

-and that GOES, B'Gosh!

Guarantee

"All merchants selling Oshkosh B'Gosh Overalls are authorized to replace without cost any garment that does not give absolute satisfaction regardless of the time worn."

OSHKOSH OVERALL CO., Oshkosh, Wis.

OSHKOSH
B'GOSH OVERALLS

Union Made

"They Must Make Good or We Will"

P. J. McManus

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Colson, of Stuart, on December 18th.

L. C. Peters went to Omaha last Friday for a ten days visit with his mother and sister.

Miss Elsie Kellogg, of Valentine, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Templeton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Tickler went to Harvard, Nebraska, last Saturday where they spent Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William McManus arrived here Sunday morning from their home in Chadron, for a short visit with friends and relatives.

N. R. Brassfield, of Owanka, South Dakota, is visiting in O'Neill with his daughter, Mrs. George Clyde, and family during the holidays.

Mrs. R. T. Goree and two daughters, Irene and Helen Joe, returned from their home in Omaha Tuesday, for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Wm. Brittan returned home Sunday from Hot Springs, South Dakota, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Sanitarium, on December 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hough, of Alliance, Nebraska, are visiting at the George Clyde home during the holidays. Mrs. Hough is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde.

The plans and preparations which were made and almost perfected for a Federated church at Spencer have fallen by the wayside and the church will not be a reality.

Cards have been received by O'Neill friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Wilson, formerly of this city, announcing that they are located in their winter home at 124 Orange Ave., Daytona Beach, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Anderson and baby, of North Bend, Nebraska, spent Christmas with Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Simmons. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Melvina Simmons.

N. H. Kellogg, who was operating the roller mills in O'Neill for the past two months, has gone to Atkinson where he has taken charge of the mill at that place. The Atkinson mill has been practically out of business for some time.

J. F. Schrank, driving east on the street south of C. E. Havens' residence, Atkinson, collided at the intersection crossing with Geo. Ohde. Mr. Schrank's car was overturned pinning him underneath, though he escaped with but minor scratches and bruises. His car was badly damaged, however. Mr. Ohde's car having but one front wheel and a lamp broken.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Emerson, of Star, are mourning the death of their week-old baby boy who passed away December 21st.

A. H. Corbett and sister, Mrs. Wm. Swigart, went to their old home in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, on Wednesday of last week, where they will visit relatives and friends for a month.

Jack Sullivan is again able to be around following a two week's illness. H. B. Hubbard drove to Lincoln last Sunday and spent Christmas with his mother.

Ed Donohoe is here to spend the holidays with his children at the Brennan home.

Miss Margarite Carney came over from Bonesteel, South Dakota, last Friday to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, of Colome, South Dakota, are spending the holidays with O'Neill friends.

Miss Helen Harrington expects to return to Chicago Sunday following a short vacation with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Surber and Albert Herrick went to Waterbury last Saturday where they spent Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. J. N. Sturdevant, of Spencer, spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerman in this city.

Charles C. Schmoker, of Stuart, and Mrs. Mary Erb, of Atkinson, were married at high noon Wednesday by County Judge C. J. Malone at his residence in this city.

The Frontier is rejoicing over the Christmas present it received from the Kellogg Corn Flake people. The box contained a number of packages of each variety of breakfast foods put by the company.

Rev. J. A. Hutchins performed the ceremony on December 23rd which united in marriage Harry O. Anderson and Miss Esther Bloom, both of Atkinson. The ceremony was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in this city.

At a recent meeting of the John Farley Post of the American Legion, of Atkinson, Dr. W. J. Douglas was chosen commander; E. T. Kelly, adjutant; S. M. Bailin, financial officer; Dr. N. P. McKee, historian; George Campbell, chaplain and Adam Head sergeant-at-arms.

In the number of federal aid roads to be built, Nebraska ranks eighth among the states. The total amount of federal aid roads to which Nebraska is entitled is 5,619 miles. Of this amount something more than 2,400 miles are in the primary system and the rest are secondary roads.

Omaha News: Miss Margaret Wattles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wattles of Hollywood, Cal., formerly of Omaha, who was to have been a guest of Miss Gertrude Hart during the Christmas holidays, will go to O'Neill, Nebraska, for Christmas, to visit Miss Marian Gilligan, a classmate at the University of Nebraska.

A family reunion is being planned at the R. H. Murray home, for New Year's day. Several of the children arrived here in time to spend Christmas with the home folks. Those who are here are Mrs. Martin Bromberg, Gill, South Dakota; Mrs. John Burshock, Merchriston, South Dak.; George Murray, Leeds, South Dakota. The entire party spent Christmas with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Clyde Streeter and family near Page.

PRENUPTIAL SHOWER FOR MISS VERA CARTER

Miss Fern Hubbard and Miss Opale Ashley arranged a prenuptial shower for Miss Vera Carter at the home of Judge and Mrs. C. J. Malone Wednesday evening, in honor of the coming marriage of Miss Carter to Arthur Blum, of Sheridan, Wyoming. The decorations were the Christmas colors and roses. The program of the evening consisted of stunts of various kinds, one of which was a mock wedding. Miss Lulu Hatch was the blushing bride and Miss Della Harnish played the part of the gallant bridegroom, while Miss Mildred Malone, in the street attire of her father, conducted the ceremony. Miss Elsie Longsaff sang and Miss Edna Bay played the wedding march. Twenty-four guests were present. A buffet lunch was served.

CELEBRATED THEIR FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Barto P. Smith, of Humboldt, Nebraska, and Nancy Ann Jones, were married at her home in Senora, Missouri, December 24, 1872. After the wedding ceremony they drove with a team to their home at Humboldt where they ate Christmas dinner, and where they made their home for about twelve years prior to their moving to the homestead one mile from Ewing, Nebraska. They lived upon the homestead until twelve years ago when they moved to Ewing where they still reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the parents of four children, Lyle S., Earl P., Mrs. E. D. Henry and Mrs. Fred Sparks. Mrs. Sparks died in O'Neill about seven years ago. There are eleven grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The fiftieth anniversary of their marriage was celebrated last Monday by their children arranging a surprise for them and gathering at their home where a Christmas dinner was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Smith, their children and grandchildren.

Dinner was served at high noon and covers were laid for seventeen. The table and other decorations were yellow and white.

The surprise was most complete, due perhaps to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Smith anticipate that a surprise was being arranged for Sunday and prepared a dinner themselves for the occasion, but no one came as expected. During Sunday and Monday afternoons many friends called at the Smith home and wished the happy couple each a long and happy life.

EMMET SUFFERS ANOTHER FIRE SATURDAY MORNING

About five o'clock last Saturday morning the office of the Emmet Hay Company, at Emmet, was destroyed by fire. This is the third serious fire that has visited Emmet during the past year. The fire seemed to have started near the desk, and had gained such headway when discovered that it was impossible to remove anything from the building. A new adding machine and a number of new stack covers were among the contents that were destroyed. J. B. Ryan of this city is the heavy stockholder of the company. Guy Cole, of Emmet, is the manager of the hay company. The loss is estimated at about $1,200.00 with $200.00 insurance.

During the same night the large window of the Tom Strong garage was broken out and several tires and tubes were taken. The poultry house of the J. C. Graham meat market was entered and a bottle of "shine" was found near the door where the culprits had evidently dropped it while carrying away a sack of salt which was found some distance away. The glass in the door of the schoolhouse was also broken out during revelry.

We Wish You A Happy New Year

We Have Everything In Our Big Stock That You Would Wish To Buy

- MIXED NUTS
- CANDY
- CANNED MUSHROOMS
- CANNED CAVIAR
- CANNED LOBSTERS
- SWEET CIDER
- MINCE MEAT
- PETIT-POIS PEAS
- BOTTLED CAPERS
- OLIVES, PICKLES
- SALAD DRESSING
- OLIVE OIL

- JUMBO CELERY
- HEAD AND LEAF LETTUCE
- APPLES
- ORANGES
- BANANAS
- GRAPES
- CRANBERRIES
- LEMONS
- CANDIED CHERRIES
- CANNED PINEAPPLE
- PLUM PUDDING
- FIGS, DATES

100-Piece China Dinner Set	$50.00
100-Piece Dinner Set	$45.00
100-Piece Dinner Set	$35.00
42-Piece Breakfast Set	$15.00
42-Piece Breakfast Set	$12.00

CUT GLASS AT SPECIAL PRICES

J. C. Horiskey

GRADY'S GROCERY

- PURITAN BACON
- BARRINGTON HALL
- COFFEE
- LETTUCE. CELERY.
- FRUIT.
- CASH PAID FOR EGGS
- (Phones—68—126)

O'Neill, Nebraska