Terrific Force of Habit.

As an illustration of the terrible force of habit, there is the story of the man who had been visiting at the home of a millionaire. When he returned to his boarding house he absent-mindedly left his shoes outside his door to be shined by the butler. When he looked for the shoes the next morning one of the other boarders had made away with them.

ESTIMATED FIRE LOSS IS $132,000

Much Military Equipment Lost in Blaze—Other State College Buildings Saved After Hard Fight by Firemen.

Ames, Ia., Dec. 17 (Special).—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the armory of the Iowa State college here Saturday night, causing an estimated loss of $132,000. Several thousand dollars worth of government property, including militia uniforms, rifles, machine guns and other military equipment, were destroyed.

The fire started shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday night in the northeast corner of the building. Two militiamen, who were in the building at the time, attempted to quench the flames by using extinguishers.

A stiff northwest wind, however, fanned the flames and the blaze spread to the roof and followed it the entire distance. The fire department, assisted by apparatus from nearby towns, strove unsuccessfully to control the flames. Firemen worked in zero temperature.

The building covered an acre of ground and adjoined the state agricultural buildings. For a time the main college building was threatened, but firemen played water on the building and were able to save it.

The armory, a state building, was erected in the fall of 1921 and had been in use a little over a year. The loss is covered by insurance, officials said.

27 DROWNED IN STEAMER WRECK

Later Reports Reveal Details of Crashing of Lake Superior Vessel During Storm.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Dec. 17.—Twenty-seven lives were lost when the steamer Reliance crashed on the rocks of the Lizard Islands, in Lake Superior, according to word reaching here Sunday.

The Reliance, operated by the Spanish River Pulp and Paper company, was driven onto the rocks during a storm early last week. The Reliance normally carried a crew of 14, but she had picked up a number of lumberjacks. When she was wrecked 36 seamen and lumberjacks were on board.

Nine of the crew, including a woman, the wife of Jack Hartens, the cook, reached safety.

The tug Favorite left here Sunday for the scene of the wreck, in the hope the more survivors might be rescued. The storm, which had abated, increased as night settled over the lake and it is doubtful if the tug will be able to reach its destination.

STEAMER SINKS; 11 LOST.

London, Dec. 17.—Eleven of a crew of 16 perished Saturday night when the British steamer Snerdis, from Bordeaux, sank in the Mersey river after a collision with the steamer City of London from Bombay.

Five men wearing the new illuminated life belts were saved.

NORRIS TO FORCE SUBSIDY ISSUE

Will Fight Monday to Have Ship Measure Pushed Aside for His Farm Marketing Bill.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The issue between administration leaders and the Senate farm bloc over displacement of the subsidy bill in order to make consideration of the farm credit legislation possible, is expected to be settled in the Senate Monday. Senator Norris will press his motion to set aside the subsidy and take up his bill which provides for the creation of an $100,000,000 co-operative marketing agency.

Senator Jones, in charge of the subsidy measure, will resist such action on the part of the Senate. He announced early in the debate that he would be willing at any time to give way to a real credits measure, but is of the opinion that the Norris bill is only a subterfuge and does not represent the wishes of the farm bloc in the way of farm credits legislation. He wants the debate on the subsidy bill to proceed, he says, until there is a general agreement among the bloc members as to the kind of legislation they desire.

Senator Jones does not believe the farm group will be able to muster sufficient votes to adopt Senator Norris' motion. All of the administration senators will vote against it.

AUTO MYSTERY SOLVED.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 16 (A. WEST COAST DOPE DRIVE PLANS MADE

Prohibition Director Haynes Announces Cleanup Campaign to Start in January—Not Aimed at Movie Colony.

Universal Service.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes will personally direct a drive to clean up the Pacific coast early in January, it was announced here Sunday night.

Under the law, he is charged with enforcing narcotic regulations and will concentrate on this rather than violations of the 18th amendment, it was stated.

Mr. Haynes will be accompanied to the coast by Col. L. H. Nutt, chief of the narcotic division of the prohibition bureau and a corps of agents especially trained in drug suppression.

Backed by the Jones-Miller law, Mr. Haynes said Sunday night he hoped to be able to check an extremely dangerous vice and eventually root it out. This law deals specifically with the smuggling of dope, which Mr. Haynes declared, is the big problem to be overcome.

Movies Not Involved.

Mr. Haynes made it perfectly clear that his campaign on the coast has no connection with the case of Wallace Reid, celebrated motion picture star, and he made it equally as clear that he will not start an inquiry into the motion picture colony.

He is convinced there is no doping in the movie colony and the percentage of addicts there probably will measure far below that in average life. What he is especially anxious to do, he said, is to break up drug procurement among the poorer classes, particularly lumberjacks and day laborers.

The coast situation, Mr. Haynes stated, has long been a source of a great deal of annoyance, and is really responsible for the recent drug legislation that has been enacted.

As the gateway from the Orient, he pointed out, it is only natural that such narcotics as are smuggled in should come through the ports there.

Will Start 'Machinery.'

"We already have a law to take care of this situation," he said. "It is only necessary now to set up the machinery for the enforcement of this law. That is really the reason for my trip to the coast."

"It is foolish to attribute dope addiction to the motion picture colony. It is pathetic that any one so conspicuous as some of the stars are should be involved. But at the same time I doubt if there is any set quite so free. I recently had a long conference with Will Hay, arbiter of the motion picture industry, and we are in perfect accord."

"What we want to do and will do is to ascertain the means in which the dope is made so easily procurable and take the necessary action to make it no longer procurable."

CONTINUE N. Y. INQUIRY.

Universal Service.

New York, Dec. 17.—The plight of Wallace Reid, movie hero, now struggling in the coils of the dope habit in a Los Angeles sanitarium, is not worrying federal and local narcotic officials a hundredth part as much as is the real and widespread menace of the narcotic traffic as revealed in the arrest last week of William Williams with whom Reid is said to have done business as a "customer."

"More and more we appreciate the seriousness of the menace that stalks through our city and country as we check up on this arrest and the ramifications of the dope traffic it shows," said Dr. Carleton Simon, special deputy police commissioner in charge of the narcotic division, who is investigating Williams' history and scope of trade in drugs.

Indications point to the fact that New York was the shipping point for a large traffic in narcotics in the west where Williams is said to have had many customers, buying direct or through agents.

Dr. Simon said he believed the wave of irreligious sentiment that had swept the country had been largely responsible for dope addiction.

"There is no cure for drug addiction possible without spiritual uplift," he said. "The statistics of my office show that of the 6,000 dope violators arrested in two years less than one per cent. were church goers."

MIDDIES EXONERATED IN 'LIQUOR SCANDAL'

Washington, Dec. 17 (U. P.).—No disciplinary action for the "liquor scandal" among midshipmen following the recent army-navy game at Philadelphia was recommended by the special board of inquiry appointed by Secretary Denby to investigate the affair.

Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson, as commanding officer of the naval academy, was held technically responsible.

Secretary Denby, in making the report public warned that every possible step would be taken to prevent such occurrences in the future.

TURKS REFUSE TO TALK OF OCCUPATION ARMY

London, Dec. 17.—The Turkish finance minister announced to the Near East peace conference, according to a dispatch to the Central News, that the Turks will not discuss, much less pay, the cost of any army of occupation.

Twenty-eight automobiles, valued at more than $65,000, were recently reported stolen over a week end in Philadelphia. More than half of the cars were taken on Saturday afternoon by joy riders, who, after running out of "gas" abandoned them on the highways.

Warning Came Too Late.

Mother was in the kitchen hurrying to get dinner. At the busiest minute I saw the minister coming down the street. Knowing there was a drive to collect money, I knew the object of his visit and that it was apt to be a long one.

I announced to mother who was coming, and she, annoyed at the inopportune time for such a call, said, "Oh, tell him I'm not at home."

I went to the door and told him mother was out; he expressed his regret. Mother not realizing he had arrived so soon, came in from the kitchen, calling: "Rose, you'd better not tell him a lie. I'll come in and see him."

The next few moments were such a muddle neither mother nor I know what was said.—Chicago Tribune.

FREEDOM FROM LAXATIVES

Discovery by Scientists Has Replaced Them.

Pills and salts give temporary relief from constipation only at the expense of permanent injury, says an eminent medical authority.

Science has found a newer, better way—a means as simple as Nature itself.

In perfect health a natural lubricant keeps the food waste soft and moving. But when constipation exists this natural lubricant is not sufficient. Medical authorities have found that the gentle lubricating action of Nujol most closely resembles that of Nature's own lubricant. As Nujol is not a laxative it cannot gripe. It is in no sense a medicine. And like pure water it is harmless and pleasant.

Nujol is prescribed by physicians; used in leading hospitals. Get a bottle from your druggist today.—Advertisement.

Mamma—Well, then, what did he look like?

Flossie—I don't know that either. He danced so close to me that I couldn't see him.

STRANGER IN THEIR MIDST

Gap Johnson's Progeny Naturally Represented the Presence of Interloper in the Family.

"A short distance up the road," said a tourist who had halted his car in front of the residence of Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, "I met a small boy legging it for his life, with a howling mob of children of assorted sizes pursuing him and fairly raining stones, clubs and blistering epithets around him."

"Eh-yah!" replied Mr. Johnson. "The party of the first part was Gabe Giggery's boy and the mob was composed of some of my children, chasing him home. You see, their man was washed 'em all up a spell ago, and when they looked each other over they found that kid of Gabe's had been amongst 'em for nobody knows how long, eating, drinking and making merry, as it were. Whurupon they gave a united yell of fury and started to swarm all over him, and he let off a screech of terror and defunct out of yur as the crow flies!"—Kansas City Star.

One Must Be Careful.

I think the most embarrassing moment for me was one day when I was going to lunch with two girls. We had gone a short distance when we saw two other girls coming. One I knew. I said: "Oh, this one makes me tired."

"They said: 'Which one?'"

I said: "The one on the inside. She thinks she is so swell, and she is only a switchboard operator."

I then remembered one of the girls I was with was a switchboard operator, and all she did was look at me, and I knew I got red, but it was a hot day, and the sun was shining, so maybe she thought I was smothered, but I don't think she did, for she has not talked to me since.—Detroit Free Press.
