Dan Harrington came up from Wisner Tuesday for a visit with his mother Mrs. Dan Harrington and his many O'Neill friends.

Mrs. E. Roy Townsend arrived here last Thursday from Spearfish, South Dakota, and is visiting with friends and relatives in O'Neill and Page.

Zimmerman & Son Monday moved into their new building on east Douglas street. The building is 22x60 feet and is fully equipped for a cream station.

Mrs. J. J. McCafferty and daughter, Miss Florence, returned home Sunday evening from a three months visit with relatives and friends in the New England states.

Anton Toy and little daughter went to Omaha Sunday where he will purchase goods for his general store. P. B. Harty is in charge of the store during his absence.

Now that winter is coming it would be a fine thing if the weeds and brush were removed from along the roads so that the snow cannot pile up where it would otherwise blow away.

Milo Beebe, of Atkinson, pleaded guilty in county court last Saturday, to assault upon the person of Hans Egoe, also of Atkinson, and Judge Malone assessed a fine of $5.00 and costs against him which was promptly paid.

In order that they might fittingly celebrate their first wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zimmerman entertained seven newly married couples at a six o'clock dinner at their home on Wednesday of last week.

The Ewing Advocate of last week states that Mr. and Mrs. Ernest French, of Ewing, have purchased property in Atkinson, Nebraska, where they expect to make their home in the near future. Mrs. French will be remembered as Miss Minnie Miller.

Thurman Hanks, of Atkinson, and Miss Wilna Nance, of Plainview, were married in Omaha on October 19th, by the Rev. John W. G. Fast, pastor of the Methodist church. Thurman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hanks, of Atkinson. They will reside on a farm near Atkinson.

Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11th, will be duly observed in O'Neill this year. The American Legion boys have arranged a program of speaking and singing beginning at 2:30 in the afternoon followed by an Indoor Carnival and Fun Shows in the evening. The entertainment will be held in the K. C. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adams, of Chambers, returned home Monday from their old home in Ohio where they went some time ago to attend the sale of the old homestead which has been in the family since 1834. Mr. Adams bought the place and will keep it in the family. They were particular to return home in time to vote.

A farewell reception was given by the M. E. Sunday School Tuesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts who are leaving for Nashville, Tennessee, November 11th, where they expect to spend the winter visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Roberts is planning on making the trip by auto.

The third annual meeting of the Western Holt County Improvement Association was held at Stuart on Wednesday of last week. The program was of a community nature and consisting of hay loading contests, a tug-of-war, base ball games and various other sports during the afternoon. In the evening an election of officers and business meeting was held which was followed by a dance and a general good time until midnight.

Helen Rocke and Hedda Kafka of Atkinson, students in the Agricultural College at the University of Nebraska have been elected to membership in Omicron Nu, the honorary Home Economics student society which has chapters in the leading state universities where home economics is taught. Election to Omicron Nu, is restricted to those students the average of whose grades place them in the upper one-fourth of their class.

Valentine Republican: "Mrs. M. V. Nicholson received word Tuesday of the death at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Hughes in Boston, of her mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Sullivan, widow of a pioneer Valentine principal. Mrs. Nicholson left the next night for Belle Fourche, South Dakota, where the funeral will be held." Mrs. O'Sullivan was the mother of Mrs. P. J. Flynn, formerly of O'Neill, and an aunt of J. B. O'Sullivan of this city.

On a dark and "Willy-Knight" a "Pathfinder" set out to locate the "Chevrolet," and on his trip he was forced to "Ford" the "Hudson" and "Dodge" "Overland" in his rush to make a "Paige" in history. With a load of "Saxons" he was struck with a "Pierce Arrow" and knocked "Cole." Must be the same fellow who in answer to the question, "Have you a little fairy in your home?" answered, "No, but I have a little miss in my engine."—Engine.

In the busy old world no one seems to be satisfied. One man is struggling to get justice and another is fleeing from it. One man is saving up to buy a home, another is trying hard to sell his dwelling for less than it cost in order to get rid of it. One man is spending all the money he can earn on auto and theaters for his girl and sending her valuable presents in hopes that he may eventually make her his wife, while his neighbor's spending all the gold he has saved trying to get a divorce. One man keeps a pistol to protect himself against burglars, while his neighbor doesn't keep one for fear of shooting himself or some member of the family. One man pays for his paper in advance because he can read it with greater relish, while another takes it as long as he possibly can without paying one cent for it and enjoys it hugely all the while. Surely this is a queer old world.

VOTERS DISREGARD PARTY LINES AND TIES

Voters in the nation, state and county cast aside party ties and disregarded party lines in the general election Tuesday. Pre-election forecasts based on what either party did in past elections proved valueless. R. B. Howell, republican candidate for United States senator, defeated his democratic opponent, Gilbert M. Hitchcock by an overwhelming vote and then the voters turned right around and defeated Charles Randall, republican candidate for governor, giving Charles W. Bryan, his democratic opponent a vote almost identical with that of Howell. In the congressional fight in the sixth districts of the state three republicans, Sears of Omaha, McLaughlin of York and Simmons of Scotts Bluffs, and three democrats, Howard of Columbus, Morehead of Falls City and Shallenberger of Alma apparently are elected. In several of the districts the official canvass will be required to decide. On the face of the unofficial returns all of the republican candidates on the state ticket with the exception of Crawford Kennedy, candidate for secretary of state, seem to have been elected. In Holt county John A. Robertson, the democratic candidate for state senator, ran well ahead of Brantly Sturdevant, his republican opponent and goes out of the county with enough margin to practically assure his election in the district. Donald Gallagher, republican candidate for representative, decisively defeated Gribble, democratic nominee. On the county ticket the only close contest was on sheriff and on county clerk, according to the returns, every other of the republican candidates triumphing over his democratic opponent by a large majority. On the face of the unofficial returns Sheriff Duffy has a lead of two over Brittell. Porter, republican county clerk, has a lead of ninety-eight over John Gallagher, democrat. There are fifty-nine absent voter ballots to be counted when the canvassing board convenes. In the contest for sheriff these might overturn the apparent victory of Sheriff Duffy, but it is considered doubtful. Two republican candidates for supervisor, Havens and Gibson, and one petition candidate, Larson, have been elected to the five vacancies on the county board. Mr. Larson's party affiliations are republican. Miss Anna Donohoe, present county superintendent, defeated her opponent, John Y. Ashton, on the non-political ballot, by a very large majority. The unofficial vote on the various candidates, in Holt county, is as follows:

BACKES GETS FROM ONE TO TWENTY YEARS IN PEN

Melvin Backes, the fellow from the northern part of the county who was arrested last week on a complaint charging him with child stealing, was arraigned before Judge Dickson in the District court Friday and received a sentence of from one to twenty years in the penitentiary.

CASES FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT

- Oct. 19. Orchard State Bank vs. Leo McCaffrey and Joseph McCaffrey. Law.
- Oct. 19. Forgan Investment Co., vs. Carson C. Goodrich et al Mortgage Foreclosure.
- Oct. 19. Jennie D. Bean vs. Allen J. Mohr et al. Mortgage Foreclosure.
- Oct. 20. In the Matter of the Application of Edna M. Shearer guardian, of Robert J. Shearer a minor. License to Sell.
- Oct. 21. George C. Whistler vs. Fred W. Brainard. Restraining action.
- Oct. 26. The W. T. Rowleigh Co., vs. J. A. Feese et al. Law.
- Emma Rummery et al vs. John J. Hoffman et al. Partition.
- Nov. 1. Bertha Schindler vs. John Edward Schindler. Divorce.
- Nov. 1. In the Matter of the Application of W. J. Doherty, administrator. License to sell.
- Nov. 1. William J. Gow, trustee, vs. Harry Davis et al. Mortgage Foreclosure.
- Nov. 2. J. C. Harris vs. Clarence H. Johnson et al. Mortgage Foreclosure.
- Nov. 6. State of Nebraska vs. Melvin Backes. Child Stealing.
- Nov. 7. Julia Jurcher vs. Carl Vidra. Mortgage Foreclosure.
- Nov. 7. Belle Waugh vs. Frederick J. Waugh. Divorce.

Backes became infatuated with his thirteen year old sister-in-law, Pearl Crum, the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Crum, living near Anncar, and with whom Backes and his wife were making their home.

Upon the pretext of going elsewhere to seek work, Backes was taken to Bristow last Tuesday where he was supposed to take the train for Norfolk. Later that night he returned and accompanied the little girl to Bristow where he was apprehended the following morning occupying the same room with her. They were brought to O'Neill and Backes later plead guilty to the charge. On account of the overcrowded condition of the state penitentiary Backes will perhaps make his home with Sheriff Duffy for the present.

MAYOR DAHLMAN ENJOYED O'NEILL VISIT

Mayor James Dahlman enjoyed his visit to O'Neill as the guest of the Holt county fair. In a letter just received by Secretary John L. Quig the mayor speaks of his good time in O'Neill. Following is the letter:

My Dear John: Yours enclosing check received. I did not expect anything of the kind. I had a dandy time, and appreciate the warm welcome accorded me by my old O'Neill friends. Hope I can be with you some time in the future. Best wishes to all, I am yours truly,
JAMES C. DAHLMAN.
