

Combination Chorus

REPUBLICAN

DEMOCRAT

Introducing two perfectly good roosters. Each finds something to crow about, but neither is doing its very best. It would seem however, on the unofficial returns over the state and in the county, that the republican bird is entitled to a couple of extra crows.

NOTES ON THE ELECTION.

Democratic candidates are leading in Montana.

LaFollette is a five to one favorite in Wisconsin.

New York has gone democratic by landslide both in the city and state.

Senator McLean, republican, is well in the lead for re-election in Connecticut.

Senator Lodge, republican, is re-elected by a small majority in Massachusetts.

Kendrick, democrat, was leading Mondell, republican, for senator in Wyoming.

John M. Matzen appears to have defeated Ruth E. Pyrtle for State Superintendent.

The returns in Ohio on both governor and senator are too close to indicate the result.

Senator Townsend, republican, in Michigan, has a lead that seems to indicate his election.

Representative Volstead lost his seat in congress from the Seventh Minnesota district.

Senator Jim Reed, democrat, was elected by 50,000 over Brewster, republican, in Missouri.

R. B. Howell, republican, elected to the United States Senate over Hitchcock, democrat, by 60,000 to 75,000.

Charles W. Bryan, democrat, was elected governor of Nebraska over Randall, republican, by 35,000 to 50,000.

Pennsylvania has of course elected Pinchot, republican, for governor, and Reed and Pepper, republicans United States senators.

Speaker Gillett was returned from his Massachusetts district, and becomes the oldest member in point of service in the house.

Early indications are for a very close race for the senatorship in Indiana between Beveridge, republican, and Ralston, democrat.

On the Referendum, the bank charter act carried, anti-picketing law won, the primary law was defeated as was also the registration law.

Governor Edwards, democrat, is leading in the race for the senatorship in New Jersey, Senator Frelinghuysen standing out ahead in the early returns.

Smith W. Brookhart, rep., elected in Iowa for the senatorship over Herring, democrat, and Governor Kendall, republican, is far ahead for re-election.

The latest returns announce that the republicans will have 220, or a majority of two in the lower house of congress. The republican majority in the United States Senate has been materially reduced.

SCHOOL NOTES.

On Tuesday evening a Latin club was organized at the H. S. All students of Latin are members. Geo. McCarthy was chosen as president, Elsie Longstaff, treasurer. Eighty-five students answered to roll call by a Latin quotation or the conjugation of a Latin verb. Then followed a Latin contest. After which Mr. Suhr made a general statement concerning the purpose and benefits of such an organization.

Mr. Suhr was very pleasantly surprised on his birthday, Monday evening, after Board Meeting by the Senior. The party gathered at the school house where an enjoyable though short time was spent, concluding with an oyster stew, amply satisfying everyone.

Mrs. Roberts and baby Lester, visited the kindergarten Friday morning.

Little Merle Arnold and Vera June Roberts sang for the Public school music class Wednesday morning.

Lynn Peterson is a little new beginner in the kindergarten.

The "School Orchestra," under the direction of Miss Ward, practice twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week.

Mrs. Planck visited the First grade last week.

Ruth Leach is well and able to be at school again.

Robert Coak, Carl Hunt, Verle Mills, Donald and Melvin Pilger, Frank Rath and Virginia Taylor were absent from the Second grade during the week.

Dorothea Masters of the Fourth grade had the misfortune to break her arm while roller skating.

The Fourth grade geography class is getting ready to make paper mache maps.

The art class is cutting and mounting turkeys.

We have received the Lewis and Rolland Silent Readers and had our first lesson Wednesday. We will have one or two silent reading lessons every week.

In language the Sixth grade are memorizing "The Chambered Nautilus." They have made a careful study of the life of their class poet "Oliver Wendell Holmes," and during the year will memorize several poems he has written.

The pupils of the Seventh grade have started a library for their room. At present they have a reading list of about seventy books. The class has named Marjorie Downey librarian. She will hold this office for a period of nine weeks.

Franklin Gaughenbaugh was absent Monday because of illness.

Florence Roseler was absent Monday and Tuesday forenoon on account of her brother's illness. Vivian Eidenmiller and Frank Wyant each missed a half day this week on account of illness.

The "Busy Bee" Sewing Club met Monday and we find the girls have done very well with their first problem which consisted in completing a sewing bag.

The Eighth grade are devoting the reading period this week to patriotic selections in honor of Armistice Day.

In a grammar test Monday in the Eighth grade the following received 100 per cent: Earl Sanders, Robert Davidson, Mildred Tomlinson, Lawrence Nye, Edna Simonson and Vern

Winchell.

The Eighth grade are progressing very nicely in agriculture. Friday's lesson consisted of current events on topics pertaining to husbandry. The class also brought a collection of weeds.

The Eighth grade are taking civics in lieu of history.

HOW TO COOK HUSBANDS.

A good many husbands are spoiled in the cooking. Some women go about it as if their husbands were bladders, and blow them up. Others keep them constantly in hot water; others let them freeze by the carelessness and indifference. Some keep them in a stew by irritating ways and words. Others roast them. Some keep them in pickle all their lives. It cannot be supposed that husbands will be tender and good managed in this way, but they are delicious when properly treated. In selecting your husband you should not be guided by the silvery appearance, as in buying mackerel, or by the golden tint, as if you wanted salmon. Be sure to select him yourself as tastes differ. Do not go to market for him, as the best are always brought to your door. It is far better to have none unless you will patiently learn how to cook him. A preserving kettle of the finest porcelain is best, but if you have nothing but an earthenware pippin, it will do, with care. See that the linen in which you wrap him is nicely washed and mended with the required number of buttons and strings. Tie him in the kettle by a strong silk cord called comfort, as the one called duty is apt to be weak. They are apt to fly out the kettle and be burned and crusty on the edges, since like crabs and lobsters, you have to cook them while alive. Make a clear, steady fire out of love, neatness and cheerfulness. Set him as near this as seems to agree with him. If he sputters and fizzes, do not become anxious; some husbands do this until quite done. Add a little sugar in the form of what confectioners call kisses, but no vinegar or pepper on any account. A little spice improves them, but must be used with judgment. Do not stick any sharp instrument into him to see if he is becoming tender. Stir him gently; watch the while, lest he lie too flat or close to the kettle and so become useless. You cannot fail to know when he is done. If thus treated, you will find him very digestible, agreeing nicely with you and the children, and he will keep as long as you want, unless you become careless and set him in too cold a place.—J. S. to Union Pacific Magazine.

Tomorrow morning—by all means try Kellogg's Corn Flakes

Tomorrow morning—set KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes before the family! A feast for the eye and a feast for keen appetites! For, Kellogg's are as extra-delicious as they look—all sunny brown and wonderfully crispy, crunchy! My, but how they delight everybody!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are not only distinctly superior to any imitation, but are the most fascinating cereal you ever ate! Kellogg's appeal to every age! Little folks and old folks find in them the same joyous pleasure! For Kellogg's have a wonderful flavor—and Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat!

Insist upon KELLOGG'S—the original Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package! It bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

Your Winter Trip

to California will be surprisingly more enjoyable and far more satisfactory if your hotel or bungalow accommodations are arranged for well in advance and proper consideration is given to the selection of your route to take you there. Naturally, you want to see the most of the best scenery in America en route. The logical route is the Burlington (in connection with the Denver & Rio Grande Western and Northern Pacific), because it takes you right through Denver, the Pike's Peak region, Royal George, scenic Colorado, Salt Lake City and the Grand Canyon of the Feather River in the beautiful Sierra Nevada range. Then, if you return by way of the great Pacific Northwest (Yellowstone or Glacier Park line), Minneapolis-St. Paul and the Burlington's Mississippi River Scenic Line, you put a ring around the Golden West—the most wonderful trip in America. Rail rates are the same via all Western lines. Therefore, you have something to gain and nothing to lose by investigating before completing your plans. Let me tell you more about the Burlington's more-travel-comfort-at-the-same - cost service.
