

You can't fool the youngsters. They can always tell the difference between KELLOGG'S and imitations.

Kellogg's Corn Flakes snap up fussy appetites something wonderful!

No coaxing needed to tempt family folks and visitor folks to eat a-plenty—not when there's a big pitcher of milk or cream and lots of Kellogg's Corn Flakes—and, maybe some fruit—ready to tickle fickle palates!

Kellogg's are unlike any corn flakes you ever ate! They're the original kind—they ought to be best! No other corn flakes are so deliciously flavored; no other corn flakes retain such wonder-crispness till eaten! And Kellogg's are never leathery or tough or hard to eat!

Kellogg's are always a delight to serve—and a treat to eat at any meal! In fact, you'll never know how good corn flakes can be until you know KELLOGG'S!

Do more than ask for corn flakes—say KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES! The kind in the RED and GREEN package!

WEDDING BELLS.

Married at Granite Falls, Minn., November 25, 1872, Louis Steabner and Miss Caroline Frank. This young couple lived on a farm in Minnesota until the summer of 1879 when they came to Nebraska coming as far as Sioux Falls, South Dakota, with a yoke of oxen and at that place the oxen became footsore and they sold them and bought a mule team with which they completed their journey to Holt County, Nebraska, where they settled on a homestead on the Eagle creek about twenty miles northwest of O'Neill in what at that time was a very wild and desolate part of the great American desert where they still live and now have a very fine farm and home.

Last Saturday, November 25, 1922, just fifty years from the date of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walters and other friends arranged a golden wedding for them and sixty-four friends and neighbors gathered at their home to help them celebrate the event. A splendid dinner was served and everybody there had a jolly good time and all wished the bride and groom many more years of happy married life.

Many useful and valuable presents were received by the happy married couple. Mr. Steabner was born in Germany September 5, 1850, and came to this country when only three years old. ### MRS. O'SULLIVAN.

The following is the account of the death of Mrs. J. B. O'Sullivan, who with her husband and family made O'Neill their home for many years. In the early thirties, Mrs. O'Sullivan operated the Columbia hotel, which has been known in later years as the Merchants, while her husband taught school in the vicinity of O'Neill. Mr. O'Sullivan was also superintendent of the O'Neill school in the early history of the country.

The following article appeared in the Belle Fourche Bee of a recent date:

Funeral service for Mrs. Catherine O'Sullivan was held Monday morning of this week at the Catholic church, Rev. Donnelly preaching the sermon. Burial was at Pine Slope cemetery.

Mrs. O'Sullivan's body, accompanied by her son-in-law, Chas. F. Hughes, and her daughters, Mrs. P. J. Flynn of Plattsmouth, Neb., Mrs. B. H. Harms of Omaha, and Mrs. M. V. Nicholson of Valentine, Nebr., arrived in Belle Fourche Saturday afternoon. The funeral had been planned for Sunday morning, but the severe storm of that day made it necessary to postpone the service.

Catherine Davey O'Sullivan was born January 28, 1857, in Boston, Mass., and passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. F. Hughes in that city on Tuesday, October 31, 1922, age sixty-five years, nine months and three days. On October 14, 1876, she was united in marriage to John Bernard O'Sullivan at Blairstown, Ia. To this union six daughters were born, all of whom are living. In 1904 Mrs. O'Sullivan came from O'Neill, Nebr., to Belle Fourche to be with her daughter, Miss Helen, who was at that time head saleslady with the W. H. Lancaster Merc. Co., and has since that time made this her home. A few months ago she went east to visit with her daughters, spending some time with Mrs. Nicholson at Valentine, then going to Omaha and Plattsmouth where she visited with Mrs. Harms and Mrs. Flynn. Later she went to Boston to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Houghs, and shortly after her arrival there became ill. Her condition was not considered serious until a few weeks ago, when Mrs. Harms went from Omaha to Boston to be with her mother. She gradually grew worse, although specialists were called into consultation and everything possible was done to restore her health.

In the passing of Mrs. O'Sullivan this community loses a most worthy and beloved citizen, and the daughters are deprived of mother whose every wish and action bespoke her love for them. She is survived by six daughters: Mrs. M. V. Nicholson, of Valentine, Nebr.; Mrs. P. J. Flynn of Plattsmouth, Nebr.; Mrs. B. H. Harms of Omaha; Mrs. Chas. F. Hughes of Boston; Mrs. M. H. Moore and Miss Grace O'Sullivan of Belle Fourche; and eleven grandchildren.

MRS. DIETRICH HUEBERT.

The community was shocked last Friday when it became known that Mrs. Dietrich Huebert, living about nine miles northwest of O'Neill had been run over and trampled to death by their large farm team which had run away. As the team was nearing home Mrs. Huebert endeavored to open the wire gate to let them through. The gate was fastened with a stake. She had just released the stake from the ring when the team hit the gate, the stake was violently thrown around the post and struck her upon the chin and she fell in front of the heavy team and was trampled to death. Her youngest son, John, was on a horse and riding alongside of the team trying to stop them when the fatal accident occurred.

Mrs. Huebert was born in Russia November 6, 1870, and was 52 years and 18 days old at the time of her death. She with her husband and family came to this county in the spring of 1917 from Sherman county. She was the mother of seven children, David E., of Idaho; Dick, Mary, Catherine and John E., of O'Neill; Mrs. Pete Gade, of Sheridan county; Mrs. Albert Erb, of Headly, Minn.

The funeral services were held at the Mennonite church northwest of O'Neill Wednesday morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Jake Oswald, of Beaver Crossing, Rev. C. K. Ernest, of O'Neill and Rev. H. E. Hppe, of Henderson, Nebraska, and the remains were laid to rest in the Mennonite cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our many friends for their kindness and assistance to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our wife and mother. We wish to also thank those who contributed the beautiful flowers, and those who sang in the choir.

To You Who Are Considering The Purchase of a New Range We Offer a Few Suggestions.

First of all, BUY A REAL RANGE. Don't economize too closely on the purchase price. Economy is not merely spending the least money, and buying a range at too low a price in indeed false economy.

The additional cost is nothing compared with the economy of fuel and satisfactory service enjoyed through the ownership of a Great Majestic Range.

The Majestic is the standard of all ranges. It has the distinction of feeding over two million people, civilians and soldiers—and it's highly recommended by every user.

THE BODY LASTS
The body (a weak spot on other ranges) is made of rust-resisting Charcoal Iron—not a catch-word name for ordinary steel, fused or coated steel, but a genuine 99% pure Charcoal Iron product, proven by actual tests to resist rust 300% greater than steel.

PERFECT BAKING
The oven, rivet-tight, bakers right always—browns the baking perfectly, top, bottom and sides, without turning. Eliminates food waste through evaporation and improper baking.

RIVET-TIGHT CONSTRUCTION
The non-breakable Malleable Iron, used in constructing the Majestic permits all joints to be cold-riveted practically air-tight. No putty used. Results: Long life, perfect baking with little fuel and minimum repair expense.

EASY TO KEEP CLEAN.
All nickeled parts are smooth as glass, no square corners to collect dirt and grease. In fact, the new design is the most beautiful, symmetrical and easy-to-keep-clean range ever manufactured.

TOP NEEDS NO BLACKING.
The entire cooking top, polished smooth and burnished blue by special process—fills a long-felt want—requires no blacking—just an occasional application of paraffine retains the original beautiful uniform dark blue color.

AND A LOT OF OTHER FEATURES.
There are a great many other reasons why the Majestic is the least expensive range you can buy, regardless of price. Let the Majestic Dealer show you this range, inside and outside, show you the many little things that will save you money, lighten your work and forever solve your range problem.
