Guin, of Meek, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woidneck, in this city, last Saturday, by County Judge C. J. Malone. The Frontier extends congratulations.

The American Legion will hold an entertainment on November 11th at the K. C. hall, similar to the one held last year. A program will be given in the afternoon starting at 2:30 and the carnival will open at seven o'clock in the evening.

Harry Clauson now has his wireless working and is getting the dope from many miles around each evening. He is contemplating broadcasting the speech of Senator Norris next Wednesday night, using broadcasting equipment from Norfolk.

Babe Ruth, and Bob Muesell, members of the New York "Yanks" were met by a large delegation of O'Neill base ball fans when they arrived here last night over the Burlington at 11:30 and departed over the C. & N. W. for Deadwood, S. D., where they play ball today.

L. C. Gillespie and Clifford Davis, delegates from the local lodge of the I. O. O. F., went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the session of the grand lodge. Mrs. J. M. Hunter, Mrs. W. P. Curtis, Mrs. George A. Miles and Mrs. C. E. Downey were delegates from the local Rebekah lodge.

Roy L. Haynes and Miss Winnie Wood, both of Page, were married on Wednesday of last week at the home of the bride's father, C. L. Wood, one and one-half miles southeast of Page, Rev. L. R. McGaughy pastor of the M. E. church performing the ceremony. The Frontier extends congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adams, of Chambers, went to Marysville, Ohio, Monday morning for a short visit at their old home. Negotiations are on for the sale of the old home which has been in the Adams family for over one hundred years and Mr. and Mrs. Adams are going back to pay their respects to the place before it passes to others.

Mrs. August Ganskow died at her home in Colorado last Friday following an operation for appendicitis. Her remains were brought to Page where the funeral services were held Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, conducted by the Rev. L. R. McGaughy, of Page. Mrs. Ganskow will be remembered at Hazel Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stewart who reside about nine miles east of O'Neill.

About 2:30 o'clock Thursday night fire was discovered breaking through the roof of the Tom Enright building on Fourth street, in which Mr. Enright has been conducting a soft drink parlor. A number of firemen were soon at work on the blaze and prevented the fire from spreading to other parts of the building. The origin of the fire is not known. A small amount of insurance was carried on the building.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Another Reduction

The lowest price f. o. b. Detroit ever made by the Ford Motor Co.

Chassis, regular	-	-	$235.00
Runabout, regular	-	-	$269.00
Touring, regular	-	-	$298.00
Truck chassis	-	-	$380.00
Coupe	-	-	$530.00
Two-Door Sedan	-	-	$595.00

Making a $50.00 reduction on the above types of cars.

The starter remains at $70.00.

Demountable rims when supplied with open types, $25.00 extra.

Ferdson, $395.00.

J. B. MELLOR, Dealer

The largest stock sale ever held in this part of the country was held at Center Camp southwest of O'Neill Wednesday when 1,165 head of cattle and 235 head of hogs were sold at trustee sale by E. C. Sharp trustee for the L. W. Arnold property. The sale brought over $40,000. The stock sold for a fair price on an average. About half of the cattle and hogs will remain in this county while the other half were purchased by parties from Madison and Knox counties.

Mrs. Margaret Erickson, the lady who started from O'Neill to walk to Washington to have a personal interview with President Harding and to ask for a pardon for her son, was in O'Neill last Monday on her way to Norfolk, Nebraska, from Alliance where she has been for the past few months since her return from her second trip to interview the president in regard to the pardon. She says that her son was released and that she was treated royally at the Whitehouse by the president and retinue.

EMMETT CORRESPONDENT.

(Mrs. R. E. Harris.)
Myrtle Strong, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Strong, sustained a broken arm last week when she fell four or five feet from the roof of a shed where she was playing with some other children.
Mrs. Helen Biglin, primary teacher was quite ill the first of the week. Mrs. Guy Cole taught in her room Monday.

Fred Beckwith has recently traded his stock of dry goods and groceries to his brother Ed Beckwith, of Neligh, for a piece of land. Mr. Beckwith expects to hold a sale of the merchandise for a short time to reduce the stock some before moving if from here.

R. E. Harris was in Long Pine last Friday looking after business affairs.

Mrs. A. H. Allen went up to Ainsworth last Thursday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Hollipeter, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Rasmussen were surprised last week by a visit from Mr. Rasmussen's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McMillan, of Medford, Wis.

Guy Cole and Ross Harris went down to O'Neill Wednesday night to see the famous Babe Ruth.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church is planning a poverty party and box social to take place Friday night, Oct. 27th, at the Enright hall the proceeds to be used in the erection of the new church building. No one must come dressed up and the boxes are not to be decorated.

FOR SALE.
A few registered Duroc spring boars. Large and good type.
20-tf F. H. LANCASTER, Owner.

Only a few days More in which to buy your New Range at a pre-war price and receive the beautiful porcelain utensils

Within a few days the most remarkable range sale ever held here will be over.

With the closing of this sale your greatest opportunity to secure a new range at a pre-war price is lost.

Don't put it off. Come in while our stock is complete. Buy your range and secure the two beautiful porcelain utensils free.

Remember only a few days more and this wonderful opportunity will have passed.

Sale Will Close Oct. 28

Neil P. Brennan

KLENZO

LIQUID
ANTISEPTIC

VERY efficacious for sore throats and head colds—leaves such a cool, clean feeling. Use it to prevent the Flu! Throats sprayed with Klenzo resist all disease germs. Take home a bottle today.

Chas. E. Stout
"The Rexall" Store