HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The high school boys' and girls' basketball teams played at Chambers last Friday. The boys won by a score of 47 to 9 and the girls lost 15 to 32.

Sixth Grade.
The pupils of the departmental grades are learning some new Christmas songs.

The "Busy Bee" sewing club met Monday evening and judged the sewing bags made by the girls of the Sixth grade. The girls of the grade were allowed to do the judging and decided on Vivian Eidenmiller's sewing bag being the best work done by any of the class.

The work of the fourth and fifth grades will be judged at the next meeting of the club.

The girls have received their second sewing problem from the state department and will begin this month to work on clothes pin bags or dress protectors.

Fifth Grade.
Honor Roll—The following pupils were neither absent nor tardy during the second six weeks of school:

Atlee Graves, Bonny Loy, Grace Hancock, Elwin Thompson, Anita Liddy.

The sixth grade language class received a letter from Adelaide McGinnis of Cody, Wyoming, stating they were making a scrap book of the United States and would appreciate a few cards.

We spent a pleasant half-hour in the sixth grade room last Wednesday afternoon. A short program, consisting of songs, exercises and readings, was rendered.

Some of the posters the fifth grade made are in the window of Bowen's Racket store.

Eighth Grade.
In a test in mental arithmetic Wednesday Howard Ashton, Lawrence Nye and Dale Bressler each received 100 per cent.

Albert Noss spelled down the eighth grade last Friday.

Mrs. Suhr and her normal trainers visited the eighth grade last Tuesday. Lawrence Nye of the eighth grade presented his class with a bouquet of Bittersweet.

The eighth grade have taken up the study of Snowbound which they will endeavor to complete before the holidays.

The eighth grade are studying protection and kindness to birds in connection with agriculture. Several pupils reported throwing out crumbs and grain, putting suet in trees, etc. One boy reported having killed several English sparrows.

The eighth grade had a special lesson Tuesday on petroleum and its byproducts.

Seventh Grade.

The normal training class observed a grammar recitation in the seventh grade Wednesday.

The pupils of the seventh grade are getting drawings and paintings ready for decorating their room for Christmas. At present they are painting pointsettias.

Marjorie Carter and Fern Noble were absent Tuesday afternoon.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carter of O'Neill, was celebrated at their home in the southern part of O'Neill and at the Dr. L. A. Carter home in this city, on Tuesday, December 12, 1922. Children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends met at noon at their home for the wedding, after which the received congratulations and then all went to the Dr. L. A. Carter home where a three-course wedding dinner was served.

Benjamin Carter and Josephine Boswell were united in marriage at Glenwood, Iowa, December 12, 1872, and emigrated to Kansas in 1873. They are the parents of ten children, eight of whom are living; three sons and five daughters; Frank Carter of Denver, Colo.; Dr. L. A. Carter of O'Neill, Neb.; Charles Carter of Nanzanola, Colo.; Mrs. James Noble of Ballagh, Neb.; Mrs. Harvey Lee of Chambers, Neb.; Mrs. Richard Stitt of Benkleman, Neb.; Mrs. Harry Sisco and Mrs. Fred Cox of Burchard, Neb.; besides twenty-six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Carter is 73 years of age and Mrs. Carter 68 years but both seem ten years younger. His action is as quick and his step as firm, it would seem, as it was 50 years ago, and the sweetness and gentleness of the bride has not dimmed in the fifty years of married life and her expression is that of one who reflects the noble qualities of a useful and well lived life. This noble couple is of that generation and kind that built the empire of the West who went into the wilderness to the frontier; who did their share to the winning of the west, and who could make the sacrifice and do and dare. To such as these, these great states owe their civilization. None have done a greater service for us than they of that generation and the good time shown them on their golden wedding day is only a part recompense for the service of their lives, and the youthful and happy appearance of this couple would indicate that they will live to enjoy the return of many anniversaries of their wedding day.

A few years ago Mr. Carter bought the Henry Scafe and Gilroy ranches west of Chambers comprised of 3,000 acres, and recently the family purchased the Harrison home in the southwest part of O'Neill and moved here from Burchard, Nebraska, to be near their son Dr. Carter, and to their ranch interests. The groom wore the necktie which he wore on his wedding day. Besides the presents, golden electric chandelier fixtures were installed in their home by electricians during their absence to dinner, as a surprise, by the children. The chandeliers in the living room are of Colonial gold design, and those in the dining room of Empire gold design.
