"WEEKLY MARKETGRAM."
Washington, D. C., Week Ending November 6, 1922: Grain—Grain prices closed higher for the week, Chicago December wheat advancing 1 3/8c; Chicago December corn up 2c. Most strength was shown during the middle of the week on bullish private reports on crops and world conditions. Grain prices declined early on the sixth but later buying caused reaction to higher level. Export business restricted by break in foreign exchange. Visible supply wheat 32, 278,000 bushels compared with 56, 595,000 bushels same date last year.
Corn unsettled but prices responded readily to strength in wheat. Visible supply corn 8,806,000 bushels compared with 18,891,000 bushels last year.
Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.23; No. 2 hard winter wheat $1.15; No. 2 and demand from that source poor.

Where Real News Is Paramount

In the country newspaper, sensations, scandals—the recording of human misery—is almost taboo. At least it certainly is secondary to the printing of real news about people and things.

For the province of the country paper—your Home Town Paper—is to give community interests first place, printing the more or less sensational! personal items only when necessary to keep faith with subscribers who pay for ALL the news.

Therefore, your Home Town Paper can give you, in full measure and overflowing, 100 per cent pure news about the people in whom you are most interested—your relatives and friends of the Old Home Town.

ORPHANS NEED HELP.

The Christian Home Orphanage, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, which cares for 250 children, and which, for nearly forty years, has been a haven for thousands of destitute children from all parts of the county, and which depends wholly upon the voluntary contributions of charitable people for its support, has felt the effects of the close times to such a degree that unless speedy and liberal help comes, the work will be seriously injured. In order to keep its doors open to the hundreds of little ones that apply annually for food and shelter, the Home is appealing to the public for donations at Thanksgiving to clear the work of debt and enable it to meet the calls that come to it daily. We urge our readers that they send a donation as liberal as possible to help this worthy institution, which needs help now as it never has before in the past.

age, Council Bluffs, Iowa.
